RHODY DAYS QUILT SHOW THIS WEEKEND

Many of the Rhody Days activities are gone this year, but not the Rhododendron Quilt Show! Come see the beautiful quilts displayed at Old School Furniture, Sixth Street and Highway 101, today, May 15, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

There will be a variety of quilts shown made by Rhododendron Quilt Guild members, demonstrating the different styles and techniques learned by the members over the years.

"This show will be a little smaller than the last one," said Quilt Show Chairperson Sandy Davidson. "There will be quilts for sale, as well as plenty of 'eye candy' for those who enjoy looking at a variety of colors and styles."

The show also features raffle quilts. Tickets are available for purchase at Old School Furniture.

The Quilt Show will also be a good time to meet with the members and join the group.

Rhododendron Quilt Guild meetings are currently held at Crossroads Assembly of God Church, 1380 10th

The Rhody Days Quilt show carries on this year at Old School Furniture.

Oregon Coast Military Museum hosts Rhody Days Poker Run

Today, May 15, the Oregon Coast Military Museum is hosting a first-time poker run for Rhody Days to benefit Florence area nonprofits who have struggled with the pandemic shut down of the past year. The committee, headed by Gary Cargill of Florence in Bloom, is coordinating the event with the help of Rods n' Rhodies Inc., the Rhody Cruisers and Jeeps R Us in Florence.

"Just like the commercial business community, the nonprofit community has struggled financially, and this will provide at least some minimal relief for them, as well as bring back a little normality to our community on Rhody Days," Cargill said.

In addition to the Oregon Coast Military Museum, participating nonprofits include Florence Food Share, Florence Area Humane Society, Florence Habitat for Humanity and the Crossroads Church Backpack for Kids program.

"The poker run will be an open format where all types of vehicles can participate such as classics, hot rods, motorcycles, Jeeps — or simply anyone who wants to enjoy a day driving around the Florence area and helping our local nonprofits," Cargill said.

Registration will take place at Three Rivers Casino Resort starting at 9 a.m. on May 15. Three levels of prize will be awarded based on the winning poker hands, and proceeds will be distributed evenly amongst the five participating nonprofits.

For more information, contact Cargill at 541-999-6513 or gncargill@charter.net.

Oregon Coast Military Museum is at 2145 Kingwood St. in Florence and open to the public Friday through Sunday, from noon until 4 p.m. Learn more by visiting www.oregoncoastmilitarymuseum.com.

At Shervin's we are taking extra precaution in order to ensure that our customers and staff are kept safe and healthy during this quickly changing situation.

1 Car Sanitation - All cars are wiped down with a sanitizer before and after the service. We wipe down any areas in the interior where employees have touched, such as door handles, the steering wheel, keys, shifters and power window panels.

2 Hand Sanitation - Our staff will continue to wash their hands throughout the day and change gloves after each car they service.

3 Give Customers Options - We will pick up and deliver your vehicle to your home. You may also drop your key in our secure mailbox for drop-offs to avoid or minimize contact.

4 Employee Illness is Serious - We are encouraging employees not to shake hands. We are practicing "personal distancing" and encouraging employees to stay home if they feel under the weather.

5 Wipe Down High Touch Points - We wipe/spray counters, credit card machines, door handles, phone handles, kitchen areas, and chair arms and tables in waiting area multiple times a day. We continue to be focused and committed to working with each of you to ensure we continue to meet and exceed your expectations. We are here for you.

We thank you for your business and more importantly, your friendship. Please be safe and exercise extra precaution during this challenging time.
