—Steamer day.
—Elder goes to sea.
—High boat yesterday—46 salmon.
—The wind chopped on us yesterday.
—Badollet & Co's No. 35 is a high-flyer.
—Roughest bay in eight years yesterday.
—Wm. Humes large cannery will steam up to-day.
—The average catch last night was twelve to the boat.
—Sherman has turned out a splendid two-horse express outfit.
—Dr. Severn has recovered so far as to be able to be about town again.
—The steamship Ancon left San Francisco yesterday at 10 A. M. for Astoria.
—Five tons of potatoes from Gray's river, arrived by Capt. Rehfield's schooner on Saturday.
—Just received per Elder 2,000 pounds, 8-pound sheet lead, for sale at lowest rates at Magnus C. Crosby's.
—The remains of the man picked on the whet beach have been identified as Martz, the Grays river mail carrier.
—The very finest quality of San Francisco beer at Max Wagner's Great Eastern music and concert saloon on Concomly street.
—Foss' camp in Pacific county will henceforth be a lively place. Mr. F. was in the city yesterday preparing to begin hauling next week.
—Five thousand bushels of charcoal have just been delivered by the schooner Buckeye, Capt. Grounds, from near Foss' camp for cannery work.
—Capt. J. G. Hustler has received a dispatch which reports that the steamer California, from Alaska, will arrive at Astoria to-morrow morning.
—Mr. R. D. Hume will contract to put 3,000,000 salmon into the Columbia annually for ten years at $5,000 per year. His experience is in hatching salmon on Rogue river.
—The mails are loaded down with circulars from doubtful medical sources. Do not spend your money answering such trash as that. Let them alone, as you would an itinerating peddler.
—The Ocklahama deserves a medal. She has done what no steamer ever did before on this river, Friday, Saturday, Sunday and yesterday, arriving back here last night with a 600-ton barge for the Valley Forge.

—“As sick as a dog,” is a somewhat homely phrase, but a man has got to be confounded sick, with a double-duplex ailment, to “take on” as Quad, the ASTORIAN pup, does the past 24 hours. Verily, we believe that Quad is as sick as any dog can well be.
—Messrs. Jackins & Hawes are employed at present in turning out a large 600-gallon cheese vat for the Clatsop factory of Mr. C. S. Moore. It is so large that they have not room in the shops to work upon it, but nevertheless they find plenty of room to do the job in a workmanlike manner on the outside of the shop.
—A bungling attempt to commit suicide was made in Astoria on Sunday by a man named Gus Leonard. He shot himself in the ear with a pistol loaded with powder and wad. Two chambers of the same pistol had bullets in them, but he took the wad and survives the shock. Leonard was an employee of the stage at Music hall, and the cause of his strange conduct is said to be uncompensated love.
—George Hill's variety theatre in this city has been greatly abused by false reports. It is true that “the crowd” gathers there, and the patronage is a motley one, very like the days of ‘49, but they are nothing in the least particular of obscenity, nothing which could not properly come before the “most fastidious.” The plays are good, and patrons can enjoy them without molestation, in private boxes.

Worthy of Mention.
A fishing boat from the Fishermen's Packing company, capsized about one mile off their cannery during a severe squall yesterday. A boat was launched from Booth & Co., and manned by G. Consolini, Joe Massa, Antonio Necreen and John Leika who very gallantly pulled for the sunken boat and succeeded in rescuing both the men and boat.

OBITUARY.
Miss Sarah E. Cole, daughter of Stephen and Lydia Cole, of this city, died on the 22d ult., at the residence of J. W. Coghlin, in Savannah, Mo. Miss Cole was a member of the Alumna of the Willamette University, class of 1884, and was on her way to Astoria when she was thus suddenly cut off by an attack of the brain fever. She was in the 25th year of her age. Her many friends in Oregon mourn her loss, but “Blessed are the dead that die in the Lord.”

Bodies Recovered.
We are informed that the citizens living near Ilwaco have found, and decently buried, the remains of a child, apparently two or three years of age between Ilwaco and the mouth of the Wallamet river. One of the arms was partly covered with a sleeve made of brown colored woolen goods, cut straight, trimmed with black braid three-sixteenths of an inch wide, passing twice around the cuff about one inch apart. Other portions of the body were found scattered along the beach. The remains were buried near Mr. Brown's place.
The body of a man was also picked up, on the sea-beach, between the farms of Capt. Eastbrooks and L. A. Leomis. The head showed the effect of severe bruises. The feet were incased in short gum boots.

AMUSEMENTS.
THE HYERS.—Mr. Skiff, the advance agent for the noted Hyers Sisters, arrived on the Elder from San Francisco. The Hyers sailed from San Francisco on the Ancon, and play in Astoria on Thursday evening. This sable troupe consists of Madah Hyers, Louise Hyers, Wallace King, Billy Kersands, J. W. Luca, Mrs. Dora King, Willie E. Lyle, Miss Grace Overall, Miss Celestine O. Brown and J. J. Sawyer. They will appear twice in Astoria before opening, in the New-market theatre.

The Festival To-night.
Visitors to Metropolitan hall to-night; the public generally are invited to be present; may anticipate a pleasant evening. The festival will be given under the auspices of the ladies of the Catholic church, and the proceeds will be devoted to needed repairs on the church. It has been a long time since such occasion has been afforded this public to enjoy an ice cream festival, and this one being the first after Lent, and gotten up by ladies who fully understand the art of pleasing, should be liberally patronized. Fill the hall, and you will have no occasion to regret that you were present. Doors open at 7½ o'clock. Admission free.

The peach crop is ruined—that is to say, we suppose it is. Such a statement always goes around at this time of the year, ruin or no ruin, and we might as well print the fact now as wait for somebody to say so. We know just as much about it as we should if we waited for further advices.

The Dockerty Road Must Go.
A Tillamooker writes as follows: On the opposite side of this sheet you will find a few lines in rhyme—the Angels' views concerning the Dockerty road. I will say here that it may be an unpardonable offense to palm off one's imperfections on an angel. If so, I am fixed. I have often heard the song, “The Chinese must go,” but never knew till now that a similar feeling is manifested among the Angels regarding the Dockerty road. In conclusion, I would say that this “rig-ma-role” of nonsense concerning the Dockerty road is simply meant for a bit of fun, and to help carry out Meldrum's plan. I would be sorry indeed if any one should take offense. I am always glad to hear of any enterprise prospering which has a tendency to develop the resources of a country; and if any country on earth needs developing, it is Tillamook.

THE DOCKERTY ROAD MUST GO.
I dreamed an Angel came last night,
And stooping o'er my bed,
Whispered many a funny thing;
“I'll tell you what,” he said;
“‘Twas Tillamook's deserving men
Who pledged their gold, you know;
And wrote it with an iron pen—
The Dockerty road must go.”
“They have a charter for their road,
And soon the works will move,
Commencing down at Lineconville
And end at Forest Grove.
The heavens and earth may pass away,
The tide may cease to flow,
The Buckboard turn and kill H. Day;
Yet Dockerty road must go.”
The Angel meant to grade the road,
Out on the other side,
Westward to the cinnamon lode,
From thence down on the tide,
We'll meet him at the dreamer's ranch,
His path with roses strow
And shout aloud, with one accord,
The Dockerty road must go.
SANCHO PANZA.

The Best Family
Sewing machine is the New American, sold in Astoria by Chas. Stevens & Son at the City Book store. It is a light running self-threading machine, in fact it is the only sewing machine which has a self-threading shuttle and self-setting needle. It never breaks the thread; never skips stitches; is the lightest running, and is in every respect the best family sewing machine. Chas. Stevens & Son, agents, Astoria, Oregon.
