

The Daily Astorian.

FRIDAY.....MAY 12, 1876.

SPECIAL NOTICE.—We shall not, cannot, in future, answer letters of inquiry written to us by parties desirous of settling in Oregon, unless such letters of inquiry contain at least the amount of stamps necessary to pay postage on the return letter. For 2 cents we will forward four copies of THE ASTORIAN, of separate dates, to any address in the United States, postage paid.

ADVERTISE.—An exchange says: Maybe you think that people don't like to read advertisements! If you do you are much mistaken. Fresh, well-put well-placed advertisements are news! They are welcomed, read—nay, studied! The newspaper that is alive with them is increasingly acceptable and so is the business house that knows how to get them up, possessed with the sagacity and nerve to keep them up.

TAKE YOUR LOCAL PAPER.—A man in Marion county last week saved $150 by taking his local paper, the Mercury, and there is a man in this county, near Brownsville, who told us, a short time ago, that he had made an 80-acre tract of land by being a reader of the Democrat. He had been waiting for a long time to buy an 80, adjoining his farm, but could get no track of the owner, who was a non-resident of the State, and finally saw it advertised for sale in the Democrat. He attended the sale and bought it for a nominal sum, and is now the owner of it.—Astorian Democrat.

WARNING TO DELINQUENT SUBSCRIBERS.—A Russian paper announces that a belief in the approaching end of the world has seized on the Cossacks of the Don. Many, especially aged people, are giving up worldly affairs, wearing a shroud, and ordering their coffins. On every road are men repairing to Moscow to be consecrated priests, in order that the smallest village may have its own priest and church. The Russian paper fails to state whether its delinquent subscribers have taken the scare and paid up. That to our mind would be stronger evidence of the approach of the Millennium than any thing that a superstitious Cossack could advance.

DON'T READ ADVERTISEMENTS.—Occasionally a business man is encountered who professes to believe that "people don't read advertisements any how." A greater mistake is seldom made. If a typographical error creeps into an ad, it soon becomes the talk of the neighborhood, and if the people do not read ads, how do they "drop" on errors with such facility? The other day the advertisement of the Centennial Restaurant appeared, in which the word "eating" was set up "fating," whereupon we were duly notified of the error by seven Salinasites and one Chinaman, and lastly, the Monterey Herald felt in duty bound to notify us also.—Daily Recorder, Salinas City, California.
