Sign up now for CROW's 2021 Summer Camps

Now is the time for families to sign up their kids for CROW's (Children's Repertory of Oregon Workshops) exciting 2021 Summer Camp sessions.

CROW's first one-week camp, taking place July 12 to 16, is now full.

The second one-week camp is called "Game-A-Palooza" and will take place July 19 to 23 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. This camp is for ages 10+.

Both sessions will be taught by CROW Artistic Director Melanie Heard, and the cost is $125, which includes a T-shirt.

According to Heard, "Through a combination of socially distanced improv and traditional-style camp games, hands-on crafts, and mini discussions on the exciting world of theatre arts, students will be immersed in a plethora of creativity and laughter."

Also offered is CROW's Invitation or Audition Only-Advanced Acting Program, which will be Aug. 2 to 13. The cost for this two-week camp is $250, and includes a T-shirt.

"This year's Advanced Acting program will focus on the historical and cultural significance of traveling performers: troubadours, minstrels, carnivals, circuses, street artists and more," Heard said. "During camp, students will work to create an outdoor show that will be performed at various safe locations in Florence for small, socially distanced audiences. Character development, comic timing, physicality and other vital performance skills will be the camp's primary focus."

In addition to summer camps, CROW will offer a small selection of classes, which will be held weekday afternoons after the camps.

Dates and times can be found on the "Classes" tab at crowkids.com. Offerings will include Jazz/Hip-Hop Combo, Beginning Youth Tap, Beginning Irish Dance, Adult/Teen Tap and even an Adult Acting class series.

Limited financial-need based scholarships are available for classes and camps.

The summer camp enrollment, afternoon class enrollment, and scholarships application deadline is June 5th.

Parents should be careful to read the terms of enrollment carefully and must submit a deposit or their child's space is not guaranteed.

All programming will be held at the CROW Center for the Performing Arts, 3120 Highway 101 in Florence, and all current COVID-19 safety protocols will be followed.

"We are so grateful to be able to re-open our doors. We are starting small, carefully following all COVID-19 safety procedures, and hope to be able to continue to provide arts opportunities for the community throughout fall and winter," Heard said.

For more information, send an email to crowtheatrekids@yahoo.com or visit crowkids.com.

Sponsor a Child for Camp or Classes at CROW

Non-profit youth theatre organization, CROW, is seeking 2021 summer camp scholarship donors in the amount of $125 (one week scholarship) and $250 (two-week scholarship), and also summer class scholarships in the amount of $64 to cover one child's eight-week class enrollment fee.

Donors will be recognized on Facebook, and will receive two free tickets to the 2021 Scare-CROW Haunted Maze (pending ability to offer the maze under autumn COVID restrictions).

"Coming back from COVID is going to be hard on so many families. Our sponsors truly make a big difference, and provide valuable funds that directly impact local children in the arts," Heard said. "Thank you for considering this important request."

If you'd like to be a sponsor, please send your check to: CROW, PO Box 184, Florence, OR 97439 or contact Heard at: crowtheatrekids@yahoo.com. Please include a note with your donation for how you'd like your funds to be used.

All donors will receive a 501(c)3 tax deduction letter/receipt by mail.

Acting Workshops

CROW will also be offering a five-session Adult Acting workshop this summer. Classes will take place July 16 to Aug. 13, on Friday evenings from 6 to 7:30 p.m. at the CROW Center for the Performing Arts.

During the course, students will explore characterization, motivation, diction and stage presence.

Sign-ups are online at www.crowkids.com/classes. The cost is $100 for the five-class series, and all materials are included. Space is limited and no experience is required.

BOATING from page 1A

These statistics hit home important boating safety information.

- Wear a Coast Guard-approved, proper-fitting life jacket at all times while underway. Do not stow it since you may not have time to don it in an emergency.
- While boating or paddling, always expect the unexpected and be prepared with the proper training and equipment.
- Take a boating safety class.
- Use an engine cut-off device on motorized boats.
- File a float plan.
- Be aware of weather and water conditions.
- Be considerate of others and understand boating etiquette and navigations rules.
- Boat sober – it's the law.

For more information from the U.S. Coast Guard about safe boating, visit www.uscgboating.org.

The U.S. Coast Guard Auxiliary and other organizations offer boating and paddling classes both online and in person. In Oregon, all boaters who operate a motorboat over 10 horsepower and youths 12 to 15 years old operating a motorboat of any size are required to take an approved boating safety course and apply/carry a boater education card. Youth ages 11 and under cannot operate a motorboat.

For more information about boating requirements and laws in Oregon, visit the Oregon State Marine Board online at boat.oregon.gov.

The U.S. Coast Guard Auxiliary offers free Vessel Safety Checks (VSCs) for recreational boats and paddlecraft. The courtesy exam is performed at your boat – whether in a slip, at the launch ramp, or in your driveway – by a certified Vessel Examiner, at a mutually-convenient time, and usually takes 30 to 45 minutes, depending upon the size of your boat.

Auxiliarists will check to see if you have the necessary equipment to save lives and summon help, and check if your vessel meets current state and federal safety standards. No recreational vessel is too large or too small to be safe and in compliance. If you pass the exam, you will receive a VSC sticker to place on your vessel.

To request a VSC, contact your local Coast Guard Auxiliary Flotilla, the local U.S. Power Squadron or visit cgaux.org.

IDENTIFY • PREPARE • SURVIVE

CORRECTION

In the May 13 edition of the Siuslaw News, the article "FURA approves proposed budget for 2021-23 biennium" stated Chairperson Bill Meyer was replaced as chairperson of the Florence Urban Renewal Agency (FURA) by Mike Webb.

Webb was instead named chair of the FURA Budget Committee and Meyer remains chair of FURA.

The FURA Budget Committee heard the presentations and did approve the proposed budget as presented. It will now be forwarded to the FURA Board of Directors for consideration and adoption.
