third-place Philomath with 51 points.

The boys race had similar results, with Tillamook senior Marshall Bush leading the field of runners with a time of 16:02.83.

And, as in the girls race, Siuslaw was able to pull out the win overall with its top five finishers placing among the top nine spots.

Coming in second and third, respectively, were sophomore Samuel Ulrich and junior Chad Hughes, with times of 17:01.69 and 17:09.95.

Next across the finish line for the Vikings were senior Jaxson Jensen in sixth place (17:32.49), and sophomore Kyle Hughes clocking 17:36.12 for seventh place.

Senior Ryan Jennings finished ninth in 17:44.81 to secure the team win with 27 points.

Philomath was second overall with 40 points, and Tillamook scored 64 for third place in team scoring.

The Vikings' next race is a dual meet against Marshfield set for Wednesday, March 10, at Millicoma Trail.

Races begin with the girls 5:30 p.m.

As with all sporting events this season, no spectators are allowed to attend the meet.

family. Many professional athletes are out of a job at an early age. Only the very best earn enough to sustain them for the rest of their lives.

My dream was to be an NFL player. In 1966, I was smart enough to know without attending a Division 1 school my chances of NFL stardom were unlikely. I also knew Warrenton High School was no hotbed of D1 athletes. My college was also low on the radar for NFL scouts. But I earned an educational degree and was able to teach and coach for 34 years.

Education counts more than any sports headline you attain in high school. To my knowledge, there has only been one athlete from Warrenton to play in the NFL. He lasted two years as a special team player for the Los Angeles Rams in the early 2000s.

Millions of athletes have missed a full year due to Covid. Less than .08 percent of them will make it to the professional level.

Let's use Siuslaw and Mapleton high schools for an education and play sports for fun. It's great to have a dream that pushes and motivates you to reach higher. Just remember that you need to have a solid foundation in order to keep your balance while reaching.
