THE ASTORIAN

MONDAY, July 4, 1872

New Papers.—Mr. G. B. Ireland has issued the first number of his new paper, The Tri-Weekly Astorian and Portland News. It comes out in a very handsome style, and is entirely free from the usual errors of the morning press. Mr. Ireland has been in the newspaper business for the last forty years, and is known throughout the State for his industry and perseverance. We wish his new enterprise success equal to his fame and desert.—Portland Bulletin.

A New Paper.—The first number of the Tri-Weekly Astorian and Portland News appeared yesterday. Its name indicates its character, as it will be issued on each Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday. It is expected to be a success. Maine is a well known paper in the history of Astoria, and is the first number of the new one, and has been the subject of much excitement among the people of the city. The new paper is in the hands of Mr. Ireland, and is expected to be a great success.

The man, Mr. hands, feet; Mr. Ireland, has issued a new paper, The Tri-Weekly Astorian and Portland News. It is printed in a very handsome style, and is entirely free from the usual errors of the morning press. Mr. Ireland has been in the newspaper business for the last forty years, and is known throughout the State for his industry and perseverance. We wish his new enterprise success equal to his fame and desert.—Portland Bulletin.

Clarks, Henderson & Co.,

SfX PLANS CURE.

This Space is Reserved!

Dr. Harscom's Small Pox Cure.

At this next instance of all diseases it is to be feared that a cure cannot be properly obtained. It is well to be prepared for it at all times. By Dr. Harscom's New Pox Cure and Preventive, now prepared and kept on hand at our establishment, no difficulty will be experienced in curing the patient. This history of the disease is to be remembered by all men, as it is to be feared that it will be cured by the invention the following somewhat condensed letter:—

SAMUEL GOVERN, Proprietor.

Portland, July 4, 1872.

To the Editor of the Astorian and Portland News:

I am about to leave Portland, for the purpose of attending the small-pox patients in several of our county seats. I have a large hospital at Portland, and am well prepared to meet this disease. I am also prepared to go to any other county seat in which the disease may break out. Please publish this letter in your paper, as it will be of great service to the people.

A. G. Harscom.

Wholesale and Retail Dealers.

W. F. Huston, Portland, Oregon.

B. I. E.ELD, Proprietor.

PROSPECTUS

THE ASTORIAN,

PUBLISHD TWICE WEEKLY,

MUNIFICENT BUILDING, - - - - - - - - - - MUNIFICENT,

D. C. ERELL, Proprietor.

The paper will be of independent qualities, its contents being of the highest order, and it will be conducted with a aim to view of the highest interests of the State. The Company is to be composed of those who are interested in the fate of the State, and the progress and prosperity of the people, will be the principal business. The paper will contain the Pronon and Mechanics of the country, and as soon as possible the paper will be published, and will be read by the intelligent and the thinkers of the country, and will be read by the people of the country, and will be read by the people of the country.

The paper will be conducted with a aim to view of the highest interests of the State. The Company is to be composed of those who are interested in the fate of the State, and the progress and prosperity of the people, will be the principal business. The paper will contain the Pronon and Mechanics of the country, and as soon as possible the paper will be published, and will be read by the intelligent and the thinkers of the country, and will be read by the people of the country, and will be read by the people of the country.

When I received this matter, there being no small index in the State of Oregon, I am satisfied to a number of these in the daily press, and of the morning press, and of the Astorian, have been completely established by the name from which I received it. I am satisfied that the Astorian, or the people of Oregon, have the honor of being the first of these newspapers to be established in the country. I am satisfied that the Astorian, or the people of Oregon, have the honor of being the first of these newspapers to be established in the country.

I am satisfied that the Astorian, or the people of Oregon, have the honor of being the first of these newspapers to be established in the country. I am satisfied that the Astorian, or the people of Oregon, have the honor of being the first of these newspapers to be established in the country.

I am satisfied that the Astorian, or the people of Oregon, have the honor of being the first of these newspapers to be established in the country. I am satisfied that the Astorian, or the people of Oregon, have the honor of being the first of these newspapers to be established in the country.

J. P. Whitlam, Editor.

I am satisfied that the Astorian, or the people of Oregon, have the honor of being the first of these newspapers to be established in the country. I am satisfied that the Astorian, or the people of Oregon, have the honor of being the first of these newspapers to be established in the country.

When I received this matter, there being no small index in the State of Oregon, I am satisfied to a number of these in the daily press, and of the morning press, and of the Astorian, have been completely established by the name from which I received it. I am satisfied that the Astorian, or the people of Oregon, have the honor of being the first of these newspapers to be established in the country. I am satisfied that the Astorian, or the people of Oregon, have the honor of being the first of these newspapers to be established in the country.

I am satisfied that the Astorian, or the people of Oregon, have the honor of being the first of these newspapers to be established in the country. I am satisfied that the Astorian, or the people of Oregon, have the honor of being the first of these newspapers to be established in the country.

J. P. Whitlam, Editor.

I am satisfied that the Astorian, or the people of Oregon, have the honor of being the first of these newspapers to be established in the country. I am satisfied that the Astorian, or the people of Oregon, have the honor of being the first of these newspapers to be established in the country.

When I received this matter, there being no small index in the State of Oregon, I am satisfied to a number of these in the daily press, and of the morning press, and of the Astorian, have been completely established by the name from which I received it. I am satisfied that the Astorian, or the people of Oregon, have the honor of being the first of these newspapers to be established in the country. I am satisfied that the Astorian, or the people of Oregon, have the honor of being the first of these newspapers to be established in the country.

I am satisfied that the Astorian, or the people of Oregon, have the honor of being the first of these newspapers to be established in the country. I am satisfied that the Astorian, or the people of Oregon, have the honor of being the first of these newspapers to be established in the country.

J. P. Whitlam, Editor.

I am satisfied that the Astorian, or the people of Oregon, have the honor of being the first of these newspapers to be established in the country. I am satisfied that the Astorian, or the people of Oregon, have the honor of being the first of these newspapers to be established in the country.

When I received this matter, there being no small index in the State of Oregon, I am satisfied to a number of these in the daily press, and of the morning press, and of the Astorian, have been completely established by the name from which I received it. I am satisfied that the Astorian, or the people of Oregon, have the honor of being the first of these newspapers to be established in the country. I am satisfied that the Astorian, or the people of Oregon, have the honor of being the first of these newspapers to be established in the country.

I am satisfied that the Astorian, or the people of Oregon, have the honor of being the first of these newspapers to be established in the country. I am satisfied that the Astorian, or the people of Oregon, have the honor of being the first of these newspapers to be established in the country.

J. P. Whitlam, Editor.