

SIDE SHOW

This plant features flower colors ranging from pure white through all shades of pink, lavender and red. Some cultivars produce double flowers, and others have a thin white edge on the petals, stripes, or ruffled edges. It is often given as a gift during the winter months, as it flowers beautifully during cool weather. It naturally becomes dormant during the summer and ceases flowering. - Brenda Weaver

MEET ERNIE

Ernie is a sweet boy who's learning how much fun life can be. We believe he would enjoy a home with older kids and could live with a cat-savvy dog. Ernie seems to like being around other cats but needs a slow introduction since he came in as a stray tomcat. He does play rough, so a female or cat-friendly male sibling would be best. If you're interested in meeting Ernie, please fill out an application on our website.
