

The Daily Astorian.

ASTORIA, OREGON:

D. C. IRELAND EDITOR
TUESDAY JUNE 13, 1876.

The National Republican Convention will meet in Cincinnati tomorrow.

E. C. Gardner, the architectural writer, says that our school houses have been built on too extensive and extravagant a scale.

Ireland desires temperance. In the British House of Commons Mr. Smyth's resolution in favor of stopping liquor traffic on Sundays in Ireland has been carried by a majority vote of fifty-seven.

The Opera-house building at Kalama was carried away on the tenth by high water. The theatre building has caved in, and a part of the gas company's buildings are ruined beyond repair.

It was heralded all over the United States, a few weeks ago, that Dr. Mudd, who gained such unenviable notoriety in, and was sent to the Dry Tortugas, for supposed complicity in the assassination of President Lincoln, has been elected to the Maryland legislature.

A New York correspondent of the Rochester Democrat and Chronicle puts Commodore Vanderbilt's wealth at $45,000,000. He is below the mark; even in these days of depreciated values the old man holds securities worth millions more than that.

The Boston Post warmly advocates the bicycle as a means of locomotion and pleasure. It seems that in France gentlemen of distinction ride long distances over the public roads, and in Massachusetts and Rhode Island considerable journeys have been accomplished with this machine.

The man who advertises his business, if what he offers for sale is honestly what he represents it to be or what it ought to be, is constantly assisted in his business by those who have been attracted to him and tested him.

We refer our readers to the advertisement of a farm for sale on Deep river. This is the best opportunity that we know of for any man wanting a good place, cheap, suitable for dairying or farming purposes.

A Warning to Bathers.

It has long been known that it is injudicious for any one to go into water just after eating a full meal, but it is not so well known that the practice may result in death. This latter fact seems to be demonstrated by the recent death in a bath in Bristol, England, of a boy thirteen years old.

The Emperor William, on his way to Coburg, breakfasted at Eisenach. About the table were eight chairs and a sofa with cushions. The Emperor asked the waiter for whom the sofa was placed there.

According to an Olympia paper it takes the steamer owned in that place a whole day to tow a raft of logs from the Marshfield bridge to Tunawater, a distance of two miles.

Poor Old Dog Why Did You Stray.

[Written for the Astorian.] Doubtless you have all heard say That every dog must have its day; Some share the fate of "poor old Tray." Poor old dog why did you stray; Your fare was good with ought to pay, Only a wag and a bark to say, Poor old dog why did you stray; From the peaceful home where you was wont to play, And was happy light hearted and gay, Poor old dog why did you stray; Come tell me ere you pass away; You will soon go mad and then they'll slay, Poor old dog why did you stray, TOM TINKER.

The June number of Samuel's West Shore has appeared and contains most excellent cuts, representing the different gold medals and the silver cup to be awarded at the Portland Centennial celebration; and also an extensive general programme of the exercises and tournaments to take place in that city during the week of jubilee.

The man who advertises his business, if what he offers for sale is honestly what he represents it to be or what it ought to be, is constantly assisted in his business by those who have been attracted to him and tested him.
