The Daily Astorian.

MONDAY.....JUNE 5, 1876.

☞ Mr. Armstrong is taking about as nice pictures, at the Astoria Gallery, as any gallery in the State. Give him a call.

☞ Miss Crang will commence a private school on Monday next, June 5th, in the Public School-house. Charges fifty cents per week for each scholar.

☞ Mr. Charles Stevens at the city Book Store is offering special inducements to persons in want of articles in his line. He has a splendid stock, which he is closing out at cost, intending to quit the business.

EASTERN OREGON—The Astorian is doing more for the interests of Eastern Oregon than any other paper in the State. If you have a friend or a relative in that section of this country, send him the paper on trial. Only one dollar for four months.

☞ Put Smith, a noted stock man, who has invested largely in blooded sheep arrived in Oregon again recently and will make arrangements for distributing here among sheep owners, of a lot of thoroughbred merino bucks. He will arrive at Astoria with several head of young bucks about the first of June. See advertisement.

☞ We refer our readers to the advertisement of a farm for sale on Deep river. This is the best opportunity that we know of for any man wanting a good place, cheap, suitable for dairying or farming purposes. The only reason for wishing to sell, is that the present owner Mr. C. M. Stark is about to engage in other business.

☞ It is not the polished orator who shapes public opinion, but the quiet editor, whose words go out to the public ear without parade or ceremony. The orator may please the ear or tickle the fancy; but the editor does more: He satisfies the mind, and carries to every household a fund of knowledge. The orator, by burning words and impassioned eloquence, may drive men to a sense of duty; but an editor if he be true to his profession, attracts men by the presentation of his thoughts which appeal to the nobler qualities of head and heart. The words of the orator drop from the lips and are lost, while the words of the editor drop from the press, and like coined money, pass for what they are worth; if pure gold in the truths conveyed, they pass current everywhere. For good or evil, the editor wields a powerful influence. He can exalt or debase a community. He can advance public corruption. How important, then, that the editor should be a good man, and that all papers that convey correct sentiment to the public ear should receive liberal support.

HOW ADVERTISING AFFECTS BUSINESS.—The man who advertises his business, if what he offers for sale is honestly what he represents it to be or what it ought to be, is constantly assisted in his business by those who have been attracted to him and tested him. A buyer has read his advertisement, and gone to his store or work shop, warehouse, whatever it may be, and tried what was recommended. If it has satisfied him he is pleased and recommends it to his neighbor, who is likely to go to the same place and tell his neighbor in turn. And thus little rills started by his advertisement flow in upon him from all sides, and the current of his business grows stronger and wider and more rapid, and he prospers and grows rich, all because strict attention in business he added judicious advertising. But for this he might have lingered on in the community for years and his business would scarcely have been heard of.

AN EDITOR'S APPEAL.—As the report that we are very wealthy has gone abroad among our subscribers, and has made them awful slow about paying up, thinking, doubtless, we do not want the money, we hasten to say the report of our wealth is false in every particular. If ocean-steamers were selling at a cent a dozen, we could not make the first payment on a canoe. The lightning of poverty has struck us square, and had it not been for an armful of hay which our devil managed to steal from a blind mule, our family would be without a mouthful to eat at the present moment. Is not this a sad picture, and can you delinquent subscribers look upon it without feeling the coin rattle with indignation in your pockets. We do not like to dun you but we must if you fail to take the hint.

"IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE."—This is true in every department of business, and no one appreciates its truth more fully than S. H. Thompson. Some time since he received the Ageney, for this county, of the Cunningham "Garden City Clipper Plow," and immediately advertised the same in our paper. Green B. Smith, Esq., a patron of the Gazette, saw the advertisement and forthwith rushed to Thompson's and purchased four of these celebrated plows—which at once have sprung into popular favor. No mater how good and valuable an article may be, a merchant or dealer may keep it upon his shelves, or in his store for months, or even years, and but few will know anything of its good qualities, unless he advertises. For years Mr. Thompson carried on business here, and spent but little for advertising. Within the past two years his business has increased nearly double, and he attributes it to judicious advertising. If you want to thrive in business, ADVERTISE—Corvallis Gazette.

SPECIAL NOTICE.—We shall not, cannot, in future, answer letters of inquiry written to us by parties desirous of settling in Oregon, unless such letters of inquiry contain at least the amount of stamps necessary to pay postage on the return letter. For 25 cents we will forward four copies of THE ASTORIAN, of separate dates, to any address in the United States, postage paid.

Drifts and Tow Heads 1876.

Upper Astoria, Clatsop county, Oregon.
April 24, 1876.

At a Special meeting of the Columbia River Fishermens Beneficial Aid Society, the following regulations for the government of all concerned were adopted. That the following drifts and tow heads be established for the fishing season of 1876.

First Drift. From Woody Island to Brown's point.

Second Drift. From Brown's Point inside of Snag Island to the 12th red buoy.

Third Drift. From the 15th buoy to Tongue Point.

Fourth Drift. From Tongue Point to a point a little west of Booth's Cannery, at a place to be designated by a spile or some permanent mark.

Fifth Drift. From the termination of the 4th drift to Smith's Point.

Sixth Drift. From Smith's Point to the Pacific Ocean.

Seventh Drift. From the red buoy in the Prairie channel to Tongue Point up or down.

Eighth Drift. The big snag in Chinook shoot will be considered a tow head.

The fishermen in Astoria, in council have mutually agreed to bind themselves to be governed by the foregoing drifts, and it is expected from boats outside of the Society that they will also conform to the same.

By order of the Society,
THOMAS DEALEY, Sec.

ADVERTISE—An exchange says: Maybe you think that people don't like to read advertisements! If you do you are much mistaken. Fresh, well-put well-placed advertisements are news! They are welcomed, read—nay, studied! The newspaper that is alive with them is increasingly acceptable and so is the business house that knows how to get them up, possessed withal with the sagacity and nerve to keep them up.
