Salmon and Legislation.

houses on the waters of the Columbia

Section 1. That a fish commissioner for the Columbia river and its tributary waters be appointed by the governor by and with the advice and consent of the council, who shall hold his office for two years, and until his successor is appointed and qualified, who shall be a resident of one of the counties bordering upon the said river. Said commissioner shall exercise a general supervision over the fisheries of said river within this terridory, consider and report upon the introduction, production and culture of food fish, especially the salmon, co-operate with the fish commission of the state of Oregon, make report to the legislative assembly at each biennial session thereof, as hereinafter more particularly prescribed, and perform such other duties as may be hereinafter imposed. Before entering upon his duties he shall execute a bond to the territory of Washington, with two or more sureties, to be approved by the judge of the second judicial district, in the sum of $10,000, conditioned for the faithful performance of his official duties and the disbursement according to law of all money coming into his hands. Said commissioner may appoint deputies, not to exceed one for each county bordering upon said Columbia river, for whose action he shall be responsible upon his official bond. Sec. 2. It shall not be lawful to take or fish for salmon for traffic, bacter or sale in the waters of the Columbia river and its tributaries with either of the appliance regulated and prescribed by the act entitled "An act regulating salmon fisheries in the waters of the Columbia river," without first having obtained a license therefor. The rates of said license shall be as follows: The owner or owntaries, the owner or owners shall pay for a license for a season fifty dollars. For each and every dip net used for fishing for salmon in said river and its tributaries, the owner or owners shall pay an annual license of two dollars. Each and every net tender or fisherman fishing or shall be good for the whole season upon any of the waters of the said Columbia

Sec. 3. The licenses aforesaid shall be prepared by the said fish commissioner, attested by his official seal. The com- lem on the 8th instant. missioner shall register the number thereof, to whom issued and for what purpose. Owners of boats receiving li-cense shall cause to be painted in plain, conspicuous figures upon both sides of the cutside of the stern of their respective boats, three inches below the wash hoard, the number borne upon the li-cense of said boat. A failure or neglect boat as herein prescribed, shall subject the owner or owners thereof to a penalty of ten dollars, to be recovered in an action before a justice of the peace. The commissioner shall be entitled to charge the following fees, viz: Twenty-five cents for each license to a fisherman. fifty cents for a boat, one dollar for a seine or fish trap of any kind, and twenty-five cents for a dip net, which fees shall be reserved out of the moneys by him received for the licenses issued.

Sec. 4. Any person or persons who by the foregoing provisions of this act shall be required to take out a license, shall do such act or use such boat, seine, gill net, weir or trap, dip net or fish with gill net without baving first taken out such license therefor as herein required, shall be liable to a penalty of fifty dollars for each and every offense, and shall more over be required to pay the license fee required by law, to be recovered before a justice of the peace or other court of competent jurisdiction.

Sec. 5. Any proprietor, managing agent, foreman or employe in charge of any cannery upon the said Columbia river, employing a fisherman to whom no license has been issued, or knowingly purchasing salmon from any person using a boat, seine, net or fish trap for which a license is required, without first having taken out said license, shall be liable to a penalty of fifty dollars for each and every offense, to be recovered before a justice of the peace.

Sec. 6. All moneys received for license, herein referred to excepting the fees for issuing the same shall constitute a fund and be exclusively applied to the assistance of a hatching house or houses on the said Columbia river or its tributaries. Any person or persons, or corporated company who shall furnish satisfactory evidence to the said fish commissioner that a hatching house or houses has or have been established by such person or persons or company, and have actually hatched salmon with which said Columbia river is or has been stocked and supplied, the said commissioner shall forth-with pay over to such person or persons or company the said funds: Provided, if there be two or more of such hatching houses in operation by different persons or companies, then such funds shall be distributed pro rata according to the number of hatched salmon.

Sec. 7. The person or persons making complaint of any violation of the provis ions of this act, by the failure to take out license as herein required, or to do and perform other acts as herein pre-scribed, shall upon the conviction of the party accused, be entitled to one-half of the penalty recovered. All fines and penalties hereby or herein imposed, shall be enforced and collected as other fines and penalties are by law enforced or collected, and justices of the peace or other officers receiving such fines or pen- ASTORIA alties, after payment of one half of such penalty so collected to the complainant, shall forthwith pay the remaining half to the fish commissioner to be applied to the establishment of or assistance of hatching houses, as provided in section

6 of this act. Sec. 8. The said fish commissioner shall biennially, on the 15th day of September, make a report to the governor, to be submitted to the legislative assembly, which report shall exhibit the amount of moneys received from licen-ses, penalties, and other sources, and how applied; the condition, progress, Following is the bill passed by the territorial assembly as a substitute for the board of trade bill, to encourage the establishment of salmon hatching houses on the waters of the Columbia

The condition, progress, success, etc., of the hatching houses, suggestions or information on the subject of food-fish propagation, and such matter as may be valuable in legistion for the protection or preservation of food-fishes, and the salmon fisheries of the Columbia river.
