—Steamer day.
 —Oregon sails for San Francisco.
 —The Valley Forge went to sea yesterday.
 The fruit crop of Walla Walla promises to be excellent.
 The Walla Walla Watchman has discarded its patent outside and is now going it alone.
 Badollet & Co's boat No. 24 was lost on Wednesday evening, but the men and net were saved.
 All over the Grande Ronde valley country prospects for fruit are said to be better than ever before known.
 Eureka Flat, in Walla Walla county offers superior inducements to wheat and other grain growers.
 Women arrayed in masculine apparel are in the habit of visiting beer saloons in Portland, during the evening and noting how their husbands pass their time.
 The dry goods store of Comstock & Pfluger, of Portland has been closed by attachment. The dry goods store of Mrs. H. Ach has also been closed by attachment.
 The Gen. Canby yesterday made a trip to Shoalwater bay with a fair freight over and full freight of oysters back for the San Francisco market by steamer Oregon to day.
 Wedding invitations and cards, calling cards, catalogues, pamphlets and every description of fancy printing executed in the highest style of the art at THE ASTORIAN OFFICE.
 The boat-puller of Badollet & Co's boat No. 26, was drowned a few days ago while attempting to come ashore, the boat having capsized in the surf. The other man being a good swimmer reached the shore.
 A petition has been in circulation at Walla Walla to the postal authorities for a mail route over the Thomas and Ruckle road to the Blue mountains. It is said that this route is much needed and will save over seventy miles in distance.
 In our article "Heroic Act" May 6th we were partially misinformed. The men and net were picked up by Humes men as stated, but the boat was picked up by one of Devlin's men for which he received $32.00 from J. O. Hanthorn & Co.
 E. C. Holden announces in our advertising columns this morning the first auction sale of the goods recovered by the Great Republic Wrecking company. He will commence with a lot of loose goods, principally hardware. Some of these goods are as good for use as if they were new, and doubtless there will be a good chance for bargains.
 A great many people do not understand their rights under the postal laws, they seem to think that they can use newspapers for letters, can in short send a newspaper anywhere for a cent and on it write a long letter. Sometimes they can, but if they are caught doing so, full letter postage is charged besides other costs. All that is allowable to write on a newspaper or book is the address and the name of the sender with the word "from" before the name. All other writing is prohibited.
 Mr. G. Hansen watchmaker and jeweller of long experience, has permanently established himself in business in Caulfield's drug store, Chenamus street, Astoria. Watches and jewelry cleaned and repaired. Gems re-set. Engraving a specialty. All work guaranteed. Give him a trial and be your own judge of his workmanship. He will soon add to his stock a well selected invoice of Watches, Jewelry, Silver and plated ware, which he will be able to sell at very low prices.
 Mr. James W. Welch, of this city, has in his possession two carpenters' tool chests from the wrecked steamship Great Republic both filled with tools. Out of one of the chests was a captain's discharge, belonging to H. L. Carpenter of company H. of the fourth regiment heavy artillery New York state volunteers, discharged from the service of the United States the 26th day of September 1865. In the other chest is the name of J. M. H. Barb, also a soldiers picture attached to the inside of the top of the chest. The parties to whom these chests belong can have the same by calling upon or addressing James W. Welch, Astoria Oregon, proving property and paying charges.
 Best Salem flour is sold in this city at $5 50 per barrel by Warren & McGuire.

W. Hume, Esq., Hon. W. D. Hare, Col. James Taylor and C. Leinenweber esq. The object of the company is the construction of a railroad from this city through the Nehalem coal fields to a point on the Oregon Central railroad near Forest Grove and thence to Winnemucca in the state of Nevada.

Shipping Dispatches.
 We are indebted to Mr. Peter Wilhelm for the following:
 The Ancon sailed from San Francisco for Astoria and Portland at 10 A. M. on Wednesday.
 The steamship Geo. W. Elder will sail from San Francisco on Monday next.
 The new steamship State of California will sail about the 16th inst., for this port.
 The North Bend sailed from San Francisco for the Columbia river yesterday.
 The Orient is loading at San Francisco for the Columbia river.

AMUSEMENTS.
 On Saturday evening, May 10th, James M. Ward, the lessee of the Metropolitan theatre, will make his first appearance this season. Mr. Ward has been before the public so long, and is so well known to the theatre-going community, that he needs no praise from us. This genial gentleman has engaged a talented company to support him. It appears the names of that little soubrette, Carrie Clarke Ward, and our old favorites Arthur Sutherland and Fred Gere. With names like these in a dramatic company, the public are assured of a good entertainment. They present a very attractive programme on this occasion, which can be seen in our advertising columns. Give them what they are deserving of, on their opening night—a full house.

Umatilla Reservation to be Thrown Open for Settlement.
 By private letters from Senator Slater, the East Oregonian learns that the Indians will be removed from the Umatilla reservation at an early day, except a few who have determined to take claims and serve their tribal relations. The Indians will go to different reserves as best suits their inclination. Secretary Schurz who has almost complete control of the matter, favors their removal and no doubt it will be done. The probabilities are that the land will be appraised and sold to create a fund for the support of the Indians. Senator Slater is doing all in his power to have the land opened to actual settlers, but the chances are against him.
 LATER.—A private telegram to Lieut. Farrow brings the joyful news that the order for the removal has been made, upon what terms we are not informed. Every one who desires to get a claim here should prepare himself with a few hundred dollars, cash, ready for any emergency.

Notice.
 The Great Republic Wrecking Company having purchased cargo and wreck of steamer Great Republic are prepared to pay salvage on goods recovered on Clatsop and weather-beach, or elsewhere. Persons are hereby cautioned against concealing or disposing of property.
 GEO. T. MYERS, Vice Pres.
 M. H. SHIBSON, Secretary.
 Astoria, May 7, 1879.
