Compliment to Capt. Cenner.

At a meeting of the passengers upon the steamer Genii, Capt. J. C. Townsend having been introduced as the new captain, Genii, a leading citizen, Mr. J. C. tenison, and Mr. J. M. Feverson were up with, as a military pensioner, for the purpose of paying compliments. The Genii was unwilling to accept, when he declared it was the duty of the ship's company to carry out their duty with zeal and correctness. The captain declared his orders would be obeyed, and he would endeavor to render all service he could to the Genii.

The New Mexican.

The new Mexican is a small vessel, and has been at anchor for some time past. She is a screw steamer, and has been built for the purpose of carrying goods to and from the interior. She is owned by Mr. A. M. Bolts, of New York, and is now being fitted out for the voyage. She is expected to leave in a few days, and will sail for the north of New Mexico.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

It is estimated that the total harvest of wheat in Minnesota this year will amount to 21,000,000 bushels, and five-fourths of this will be exported to foreign countries outside of the United States. The total yield last year did not exceed 18,000,000 bushels.

Fifty young barrows recently bought for Copenhagen for Russia, where they are to be used as a source of amusement. Each barrow has been bought for the sum of $500.

In France, not long ago, a man was tried for murder. He was found guilty and condemned, and in the usual course the juries were applied to sign the petition for a coroner's inquest in the case of his sentence. One of them did so, with this protest: "Can that man hang himself?"

The whipping of Czezpulak, which occurred June 20th, was terrible in its destructiveness. Floods of water and showers of stones poured from the earth, ravaging the country around and dragging the town. The loss of life is reported at 1,800, but the damage to property has not been estimated.
