Astoria, Oregon, Wednesday Morning, February 26, 1879.

No. 47.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

Pacific Coast Dispatches.

—An old man named Groeder has been arrested in Oregon City, on suspicion of the murder of Mrs. Hagar.

—The San Francisco chamber of commerce held a special meeting to take action to influence the president on the anti Chinese bill in his hands. It is hoped that similar bodies in leading cities on the Pacific coast will take similar action.

Eastern States.

—The Reno court of inquiry, it is understood, will report that evidence was not educed to warrant a court-martial.

—Capt. Paul Boynton has undertaken to float from Pittsburg to New Orleans in his life-saving suit, and has already started.

—The secretary of the treasury has called for an additional twenty million of 5 20s, thirteen millions coupons and seven million registered.

—The Chinese bill is being prepared for the signatures of the presiding officers of the house and senate, and will then be sent to the president.

—The officers of Harvard college propose to allow young women to go through the different stages of instruction under the tuition of the various professors; to be controlled by a board of seven ladies.

—A special from Santa Fe, New Mexico, announces more trouble in Lincoln county. H. J. Chapman, a lawyer at the head of the McSween faction, was shot dead in front of the court house at Lincoln.

—The liabilities of Archbishop Purcell appears to increase by later developments. The trustees appointed some time ago to receive and audit claims, decline to make a public statement of the amount already filed, but at a recent meeting of the clergy, at which the archbishop presided, he stated claims that had already been filed amounting to $3,600,000. All schemes for his release having apparently failed, efforts will be made by a committee of Roman Catholic clergy to have the state laws modified so that a lottery scheme can be inaugurated for his benefit. Their success, however, is considered doubtful. In Ohio, Irish catholics also complain that no relief has been rendered the archbishop from the German churches, while the latter ask that a full statement of his wants be made to the public first.

Foreign News.

—The abandonment of the native force of south Africa was in accordance with instructions from the home government.

—Ex-President Grant arrived at Allahabad Feb. 24th. He is a guest of the lieutenant governor. The viceroy of India has invited him to visit Calcutta.

—Floods are reported in France. The river Garonne has burst its embankment at Labastibe Cenon, and it is feared that lives have been lost. Extensive floods have occurred at Bayonne, Tarbes and Bordeaux.

—Gen. Melikoff telegraphs from St. Petersburg, Feb. 24, that there has been no further deaths from, nor cases of the plague in the surrounding district, since his last report.

—There has been some renewal of disturbances on the Albanian frontier of Servia which is likely to lead to recrimination between Servia and the porte. A large body of Albanians have made an incursion into Servia.

—The pope, replying to an address from the cardinal emphasizes his desire to reconcile the princes and people to the church, and his readiness to extend his hand to all who repent and cease their persecutions, and his unflinching intention always to combat in defense of the rights and independence of the church, those who make war against her.

—In the recent engagement between the government troops and revolutionists in Central America, 25 men were killed. The revolutionists had rather the worst of the battle. The state of Cauca is invaded by 8,000 Antioquians, and the neighboring states are called upon for men and arms to repel the invaders. Some hard fighting and the expenditure of a million or more of money will be necessary to restore order. The national troops in Panama will be maintained at 200 men to preserve the integrity of transit, menaced by the revolutions frequently occurring. Another shock of earthquake felt at Arequipa on the 19th ult., and also sundry shocks at Iquiqui. No damage.
