The Walla Walla Watchman publishes the following card from Wm. Hardesty, chairman of the 4th of July celebration committee, under three headings: "Good news for the boys!" "'Rah for the Fourth!" etc. Read it:

There is going to be another celebration at the green meadows, known as the Stetson ranch. Everybody, come!
Bring some grub and we will have a sociable dinner. Will have a hall 20x60 feet and those that are on the dance can have plenty of room to try their skill in the noble art. The mammoth swing will be here in the grove, where also preparations will be made for a grand dinner and a good sociable time is an-ticipated. Music by the string band. The balance of the program will be made known on the ground.
