OBITUARIES

HUNT—Richard Wayne Hunt passed away on Sept. 9, 2021, at home in his favorite chair.

Richard Wayne Hunt

Dick was born Jan. 31, 1933, in Sedro-Woolley, Wash., to Lillian and Arthur Hunt. He grew up with his younger brother, Warren, in Washington and Southern Oregon before settling in Swisshome, Ore.

After graduating from Mapleton High School in 1951 and an initial half-hearted attempt at Oregon State College, he joined the U.S. Air Force, where he spent much of his service time touring Germany and neighboring countries on an old Matchless motorcycle.

Upon returning home, he met and promptly fell in love with local beauty Patricia Lytle. They were married on June 10, 1957, and moved into a small apartment in Florence, Ore.

Dick returned to Oregon State, graduating in 1959 with an accounting degree and a job waiting at the Internal Revenue Service, where he would spend his entire career. He and Pat moved around Oregon with the I.R.S., making life-long friends and memories along the way.

In 1961, their oldest son, Don, was born in Salem. Their second, Brian, was born in Medford in 1963. After a brief stint in Eugene, the family finally settled in Aloha, Ore., where they remained until Dick retired from the I.R.S. on his 55th birthday. Well over 100 people attended his retirement party.

He and Pat made the most of retirement. Dad bought another motorcycle and rode it all over Oregon. After failing to convince Mom that riding on the back of the bike was fun, they bought a touring motorhome, "Winnie," frequently taking it camping to the mountain lakes in the Willamette Pass and on several trips around the country. In 1996, they moved to Florentine Estates, an active retirement village in Florence, Ore., where Dad played golf or tennis nearly every day until he couldn't anymore.

Mom and Dad made many friends in Florentine and cherished their time there. Dick loved Pat, his boys, tennis, golf, Odell Lake, Heidelberg beer and the Oregon State Beavers. He is survived by his wife Patricia, sons Don and Brian (Lisa), brother Warren (Susan) and six grandsons: Brad, John, Jason, Bryan, Trevor and Sam.

In accordance with Dad's wishes, there will be no memorial service. Instead, put some beers on ice and go camping.

LEV-SIEGER—Brooke (Lundeen) Lev-Sieger, age 41, passed away on Sept. 13, 2021.

She was born in Eugene, Ore., to Ed and Karla Lundeen on June 21, 1980. Brooke lived all but one year of her childhood in Florence, Ore. At the age of three, she and her family moved to Pittsburgh, Penn., where she received a life-saving liver transplant on March 28, 1984. They then returned to Florence.

Brooke graduated from Siuslaw High School in 1999. Brooke gave birth to a baby girl, Noel Elaine Lundeen, on Dec. 14, 2002. She moved to Corvallis, Ore., in 2006, where she met and married Noah Lev-Sieger of Philomath, Ore., on Sept. 10, 2011. They spent their married life together raising Noel, in Philomath where they celebrated Noel's graduation from Philomath High last spring amidst the beautiful array of flowers in Brooke's backyard garden.

Brooke is survived by her mother (Karla), father (Ed), husband (Noah), daughter (Noel) and two brothers (Michael and Joel Lundeen). Brooke's Celebration of Life will be held from 1 to 4 p.m. on Sunday, Oct. 10, 2021, at Martin Luther King Jr. Park (Walnut Barn), located at 4905 NW Walnut Blvd. in Corvallis, Ore.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Safe Haven Humane Society in Albany, Ore., and Donate Life Northwest at www.donatelifenw.org.

DeMoss-Durdan is handling arrangements, www.demossdurdan.com.

MEET NIFTY

Nifty, like most ladies, likes attention on her terms. One she knows you she is open to a relationship, though it can be complicated. Nifty is shy. She likes chin scratches, head pets, and long walks around the house to choose the best sunny spot while she waits for you to deliver her treats. Nifty enjoys other cats but is independent enough she would be fine as the only cat.
