A Grand Success.

The first concert given in this city by the Handel and Haydn society was given last evening at Metropolitan hall. The hall was evenly filled; the audience delighted; and the concert one which must, in every way, be characterized a grand success.

Lake Chelan Post.

Speaking of the proposed establishment of a military post at Lake Chelan, the Walla Walla Union says the advocates of it know but little concerning the difficulties to be surmounted in getting there, even on horse-back, but much less the provisions of an army.

—Mr. Edison, the inventor has written to Mr. Miles C. Moore, of Walla Walla for information in reference to the discovery of any mines or deposits of platinum in any of the mines of Oregon, Idaho, Montana or British Columbia.

Crop Prospects.

The matter that receives the most grumbling, next to that of hard times, is wet weather. We had but one or two warm days, and but a few pleasant ones during the spring months, and more of those were in April than May.

Pork Packing.

The total number of hogs packed in Oregon during 1878 is estimated at 120,000, against 90,000 in 1877, and 75,000 in 1876.

Table with 4 columns: Year, California, Oregon, Total. Rows for 1878, 1877, 1876, 1875.
