In City Schools.

There are four Benton reservoirs in the city, which are connected with the city’s water system and serve to supply water under pressure. They are located in various parts of the city, including the eastern and western parts.

In Closing.

The weather yesterday was slightly cooler than the day before, with a northwesterly wind of about 10 miles per hour. The temperature varied between 58°F and 62°F.

City Items.

At the annual election held by Astoria Fire Company No. 1, the following officers were elected:

First Assistant—J. S. Holmes; Second Assistant—J. F. McCloud; Secretary—W. C. Armstrong; Treasurer—C. A. Schuur.

The Board of Directors met with the city officials to discuss matters of public interest.

Advertisement.

Advertisements of Ireland are shown spiritedness.

We are informed that a new establishment has been opened in the city.

The weekly weather report was presented, indicating a mild temperature with occasional light winds.

BARBER.—The barber shop was busy with the usual crowd of customers.

MONDAY'S ITEMS—A new use for dynamite has been found by the University of Washington. It is being used in the rock-cutting of tunnels. The dynamite is shown to be more effective than the usual method of using drills and explosives.

The town was quiet, with most people indoors due to the cooler weather.

In other news, a new railway line was announced to be constructed, which will connect the city with the surrounding areas. The line is expected to be completed within the next six months.