A New Reason To Quit Smoking Calls For New Ways To Quit Too

(NAPSI)—While you may already be aware of the many reasons to stop smoking, vaping, and chewing—from health risks (like heart disease, cancer and other illnesses) to the increasing cost of these products—many young Minnesotans are discovering a new one: they can no longer buy commercial tobacco if they're under 21.

Tips for Sticking to Your Quit

- Keep Trying
- Stay Positive
- Reach Out
- Relax
- Stay Active
- Fuel Your Body

There are many ways you can make it easier on yourself to quit tobacco.

The state's new Tobacco 21 law raises the legal sales age for commercial tobacco to 21.

This new piece of legislation has many thinking that now's a better time than ever to quit. While quitting is hard, especially during these stressful times, you can find healthy ways to manage it all without using commercial tobacco.

One such resource is Quit Partner, Minnesota's new family of free programs for people who are ready to quit smoking, vaping or using smokeless tobacco. Those interested in quitting can try what appeals to them, including quit coaching over the phone and quit medications that are delivered by mail, such as nicotine patches, gum or lozenges. In addition to this free support, Quit Partner also offers Minnesota's first quit-nicotine program just for teens, My Life, My Quit. Along with other resources, teens can confidentially talk and text with coaches.

Whatever your reason for quitting, here are six tips that can help you stick to your quit:

- 1. Keep trying. Everyone has one thing in common: hitting a few bumps along the way. Keep trying; it takes most people several attempts to quit.
- 2. Stay positive. Focus on the benefits of quitting and what you're gaining instead of what you're giving up. Write these down to remind yourself.
- 3. Reach out. Connect with friends and family to share your goals—and your struggles. They can help you stay strong and remind you of your reasons for quitting. You don't have to go it alone.
- 4. Relax. Relaxing may be more difficult these days if you're out of your typical routine or not able to see friends and family as often. Try reading, talking on the phone, taking deep breaths, getting outside or practicing yoga.
- 5. Stay active. You may be sticking around the house more these days, but that doesn't mean you have to be inactive—try going for a walk, riding your bike, or doing an at-home workout. Doing something that gets you moving helps clear your mind and makes it easier to deal with new challenges. Start small and keep moving until you feel better.
- 6. Fuel your body. Find the right mix of foods—including treats—to keep yourself full of energy. Try different recipes to find something that's both healthy and tasty.

Car Buying Tips

(NAPSI)—The U.S. auto industry estimates about 17 million cars are bought in the United States every year. If you're hoping—or just dreaming—of buying one of them anytime soon, there are a few facts and stats that can make car shopping a better experience for you.

Quality Cars To Consider

First, you should know that, based on input from tens of thousands of drivers, J.D. Power named Kia the highest-ranked, mass market brand for initial quality overall in the industry. The vehicles were evaluated on driving experience, engine and transmission performance and a broad range of quality issues reported by vehicle owners—and for the sixth consecutive year, Kia is the number one mass-market automotive brand.

Two of Kia's most popular models, Forte and Soul were named among the top 10 vehicles in the industry and also took top honors in the Compact Car (Forte) and Small SUV (Soul) segments. In addition, the Kia Sorento and Sedona models placed first in the Upper Midsize SUV and Minivan segments, respectively. "With 4 segment winners—and 4 additional models ranking among the top three in their respective segments—Kia's 'Give It Everything' brand philosophy continues to bear fruit in the extremely competitive automotive market," said James Bell, director, corporate communications, Kia Motors America.

One automotive company has won more J.D. Power Awards for Initial Quality than any other brand.

What Else You Should Know

Next, think about these four suggestions:

- 1. Be aware of book value. Look up the current market value of any car you're thinking of getting in a pricing guide such as Edmunds.com or KBB.com.
- 2. Get a pre-approved car loan and tell the salesperson you're a cash buyer. That will keep the up-selling down and help you stay within your budget.
- 3. Take a test drive. Make sure it's a vehicle you'll be comfortable in.
- 4. Before visiting the lot, visit the Internet. Check out the company's website. There may be specials, coupons or discounts it will pay you to know about. Also, look up the car manufacturer's website. For example, you can learn a lot about quality cars at www.kia.com.
