FULL BOXES

The Knights of Columbus gave out food boxes in Florence and Mapleton on Saturday as part of a program by their Archdiocese. The boxes contained a variety of produce/fruits, dairy, milk and meat.

“The program was greatly appreciated by the drive through recipients,” said Pat Beckham.

The Knights of Columbus organized the effort to provide relief to people adversely affected by the Oregon Wildfires and the coronavirus.

The Knights of Columbus Food Box donations supported the local community and its two parishes, St. Mary’s Our Lady of the Dunes Catholic Church in Florence and St. John’s in Reedsport.

“A sincere thank you to the great volunteer turnout, including some of the Knights’ wives and other parishioners,” Beckham said.

Donations were also given to the Florence Baptist Church for help with its homeless ministry.

In Florence, food boxes will be again be available Saturdays Oct. 24 and 31 at St Mary’s Catholic Church, 85060

Highway 101, from 1 to 3 p.m.

In Mapleton, food boxes will be given out the same days at Mapleton Food Share, 10718 Highway 126, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

FRAA highlights Kya Hobin this month

Florence Regional Arts Alliance (FRAA) is pleased to highlight the artwork of Kya Hobin on FRAA’s Youth Wall during the months of October and November.

Hobin is a 17-year-old attending Oregon Charter Academy. Her art style is usually cartoon characters, but with paintings she leans more towards realistic scenes.

“My art medium is usually pencils, paper and my phone,” she said. “I also use paints, canvases, paintbrushes, and sometimes glitter for my paintings.”

Hobin describes her hobbies as “drawing, painting, crafting, cosplaying and hanging out with my friends.”

She has participated in one previous art event titled “Let’s Rock!!”, a Community Challenge Show at Backstreet Gallery.

FRAA encourages the public to come and view this creative artist’s work displayed on the Youth Wall of FRAA’s Art Center and Gallery, 120 Maple St. in Historic Old Town Florence.

Kya Hobin is showing her work at Florence Regional Arts Alliance through November.

Medicare open enrollment begins

SALEM—People with Medicare have until Dec. 7 to make changes to their health plans and prescription drug coverage to meet their health care needs for 2021. Medicare’s open enrollment period for 2021 benefits has now started.

There are several changes for the 2021 plan year:

- Part D senior savings

model for diabetic supplies

- 29 prescription drug plans
- More than 100 Medicare Advantage (MA) plans, including a new Medicare Medical Savings Account MA option, available in all Oregon counties
- Acupuncture, telehealth and other virtual services
- End-stage renal disease (ESRD) patients can enroll in Medicare Advantage plans for 2021

Visit Medicare.gov/Plan-Compare to find 2021 health and drug plans, compare coverage options, or estimate Medicare costs.

For more details, check out the 2021 Medicare and You book or Medicare.gov.

The Oregon Senior Health Insurance Benefits Assistance (SHIBA) program is available to help beneficiaries understand their options. To find free, local Medicare counseling help, go to dcbspage.org/SHIBALOCAL or call 800-722-4134 (toll-free) to speak to a state-certified Medicare counselor. All of these services are available remotely statewide to ensure the safety of both clients and counselors.

Find local help by visiting SHIBA.Oregon.gov.

Soroptimist Rose Sale ends Friday

The annual Soroptimist Rose Sale will be over on Friday, Oct. 23.

The profits from this sale fund local service projects, the Live Your Dream Award and scholarships for local women and girls.

Through the sale, a dozen roses only cost $20!

A few tickets remain, so call early. Tickets are available from any Florence Soroptimist or call Jo Hine 541-997-2233 to order.

Delivery will be on Election Day, which is Tuesday, Nov. 3, this year.
