During the last fitting out at this port, there were 15 arrivals of small craft at this port, and 12 departures, of which seven were sailing vessels. In the last three weeks the shipping has been at its highest rate ever known, and has been a steady increase. Nine vessels are now under way, and possibly 15 more will follow later this week. The shipping news is being published in the local papers, which will have the latest developments. The weather is favorable for sailing, and the winds are blowing from the north. The ships are equipped and fitted out in the usual manner, and will sail in the next few days. The following is a summary of the shipping news:
