BRIEF ANNOUNCEMENT.

Nick Equivalence has concluded that there is no millions in shipping sailors, and he has given up that business.

Miss E. C. Benedict having completed the teaching of Mrs. Rinker's system of cutting and fitting ladies dresses, and having test fits in Astoria.

The bark Rival arrived at San Francisco from this port on the 16th.

There never was a country in the world that can produce more edible birds than this.

Cammermen and business men in general will do well to examine Adler's new stock of Blank-books and Stationery which he bought in the East and offers at less than Portland prices.

The Bay View House, at Elwaco, one of the finest summer resorts on this part of the coast, is now prepared for a live business.

The Ilwaco and Oysterville line of stages running under the supervision of Mr. L. A. Loomis, make good time across the beach from Ilwaco.

Dispatches to the Astoria Chamber of Commerce inform us that the British bark Viola, from this port last September, went ashore at Westport on the coast of Ireland, on the 16th.

Thousands of cattle and horses in the upper country are perishing in consequence of the late severe snow storm.

We regret to say that Mr. J. L. Stout, of the Sea View house, is lying in a very precarious state at his residence beyond Ilwaco from a sore affliction.

Mr. O. P. Whitelaw, of Knappa-ton, returned from his trip to the Dalles on Sunday in the vain attempt to reach Walla Walla.

The Columbia River Bar.

We are under obligations to Senator Mitchell, for a copy of a very able and interesting speech upon the subject of a harbor of refuge for the northwest coast.

Our Mission to Oysterville.

Extreme modesty compels us to apologise for our ad interim, who on Sunday announced that "the editor and other distinguished citizens" had gone to Oysterville for a purpose, etc.

At a meeting at Oysterville there were appointed a committee of five to act as incorporators, viz: L. H. Rhoades, B. Hutton, H. S. Gile, A. S. Bush and J. H. D. Gray.

This is to certify that we, the undersigned, have this day united ourselves and formed a corporation, under and by virtue of the provisions of an act of the Legislative Assembly, of the Territory of Washington, entitled, "An act to provide for the formation of corporations," and the amendments thereto.

The amount of the capital stock of the Company shall be $50,000 dollars, and the time of its existence shall be fifty years.

There shall be five trustees, and L. H. Rhoades, B. Hutton, H. S. Gile, A. S. Bush and J. H. D. Gray, shall be the trustees to manage the concerns of the company for the first six months.

The principal place of business of the Company shall be located at Ilwaco, Pacific county, Washington territory.

Subsequently the trustees met and authorized L. H. Rhoades, B. Hutton and J. H. D. Gray to open stock books and solicit subscriptions to the stock.

We look upon this as the dawning of an auspicious day. There is a dearth of business on Shoalwater bay, and if this organization does not relieve it we are not a prophet, nor yet entitled to prophesy.

The boats of the Oregon Steam Navigation Company now leave Astoria at four o'clock a. m., connecting at Kalama with trains for Puget-sound.

The Masquerade.

In our absence the grand masquerade ball, which was (we honestly say it), the grandest event in Astoria's history, our substitute neglected to descend upon the costumes richly deserving of praise, not to say credit for deportment.

Musical Concert.

Following is the programme for the grand vocal and instrumental concert to be given at Metropolitan hall on Tuesday evening next, 18th inst., by the well known professors Trauner, Brenner, Linderman and Miller:

- PROGRAMME. PART I. 1. Test March... Zitter, Guitar, Violin Trauner, Brenner, Miller.
