Vol. 3. Astoria, Oregon, Thursday Morning, September 13, 1877. No. 85.

Work for Everybody.

From the Northwest.

The White Horse Inn, in Astoria, is again fitted up, to accommodate the thousands of travelers bound for California for the winter. The building is a large and commodious one, and will be opened for business immediately. The rooms are well furnished, and the rates charged are among the lowest in the city. The inn is managed by Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Brown, who have been long established in the hotel business.

For the New West.

The Union Pacific Railroad is making rapid progress, and the work is being done in a most satisfactory manner. The company is now extending the line to the west, and it is expected that the line will be completed in a short time. The work is being done with great care, and the workmen are well paid.

City Items.

The Union Pacific Railroad is making rapid progress, and the work is being done in a most satisfactory manner. The company is now extending the line to the west, and it is expected that the line will be completed in a short time. The work is being done with great care, and the workmen are well paid.

The Daily Astorian, D. C. Ireland, Publisher.

Terms of Subscription: Issued to any one sending ten cents.

FOR fcarmers only.

To Market.

The harvest will soon be in, and the farmers will be busy in the fields. The crops are good, and the harvest has been a success. The prices of grain are high, and the farmers are expecting a good profit.

For the New West.

The Union Pacific Railroad is making rapid progress, and the work is being done in a most satisfactory manner. The company is now extending the line to the west, and it is expected that the line will be completed in a short time. The work is being done with great care, and the workmen are well paid.

For the New West.

The Union Pacific Railroad is making rapid progress, and the work is being done in a most satisfactory manner. The company is now extending the line to the west, and it is expected that the line will be completed in a short time. The work is being done with great care, and the workmen are well paid.

For the New West.

The Union Pacific Railroad is making rapid progress, and the work is being done in a most satisfactory manner. The company is now extending the line to the west, and it is expected that the line will be completed in a short time. The work is being done with great care, and the workmen are well paid.

For the New West.

The Union Pacific Railroad is making rapid progress, and the work is being done in a most satisfactory manner. The company is now extending the line to the west, and it is expected that the line will be completed in a short time. The work is being done with great care, and the workmen are well paid.