Vol. IX.

Astoria, Oregon, Wednesday Morning, June 18, 1879.

No. 42.

TELEGRAPHIC.

EASTERN STATES.

Disastrous Flood.

NORTH ADAMS, Mass., June 15.—This place has been visited by a heavy freshet, and the damage throughout the vicinity is estimated at $150,000. Damages by the flood in the outlying districts hourly reported.

The Pacific Mail.

New York, June 16.—The Tribune to-day says that notice was given on Saturday by the Pacific mail company to the Panama railroad company that in consequence of the dissolution of the contract with the overland railroad the steamship company intended at once to put an additional vessel on its lines. It is said to be the purpose of the company to increase the service on the California lines so as to make weekly instead of fortnightly trips.

FOREIGN NEWS.

Trouble in Paraguay.

LONDON, June 16.—A telegram from Rio Janiero states that Gen. Goly has deposed the president of Paraguay and seized the government.

Political Notes.

Ben Hill is not a Tilden man.

Mr. Blaine still believes he has a chance.

Herschel V. Johnson is the favorite candidate of a Georgia paper in 1880.

Mr. Hamilton Fish is suggested by the Washington Republican as a presidential candidate.

An exchange says no living one can be named on Don Cameron favors for the presidency.

The Louisiana congressional convention has decided against the sectarian appropriations.

According to ex-Senator Spencer, of Alabama, Mr. Conkling prefers Blaine to Sherman for president.

General Butler is said to be laboring to defeat a coalition of the Ohio greenbackers and the democracy.

Now that Ohio has spoken the Chicago Times thinks there is no necessity for any further politics anywhere.

The Oswego (N. Y.) Palladium believes the opposition to Mr. Tilden, north and south, is steadily increasing.

Mr. John Ritchie is the choice of several western Maryland papers as the successor of Senator Whyte in the United States senate.

The Buffalo express thinks a trip through the newly discovered Northwest passage would cool off the "brigadiers" and do them good.

Mr. Foster says Secretary Sherman did not give him any support, direct or indirect, and that the Grant question did not enter into the convention.

In the opinion of the Chicago Tribune the Sherman "boom" for the presidency will be in nowise dependent upon the Ohio governorship for its success.

The vestry of St. George, Hanover square, London, refuses to allow a monument to Byron in St. James' street.

There has been a terrible loss of camels in the Afghan campaign. Already the trade between India and central Asia will be crippled simply for want of means of carriage during the next few years. Thousands of camels have perished from overwork and bad forage, and as these had been got together at high prices and with great difficulty, it is easy to understand the inconvenience that will be occasioned on the frontier.

FACTS AND SCRAPS.

Maine, in 1857, made a woman a citizen.

The Philadelphia Bulletin calls him the immi-Grant.

Louisiana people are eating red peaches and green corn.

And now they say that the president has reverted.

A Texan eloped with Mrs. Onion. No tears or cards.

Talmage will strike the coast of Europe in about a week.

Florida people are eating figs and wearing palm leaf hats.

Artificial ice in Florida costs about seventy cents a ton to the first seller.

A Massachusetts man decides that when a robin becomes white the cause is disease.

England ships Worcestershire sauce to the Fiji islands. Is baked missionary losing its flavor?

The temperance cause is declining in Indiana, but the democrats do not despair of large majorities.

There is no more gullible being than your thorough racing man. He will believe anything but the truth.

The chief business of the two political parties just now seems to be to select candidates for each other.

A Texas preacher says that a man who permits a parson to hang around his house and home has himself to blame.

Some one asks why, if Fred Douglass believes a negro cannot get along in the north, he ever ran away from his master?

A college graduate is making forty dollars a day at the new mining town of Leadville. He charges one dollar for a shave.

Beethoven, when writing music, went over every bar a dozen times. Many more recent musicians stick to the same bar all the time.

The confederate veterans of Baton Rouge, La., had a procession before their annual supper, which was headed by eleven young ladies, representing the eleven seceding southern states.

Kentucky whisky, according to the Louisville Courier-Journal, owes its excellence to the superiority of the grain, the quality of the limestone water, and the slow process of distillation. Bourbon generally contains 70 per cent. corn, and 15 malt, while rye whisky is made of rye and malt.

The ingredients are stirred into mash in a huge tub, and then put into fermenting vessels. Yeast is used to hasten fermentation except for sour-mash whisky. The process is not much unlike beer making. The liquid is next distilled twice, and becomes old whisky in about a week from the start.

Very excellent imitation of the Enfield rifle are manufactured in large numbers at Cabul, under the superintendence of some German armorers. They are quite as good as the English-made ones, as far as their shooting powers go, their only fault being that they are occasionally liable to burst.
