Vol. VIII.

Astoria, Oregon, Tuesday Morning, March 25, 1879.

No. 70.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

Eastern States.

A storm of the severest nature swept over Memphis just after midnight on Saturday last. It came from the southwest and continued for three hours. During its progress, lightning struck the Memphis cotton and woolen mills, which were entirely consumed.

Most rigorous rules are being enforced against vessels arriving from the Mediterranean sea, Red sea, or Sea of Azov, to prevent the infection reaching here. The Italian bark from Trieste, with a cargo of rags, was refused entry, and the vessel ordered into quarantine at New York on the 23d.

Foreign News.

A storm has again damaged the dykes in Holland protecting the dykes, Sentes, Nasarhely, Zambor and Tettel.

Complete anarchy prevails at Mandalay. The bulk of the inhabitants would welcome British troops. Hopes that an explosion will be averted are growing faint.

Journalistic Imposters.

The newspaper fraternity as well as other business men, are sometimes subjected to the impositions of a class of impudacious hummers pretending to be what they are not. Astoria has been visited by such before, but here they generally defraud the public, whom we have time and again warned to beware of such frauds. The Dallas Itemizer says:

A fellow calling himself George Legend came to Dallas some two months since with the Wilton troupe and when they got as far as Perrydale he quit the company and returned to this place. He was without money and almost without clothing, with the exception of a "plug" hat, which enabled him to "spread on" a little style. After being repeatedly impudently to give the fellow something to do we sent him out to canvass for the Itemizer, and the result is he has "bilked" us, as he will undoubtedly do any one who places any confidence in him. From the Portland Bee we see that he played a game on Prentice & Co. and other business men of Portland, pretending that he was going to get up a business card, and also got the best of L. Samuel, of the West Shore, to the extent of $300. That paper also says that he has several aliases and that he was once arrested for forgery in California but escaped by turning state's evidence. We hope he will be arrested and punished for his misdeeds.

Foreign Exports.

Since the last report of clearances from the Astoria custom house was made for publication in THE ASTORIAN, the following vessels have cleared for European ports with cargoes and values as specified. Shipments from Portland are noted as they occur:

To Queenstown, per Centennial, March 11.
Wheat from Astoria...	$5,511 00
Portland...	48,502 00
Totals...	$54,013 00
To Liverpool, per Allegiance, March 11.
Flour from Portland...	20,132 bbls. $99,002 00
1 case elk horns...	50 00
Total...	$99,102 00
To Honolulu, per Hera, March 11.
Lumber, etc., from Astoria...	$4,324 00

"We see how life gets coiled at our mind, so that the world somehow wears the stamp of the die cut into our hearts. We know how a piece of good fortune brightens the air; how some impending evil puts the edge of a spiritual eclipse upon the sun; how suddenly ill fortune in business will seem to make the very springs of beauty bankrupt; how the sickness of a dear friend turns nature pallid; how the death of one whom we love will convert all the trees to cypresses and the music of the universe becomes a requiem; but how can you expect your city to prosper if you do not patronize the local press? How can you succeed as a merchant, or a mechanic, and not advertise?"

"Advertising costs money." So does store-rent, so do all good and useful things. The object of advertising is not to cause a man to expend money, but to make it.
