Vol. VIII.

Astoria, Oregon, Tuesday Morning, April 15, 1879.

No. 88.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

Eastern States.

—General Richard Taylor of the Confederate army, died in New York on the 10.

—Rectifiers have presented a memorial to Commissioner Raum at Washington, protesting against a clause in the internal revenue bill passed at the last session of congress requiring rectifiers to give bonds.

—A small band of Indians, who a few days since killed and scalped private Leo Baper and seriously wounded sergeant Kennedy, of the signal service, was captured by Sergeant Thomas B. Glover, with a detachment of ten men, and taken into Fort Keogh yesterday. The Indians surrendered immediately on the approach of the soldiers, not offering any resistance or attempting to escape. Bader's horse and scalp lock were found in their possession.

Pacific Coast Dispatches.

—A daring and successful burglary occurred in San Francisco on the night of the 10th at 878 Market street.

—The Stanley Blonde Troupe cases were finally settled in San Francisco on the 14th. Miss Stanley was fined $200 and the others discharged from custody.

—The Northern Pacific engineer, Mr. Doane, expects to reach Walla Walla, overland, about the 1st of May. He wants to put two surveying parties east of the Columbia river at once. He will bring one chief of party and one assistant, and fill up the balance on arrival. Two fall parties will locate the road from near the mouth of Snake river to Spokane falls, and explore the branch between the main line and the Cascade range by way of Priest rapids.

—Frank Bernard has been arrested in Seattle for the Hagar murder. The man Fairchild will be arrested. Bernard has admitted to the city marshal, although he had nothing to do with the murder of Mrs. Hagar, he could tell something about it if necessary. The police authorities have been officially notified of the circumstances. A requisition for the man will be obtained from Gov. Thayer, and detective Hudson will start for Seattle to bring the prisoner to Oregon.

Foreign News.

—A Kieff correspondent of the St. Petersburg Journal gives the following account of the outbreak: The prisoners in Kieff resolved, some time ago, to tunnel the wall and escape. The scheme was betrayed by one of the conspirators, and the authorities allowed the prisoners to continue the excavation. When the tunnel was completed and the entrapped prisoners had entered it, one after the other, intending to come up through the opening beyond the prison precincts, soldiers previously posted at the opening, shot the prisoners as they appeared. When the bulk of the prisoners, terrified by the noise of the firing, stopped and remained in the tunnel, the soldiers were sent in from behind, and the unfortunate wretches caught between two fires, were all shot down. The proceeding seemed to give the officials much amusement, and the directors of the prison were praised and decorated for having acted with such cleverness and decision.

—Best Salem flour is sold in this city at $5 50 per barrel by Warren & McGuire.
