

Spend Your Money at Home.

The following are the most forcible reasons why you should spend your money at home:

- 1st, It is your home; you cannot improve it much by taking it away to spend or invest.
2d, There is no way of improving a place so much as by encouraging good merchants, good schools and good people to settle among you, and this cannot be done unless you spend your money at home.
3d, Spend your money at home, for there is where you generally get it. It is your duty.
4, Spend your money at home because when it is necessary for you to get credit, it is of your town merchants you have to get it, and they must wait for the money. Therefore, when you have the cash, spend it at home.
5th, Spend your money at home. It will make better merchants of your merchants; they can and will keep better assortments and sell at lower rates than if the only business they can do is what is credited out, while the money goes to other places.
6th, Spend your money at home. Set the example now. Buy your dry goods, groceries, meats, and everything at home, and you will see a wonderful change in a short time in the business outlook of the place; therefore, deal with your home merchants.
7th, Spend your money at home. What do you gain by going off? Count the cost; see what you could have done at home by letting your merchants have the cash. Strike a balance and see if you would not have been just as well off, besides helping your merchants.
8th, Spend your money at home. Your merchants are your neighbors, your friends; they stand by you in sickness—they are your associates. Without your trade they cannot keep your business. No stores, then no banks, no one wanting to buy property to settle on and build up your place.

To Our Readers.

If all who write us in regard to subscriptions and business will observe the following rules they will prevent annoyance and misunderstanding by all concerned:

- 1. Always date your letter or postal card, giving postoffice and state.
2. When you want the address of a paper changed give us the name of the postoffice to which the paper is sent as well as that of the one you want it changed to.
3. Always write the names of subscribers and their postoffice addresses so plain that they may be easily read.
4. Always seal your letter before handing it to the postoffice.
5. Never send currency in a common letter. Either register your letter or send by express; or what is better, purchase a money order. The expense is insignificant compared with the risk run in sending currency in an ordinary letter. This is at least our judgment, based on the great number of complaints we receive in regard to letters which the writers say they mailed to us, but which we never received.

The Cincinnati Gazette says: "The publishers of American newspapers, if they would follow the example of the Times, would largely increase their revenues: and why not? Why should not candidates for office, writers of complimentary resolutions, heroes of cane presentations, and the like, pay for the space they occupy, as business men do? There is far too much free advertising in the reading columns of American newspapers for the good of the publishers or the benefit of subscribers. We commend this suggestion to our friends of the press."
