

Drifts and Tow Heads 1876.

Upper Astoria, Clatsop county, Oregon. } April 24, 1876. At a Special meeting of the Columbia River Fishermen's Beneficial Aid Society, the following regulations for the government of all concerned were adopted. That the following drifts and tow heads be established for the fishing season of 1876. First Drift. From Woody Island to Brown's point. Second Drift. From Brown's Point inside of Snag Island to the 12th red buoy. Third Drift. From the 15th buoy to Tongue Point. Fourth Drift. From Tongue Point to a point a little west of Booth's Cannery, at a place to be designated by a spile or some permanent mark. Fifth Drift. From the termination of the 4th drift to Smith's Point. Sixth Drift. From Smith's Point to the Pacific Ocean. Seventh Drift. From the red buoy in the Prairie channel to Tongue Point up or down. Eighth Drift. The big snag in Chinook shoot will be considered a tow head. The fishermen in Astoria, in council have mutually agreed to bind themselves to be governed by the foregoing drifts, and it is expected from boats outside of the Society that they will also conform to the same. Any fisherman who is not fortunate enough to be a member of this Society has still another opportunity to join this Society, by applying before the 10th day of May, 1876, in accordance with the notice published elsewhere in the ASTORIAN. After which time the initiation fees will be raised to twenty-five dollars. By order of the Society, THOMAS DEALEY, Sec.

CITY ITEMS.

Splendid assortment wall paper and window blinds just received at Case's. Van Dusen has just opened an elegant stock of stationery sundries. Sponges, caps, pencil heads, note books, blotters and other novelties. The Astoria shirt factory, in C. L. Parker's new building, on Chenamus Street, up stairs, is the place for gentlemen to get nice fitting garments at reasonable prices. Births, marriages and deaths will be inserted free of charge to subscribers to either the DAILY or the WEEKLY ASTORIAN. Births or marriages, when sent in by persons who are not subscribers to the paper, should be accompanied with one dollar, which will be placed to the credit of the party and the paper will be sent to the address for the full amount so paid to us. Postage on the WEEKLY ASTORIAN is two cents a paper to any part of the United States, when sent by people not connected with the newspaper office. We will send four copies (separate dates), equivalent to one month, to one address, in one wrapper (post-paid), on receipt of 25 cents. We refer our readers to the advertisement of a farm for sale on Deep river. This is the best opportunity that we know of for any man wanting a good place, cheap, suitable for dairying or farming purposes. The only reason for wishing to sell, is that the present owner Mr. C. M. Stark is about to engage in other business. Put Smith, a noted stock man, who has invested largely in blooded sheep arrived in Oregon again recently and will make arrangements for distributing here among sheep owners, of a lot of thoroughbred merino bucks. He will arrive at Astoria with several head of young bucks about the first of June. See advertisement. MIND YOUR P's.—Persons who patronize papers should pay promptly, for the pecuniary prospects of the press have a peculiar power in pushing forward public prosperity. If the printer is paid promptly, and his pocket-book kept plenteous by prompt-paying patrons, he puts his pen to the paper in peace, his paragraphs are more pointed, he paints his pictures of passing events in more pleasant colors, and the perusal of his paper is of more pleasure to his people. Paste this piece of proverbial philosophy in some place where all persons can perceive it. HOW ADVERTISING AFFECTS BUSINESS.—The man who advertises his business, if what he offers for sale is honestly what he represents it to be or what it ought to be, is constantly assisted in his business by those who have been attracted to him and tested him. A buyer has read his advertisement, and gone to his store or work shop, warehouse, whatever it may be, and tried what was recommended. If it has satisfied him he is pleased and recommends it to his neighbor, who is likely to go to the same place and tell his neighbor in turn. And thus little rills started by his advertisement flow in upon him from all sides, and the current of his business grows stronger and wider and more rapid, and he prospers and grows rich, all because a strict attention to business he added judicious advertising. But for this he might have lingered on in the community for years and his business would scarcely have been heard of.
