The bridge at the Sea-old-home curious becoming last three weeks ago.

The Congregational school will give a concert on Sunday evening, December 10th, at the community hall. Admission is free. The children will sing, and recitations, among other musical numbers, will be given.

After a long and severe winter, the snows have melted, and the hillsides are now covered with green grass. The sun is shining, and the air is warm. The people are out in the fields, working and enjoying the pleasant weather.

BLOODY BATTLE FOR OUR DUTY:

A large number of the inhabitants of this town have joined the volunteer army. They are well supplied with arms and ammunition, and are determined to defend their homes against any attack.

A volunteer company has been formed, consisting of about 50 men, under the command of Captain John Smith. They are well drilled and ready for action. The company is stationed at the foot of the hill, where they can see and hear all that is going on.

The people of this town are determined to uphold their rights, and will do their best to protect their homes.

The company of Mr. Nelson was stationed at the foot of the hill, where they could bring wagons into the valley.