

City of Florence hosting Yard Debris Disposal Days through October

Florence holds accepts yard debris disposal. The City of Florence's Yard Debris Disposal Day has returned again and will take place through October as weather permits. Bring your yard debris to the Kingwood entrance of the Florence Municipal Airport, Kingwood and 27th streets, from 9 a.m. until 2 p.m. on collection days. Collection days will be the third Saturday of each month, with the exception of May when Yard Debris Collection Day is moved to May. Disposal costs are $11 for a standard pickup truck load or small utility trailer (single axle) or less; $16 for a medium utility trailer (10-12 feet in length); and $21 for a large utility trailer (12-18 feet). Over 20 cubic yards is $21 plus $5 for each additional cubic yard. Please bring cash for payment. Scotch broom cannot be accepted after the June collection date due to the possible spread of seeds during transport to the disposal site. This collection is for tree clippings, leaves, grass clippings, weeds, prunings, brush, etc. People are asked to not bring food and household waste, animal waste, plastics, construction debris, hazardous waste, etc. 2021 Collection Dates are generally the third Saturday of every month:

- April 24
- May 8
- June 19
- July 17
- Aug. 21
- Sept. 18
- Oct. 16

Community invited to provide feedback, ideas on proposed rec, community center

The RiverView Coast Project is developing a Regional Community & Recreation Center in Historic Old Town Florence. People can learn more at www.RiverViewCoast.org.

Organizers Kurt Vander Bogart and Graham Ross are seeking public input, through an online survey, to help better understand what facilities and services the community would like to see in a recreation and community center. "We'd really like the community to have as much input as possible, and we are going to take the time to give everyone a chance to share their ideas," said Vander Bogart. The RiverView Coast Project is in its "brainstorming phase." The organizers particularly want as much feedback as possible across the community. One of the questions the survey asks is, "What kinds of facilities and activities are missing in our community that your family would enjoy?"

The link to the online survey is www.riverviewcoast.org/pages/riverview-coast-recreation-community-center-project-survey.

Local Habitat ReStore accepting donations of left-over paint for resale, recycling

Got Paint? Keep what you need, recycle the rest. Florence Habitat for Humanity will take people's left-over paint. Paint that is donated is either resold, if in usable condition, or recycled. A drive-through drop-off point will be set up on Saturday, April 24, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. in the Florence Habitat ReStore parking lot, 2016 Highway 101 in Florence.

ReStore will accept house paint, primers, stains and sealers. All paint must be in the original container with the manufacturer's printed label, secure lid and no larger than 5 gallons. For more information, call 541-997-5834, email restore@florencehabitat.org or visit the ReStore.

Sign up have begun for CROW's 2021 Summer Camps

Now is the time for families to sign up their kids for CROW's (Children's Repertory of Oregon Workshops) exciting 2021 Summer Camp sessions. CROW's first one-week camp is entitled "Game-A-Palooza" and will take place July 12 to 16 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. This will be a camp for ages 7 to 10. The second one-week camp is also called "Game-A-Palooza" and will take place July 19 to 23 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. This camp is for ages 11+.

Both sessions will be taught by CROW Artistic Director Melanie Heard, and the cost is $125, which includes a T-shirt. According to Heard, "We are focusing on F-U-N! Through a combination of socially distanced improv and traditional-style camp games, hands-on crafts, and mini discussions on the exciting world of theatre arts, students will be immersed in a plethora of creativity and laughter."

Also offered is CROW's Invitation or Audition Only- Advanced Acting Program, which will be Aug. 2 to 13. The cost for this two-week camp is $250, and includes a T-shirt. "This year's Advanced Acting program will focus on the historical and cultural significance of traveling performers: troubadours, minstrels, carnivals, circuses, street artists and more," Heard said. "During camp, students will work to create an outdoor show that will be performed at various safe locations in Florence for small, socially distanced audiences. Character development, comic timing, physicality and other vital performance skills will be the camp's primary focus."

In addition to summer camps, CROW will offer a small selection of classes, which will be held week-day afternoons after the camps. Dates and times can be found on the "Classes" tab at crowkids.com. Offerings will include Jazz/Hip-Hop Combo, Beginning Youth Tap, Beginning Irish Dance, Adult/Teen Tap and even an Adult Acting class series. Limited financial-need based scholarships are available for classes and camps.

The summer camp enrollment, afternoon class enrollment, and scholarships application deadline is June 5th. Parents should be careful to read the terms of enrollment carefully and must submit a deposit or their child's space is not guaranteed. "Camps are already nearly half full, so if you're thinking of signing up, don't wait," Heard said. All programming will be held at the CROW

Center for the Performing Arts, 3120 Highway 101 in Florence, and all current COVID-19 safety protocols will be followed. "We are so grateful to be able to re-open our doors. We are starting small, carefully following all COVID-19 safety procedures, and hope to be able to continue to provide arts opportunities for the community throughout fall and winter," Heard said. For more information, send an email to crowtheatrekids@yahoo.com or visit crowkids.com.

Sponsor a Child
Interested in sponsoring a child to attend summer camp or classes this year? CROW is seeking 2021 summer camp scholarship donors in the amount of $125 (one week scholarship) and $250 (two-week scholarship), and also summer class scholarships in the amount of $64 to cover one child's eight-week class enrollment fee. Donors will be recognized on Facebook, and will receive two free tickets to the 2021 Scare-CROW Haunted Maze (pending ability to offer the maze under autumn COVID restrictions). If you'd like to be a sponsor, please send your check to: CROW, PO Box 184, Florence, OR 97439 or contact Heard at: crowtheatrekids@yahoo.com. Please include a note with your donation for how you'd like your funds to be used.
