NEWSPAPER DECISIONS.

1. Any person who takes a paper regularly from the post-office—whether directed to his name or another's, or whether he has subscribed or not—is responsible for the payment.

2. If any person orders his paper discontinued, he must pay all arrearages, or the publisher may continue to send it, until payment is made, and collect the whole amount—whether the paper is taken from the office or not.

3. The courts have decided that refusing to take newspapers and periodicals from the post-office, or removing and leaving them uncalled for, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.

CHANGES IN POSTAL LAWS.

- 1. Franking privilege abolished.
2. No mail matter can pass free.
3. Publishers must pay postage on exchanges received.
4. Postal cards cannot be sent to dead letter office, nor used a second time.
5. Postage must be collected on newspapers published in the county, when delivered through the mails.
6. Ordinary cards may be sent through the mails with one cent stamp, provided the message is printed. The address may be written.
