

The Daily Astorian.

ASTORIA, OREGON:

D. C. IRELAND.....EDITOR

FRIDAY.....JUNE 9, 1876.

—France is taking out her revanche in a far more satisfactory way than by powder and shot. According to the Vos Gazette, Berlin gets all her articles, not only of luxury and fashion, but also of common necessity, from the French. Books, shirts and buttons are imported in large quantities from France, the productions being better and cheaper than those of Germany. "If things go on like this," says the philosophic writer in the German Gazette, "France will soon get back the milliards she paid to her conqueror, and which, in fact, have never procured the least advantage to German citizens."

—The New York journals and the Eastern Telegrams have added recently to their stock of quiet sensationals, the subject of contesting the will of the late Mr. Stewart. Whether those claiming relationship have commenced proceedings in the courts, contesting the will, do so with any very strong hopes or expectations of breaking that legal instrument, we are not advised. But that they are determined to show the community and the world that Mr. Stewart wronged them in declaring that he had no relations by blood is evident enough. If they are right, as they claim, and can prove their kinship, who shall blame them for not being willing to endorse the assertions of Mr. Stewart, that he had no relations? They do not relish the declaration, which ignores them altogether. And who can wonder that they do not, and who can blame them? If their claims be true, who can excuse Mr. Stewart for denying his own blood relatives, who are of high standing, if they do have less millions than had Mr. Stewart?

—The cost of a month's stay in Philadelphia, with daily visits to the Exhibition, will be as follows, supposing the visitor to practice such economy as is not inconsistent with comfort and with the objects of his visit: Room, breakfasts, dinners, Thirty admissions, street car fares, amusements and incidentals, $125. By taking regular board in a boarding house or small hotel, the cost of living can be so reduced that the first three items can be brought down from $75.50 to $40 or $50, and perhaps even to $30. A week's stay at a first class hotel and daily visits to the fair may be estimated to cost as follows: Board, admission, car fares, incidentals, $45. The maximum price for hotel board is $5 per day. There are plenty of excellent houses where the charge is from $3 to $4, and in many good, comfortable hotels it is as low as $2 to $2.50. Boarding-house charge from $6 a week and up for room and meals. At the Granger Encampment, about seven miles out on the line of the Pennsylvania Railroad, rooms in rough shed-like structures are furnished at fifty cents a night, and meals at an equally moderate price. In short, there are all kinds of prices for all kinds of people, just as in other cities, where there is no world's fair.

A BEAUTIFUL SENTIMENT.—The following beautiful sentiment was recently uttered by Judge John L. T. Sneed, of a Western court:

"The idea that the judicial officer is supposed to be vested with ermine, though fabulous and mythical, is yet more eloquent in its significance. We are told that the little creature called ermine is so sensitive to its own cleanliness that it becomes paralyzed and powerless at the slightest touch of defilement upon its snow-white fur. When the hunters are pursuing it, they spread with mire the pass leading to its haunts, to which they then draw it knowing that it will submit to be captured rather than defile itself, and a like sensibility should belong to him who comes to exercise the august functions of judge."

—When will the Common Council order a tax, if necessary, to improve the cemetery grounds?

Births, marriages and deaths will be inserted free of charge to subscribers to either the DAILY or the WEEKLY ASTORIAN. Births or marriages, when sent in by persons who are not subscribers to the paper, should be accompanied with one dollar, which will be placed to the credit of the party and the paper will be sent to the address for the full amount so paid to us.

DON'T READ ADVERTISEMENTS.—Occasionally a business man is encountered who professes to believe that "people don't read advertisements any more!" A greater mistake is seldom made. If a typographical error creeps into an ad, it soon becomes the talk of the neighborhood, and if the people do not read ads, how do they "drop" on errors with such facility? The other day the advertisement of the Centennial Restaurant appeared, in which the word "eating" was set up "fating," whereupon we were duly notified of the error by seven Salinasites and one Chinaman, and lastly, the Monterey Herald felt in duty bound to notify us also.—Daily Recorder, Salinas City, California.

TAKE YOUR LOCAL PAPER.—A man in Marion county last week saved $150 by taking his local paper, the Mercury, and there is a man in this county, near Brownsville, who told us, a short time ago, that he had made an 80-acre tract of land by being a reader of the Democrat. He had been wanting for a long time to buy an 80, adjoining his farm, but could get no track of the owner, who was a non-resident of the State, and finally saw it advertised for sale in the Democrat. He attended the sale and bought it for a nominal sum, and is now the owner of it.—Astorian Democrat.

ADVERTISE.—An exchange says: Maybe you think that people don't like to read advertisements? If you do you are much mistaken. Fresh, well-put well-placed advertisements are now! They are welcomed, read—may, studied! The newspaper that is alive with them is increasingly acceptable and so is the business house that knows how to get them up, possessed withal with the sagacity and nerve to keep them up.
