OBITUARY

THOMAS—Thais Nina Korntved Thomas passed away June 25, 2021.

Thais was born Sept. 4, 1923, to Henry C. and Susan Valiska Korntved in Salinas, Calif.

She grew up in the Salinas Valley on a farm outside Greenfield. She had two sisters, June Korntved Deome and Lorna Korntved Arnold, and one brother, Don Korntved. Before passing away, Thais was the only surviving sibling. At times, her nickname was Ti.

Thais' first job, while still in high school, was in a local bakery in King City, Calif. She married Gene Dorman Thomas when they were just out of high school on Dec. 6, 1941. They were planning to travel and work as they went. They woke up the next day to the bombing of Pearl Harbor, Dec. 7, 1941.

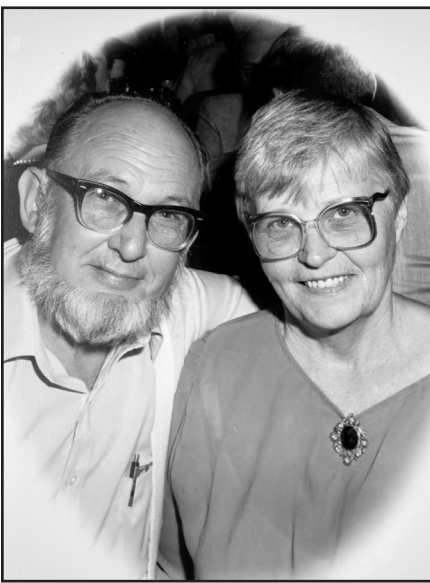

Thais also had planned to do more schooling, but instead they started their family, having three daughters, Sue Etta Thomas Abernathy, Mollie Marie Thomas Smith and Katherine Nina Thomas Johnson, and raising them in Cambria, Calif. Gene (being 4F) drove truck and fixed all kinds of equipment during WWII.

Thais worked as a bookkeeper, domestic engineer and at times as a cook. She also ment, Gene and Thais were organic farmers and raised amazing flowers.

In her 40s, Thais went to college and received her BA in Philosophy, graduating with honors.

Gene died of ALS in 1991. Of their three daughters, the oldest, Susan, has already passed. Surviving Thais are Mollie and Katherine, three grandchildren: Randall Coots, Sarah Bous and Daniel Bous, and five great-grandchildren: Andrew Bous, Nicolas Bous, Elise Bous, Aiden Leslie and Sophia Leslie.

Thais was 97 years old. Burns's Riverside Chapel Florence Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

times there just were not many things to cook. No matter how spare the stores, she always found a way to make a great meal. Thais became well known for her cooking. She always cooked unbelievable meals.

Over the years, Thais did a lot of volunteer jobs. She was also one of the first to teach solar cooking classes. She was a Girl Scout Leader and worked with the Grandmothers for Peace. During retire-
