THE CITY.

The DAILY ASTORIAN will be sent by mail at 75 cents a month, free of postage, Readers who contemplate absence from the city can have THE ASTORIAN follow them, DAILY or WEEKLY editions to any post-office without additional expense. Addresses may be enanged as often as desired. Loave orders at the counting room.

-The latest and handsomest style of jewelry, and nicknacks of rare and Junique design, at the Bee-hive store of Mrs. M. H. Steers.

-Just received per steamship Idaho, California Gold Medal Fresh Roll Butter and Sultana seedless raisins, at the family grocery store of FULL

J. Strauss. -Mr. J. Rogers' blocks, falls, sling ropes, etc., in fact, the entire derrick rigging, was borrowed by somebody Wednesday night, from the foot of Cass street. Mr. Rogers will pay a liberal reward to any person who will return the same, at the Central market.

-Mrs. M. H. Steers has her new stock now open for inspection by purchasers. Dolls of all sizes, and all colors, at prices beyond competition, they are so cheap. Also: Wall-pockets, slipper cases, wall-shelves, children's rocking chairs, picture frames, etc., cheaper than ever. -Great care has been taken by the purchaser of the stock just opened at the Bee hive, to suit the tastes of the A people. New music, new books, etc., etc., in fact, you should go and see the nice things in order to know what Mrs. Steers has for you, and how cheap they may be bought. -You can't buy anything more handsome, no gift more enduring, nothing that will longer revive a remembrance of the day, than one of these magnificent photographic panoramas of Astoria, at Shuster's art gallery. That is a home production; and is calculated to make us all love our homes in Astoria. By all means get one.
