GENERAL EASTERN NEWS.

BY MAIL AND TELEGRAPH.
Unprecedented Immigration.
NEW YORK, Jan. 1.—The total immigration at this port for the year ending yesterday, was 328,080. This aggregate is altogether unprecedented in the history of the board of immigration commissioners, whose statistics go back as far as 1847. In 1872 the total was 135,070, which was an increase of 59,823 over the previous year.

Congressman Whiteaker's Health.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—Congressman Whiteaker of Oregon, has been confined to his room for a week past by the effect of a severe cold, but is now convalescing.

GENERAL FOREIGN NEWS.

BY MAIL AND TELEGRAPH.
Garfield Making Friends Abroad.
LONDON, Jan. 2.—A dispatch from Berlin says that Gen. Garfield has written to the editor of the German Review expressing joy at the cordial relations which exist between Germany and the United States. There seems to be no real basis for the rumor that Carl Schurz will be designated by Gen. Garfield to supersede Mr. White here.

A Sectional Discussion

San Francisco Call.
Before the civil war there was no such word as "carpet-bagger" in the American vocabulary. The citizen of one state could move to another, gain a residence, and be elected to office without any one questioning the propriety of the act. It is difficult to do so now. The south is particularly jealous of seeing her citizens of northern birth promoted to office, although they may have lived long enough in that section to become thoroughly identified with its interests. The south asked for an appointment on the Supreme bench, and the President gave it to W. B. Woods, of Atlanta, Georgia. Mr. Woods was a Circuit judge in the south for several years, with his residence in Atlanta for fourteen or fifteen years. He is a large stockholder in the Tennessee Iron Works, of Cherokee county, Alabama, and an operator in other Alabama enterprises. Still he was born in Ohio, and there are southern citizens who object to him on that account. The bar of Atlanta has united in giving him a cordial endorsement, and is entirely satisfied that in the appointment of Judge Woods the President made a good selection. There is a possibility that when the several vacancies on the Supreme bench, which are expected soon to occur, take place, the President will endeavor to propitiate the fault-finders in the south by giving them a Supreme judge who has been southern born.

Jay Gould has purchased the Denver and South Park railroad, the purchase money, something near $2,500,000, having been paid last week. Jay Gould has been endeavoring to get control of the Denver and Rio Grande road, but has failed through the opposition of General Palmer, president of the road, and it is thought the purchase of the South Park road is made with a view to dictate the policy of the Rio Grande.

We have avenged ourselves on the man who let his hens into our garden last year. We have presented his wife with a lot of plants which he will have the felicity of lugging down the cellar every night while frost lasts, and they will be sure to die about spring-time.

Lake Shore railway stock has been added to the list of securities on the London board, selling at 129.

Chicago Social Events.

NOON'S—BOOTH.
The residence of A. Booth, Esq., No. 1638 Michigan avenue, was last evening the scene of a quiet and elegant wedding says the Tribune of the 22d, the parties to which were his daughter, Miss Margaret Emma Booth and Mr. Charles Sheppard Norris. The number of invitations issued were limited, and the ceremony was witnessed by the relatives and immediate friends of the bride and groom. The large parlors of the house were handsomely decorated by Miller, the florist. The chandeliers were hidden beneath festoons of smilax, and huge baskets and banks of flowers, the gifts of thoughtful friends, were scattered about in profusion. The mantels bore plateaus of rare flowers worked with the initials of the bride and groom. Between the two parlors was suspended an immense floral ball, and between the two front windows hung a unique floral piece designed by the bride. It was a large hook and eye, two feet square, the hook being composed of pink carnations and the eye of white carnations, and beneath this the twain were made one.

The ceremony was performed at 7 o'clock by the Rev. Dr. R. A. Holland, rector of Trinity Episcopal church. Messrs. Georgia W. Murison and Perry Datcher acted as ushers, and the bride and groom were accompanied by Miss Alice Booth and Mr. Will Booth, brother and sister of the bride. The bride was becomingly attired in an elegant dress made by Worth. It consisted of a white satin skirt with court train of brocaded satin, trimmed with pearls and Duchess lace.

After the ceremony a fine wedding supper was furnished by Wright, and excellent music was furnished by Freiberg's orchestra. The bride and groom received the congratulations of their friends, and at 9 o'clock took their departure for a brief trip through the east. On their return they will reside at No. 1628 Michigan avenue, and will receive their friends on Jan. 1 and 8. They received a number of handsome presents last evening, but they were not displayed.

Among those present at the ceremony were Bishop and Mrs. McLaren, the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Holland, the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Locke, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Shipman, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ray, Mr. and Mrs. A. Reamer, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Tilden, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Sargent, Mr. and Mrs. Edward P. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Corwith, Gen. and Mrs. H. N. Eldredge, Mr. and Mrs. Sturgis, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Foreman, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. George P. Gore, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rutter, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Wadsworth, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sanderson, Mr. Mrs. John Plankington, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Norris, of Milwaukee; Mr. and Mrs. Pettel and Mr. and Mrs. Robinson, of Kenosha; Mrs. Williams, Miss Ada Williams, Mrs. Annie Alston, Miss Maria Hahn, and Mr. Fred Cross.

Social Astoria.

Oregonian, January 1, 1881.
The ladies of Astoria gave an invitation leap year ball at Liberty hall last night. It was one of the pleasantest events of the very social and hospitable "Venice of America." In their duties of reception, floor managers and general arrangements, the ladies in charge acquitted themselves with graceful dignity. Although there has been no marked event this winter in Astoria's social life, the city by the sea has lost none of its characteristic social spirit and hospitality. Among her population are several honorably distinguished families, and very many persons of social prominence, whose occasional presence in Portland's best society is always welcome and agreeable. The social season at Astoria comes with the summer months and the advent of seaside visitors. Many hundreds can recall with pleasure her delightfully breezy August days, and the still more delightful hospitality of the people. Astoria picnics always seem more pleasant than picnics given by any other people or any other place; Astoria boating parties are jollier and more exciting than such excursions on our beautiful and clear Willamet; Astoria dinner parties seem more social and less formal than dinner parties elsewhere; Astoria ladies possess the charms of beauty and good sense to an extraordinary degree; and—We might easily continue the credit account to the length of the column, but enough is said to illustrate that Astoria is just the nicest place and her people just the nicest people to be found outside of—Portland.

Death of Albert W. Kinney.

Corr. of the Oregonian.
SALEM, Dec. 31.—The citizens of Salem were greatly shocked this morning to hear of the death of A. W. Kinney at his residence in this city. He had been ill for several weeks, but until just before his death hopes were entertained of his recovery. All that medical skill could do was done but without avail. Salem is again called upon to mourn the loss of one of its best and most influential citizens; one who individually has perhaps done more than any one else to enhance its interests, and whose enterprise and public spiritedness has become proverbial. His life was above reproach, and he was held in the highest esteem by all who knew him. He died as much as any one man in Oregon to advance her commercial interests. His character was unassailable, and in his death Salem's loss will be keenly felt. His liberality was well known, although he never "let his left hand know what his right hand did." Many a woeful family will recall some charitable act performed by him just at the right time. His employes respected him to a man, and the solemn stillness of the great wheel at the mill is itself a memento of sorrow, and amid the New Year's festivities of the capital city, many a word of sympathy will be spoken as the otherwise joyous participants think of the one that is gone. The flag of the state house is at half mast in respect to his memory. The funeral took place yesterday afternoon at one o'clock from the Baptist church.

Things to be Remembered.

Argonaut.
It is unneky—to fall out of a third-story window on Monday.
To meet a red-headed woman on Tuesday—especially if you owe her anything.
To break a forty-dollar mirror on a Wednesday.
To dream you see red snakes or green monkeys on Thursday.
To get hung on Friday.
To lose $2 50 on Saturday.
Or to get locked up on Sunday.
Paste this in your hat, and don't you forget it.
—Mrs. Derby finds that she will be compelled soon to put unpaid bills of long standing, overdue her, into hands of an attorney for collection. She is in need of money and respectfully invites all to call and settle their accounts as soon as possible.
—Choice California hams and bacon at 12 cents per pound, at Geo. W. Hume's.

AROUND THE CITY.

A full assortment of counter and grocers scales can be found at M. C. Crosby's, at bottom prices.
—P. J. Goodman, on Main street, has just received the latest and most fashionable style of gent and ladies boots, shoes, etc.
—For a first-class oyster stew, fry, pan-roast or fancy roast, go to Roscoe's, on Main street, opposite N. Loeb's. Families supplied by the hundred or the sack, opened or in the shell.
—Mr. J. Stewart, stone and marble cutter of Astoria will guarantee satisfaction to all ordering work of him, and will do a better job for less money than any outside workman. His work in the cemetery here should be sufficient recommendation. Before you let your contractors for work of this kind it would be well to call upon Mr. Stewart.

Horse Education.

In something we have written says the editor of the Farmer, "we have an indistinct recollection of having made reference to a general disposition among boys in their teens, as well as boys of maturer years, to enlighten and bless the world with their profound knowledge of the horse and his history. Our books and newspapers are full of this kind of literature, and it varies in style from the production of the child at school, commencing with: The horse has four legs and a tail; up to the eloquent tribute of the scholar when he quotes from Job: That his neck is clothed with thunder and the glory of his nostrils is terrible. He smelleth the battle afar off, the thunder of the captains and the shouting. Between these two extremes of the child at his first school composition, and the professional literature, we have every grade of pretention, and each professing to have mastered the whole subject. As we approach the close of this nineteenth century, we begin to look for something better in this department of knowledge from those who assume to instruct." And it is to be found in Kendall's Treatise on the horse, sent by mail to any person for twenty-five cents, postage paid. Apply to THE ASTORIAN office, or address D. C. Ireland, Astoria, Oregon.

Syphon Study Lamp.

Hon. I. W. Case, of Astoria, in placing the new Syphon study lamp on the market, would call the attention of the trade to some of its merits. Its illuminating qualities are not equalled by any study lamp in use. It gives a steady, brilliant light; is free from unpleasant odors and does not drip either when burning or not burning; easily lighted and trimmed, and is without exception, the most convenient lamp to fill ever made. Directions accompanying each lamp. Call upon Mr. Case and buy one. He sells them at remarkable low rates.

Dolls.

China, wax, and indistructible ware, at the City Book Store, at the lowest possible prices. Call and secure one for they must be sold.

Wool, Hides and Furs.

Farmers and others will find it greatly to their advantage to call on the undersigned before selling their wool, hides and furs, as he is now prepared to either buy or sell on commission anything in the above line that may be offered, paying the highest cash price. Freight and charges advanced.
J. H. D. GRAY.

AMUSEMENTS.

HILL'S VARIETIES.—Geo. Hill, proprietor, Fred Gere, manager.—The company at present consists of the following talented artists. Comedians: Mr. Chas. Nickerson, one of the oldest minstrel performers in America; Mr. John Hallet, one of the favorites of the Pacific coast; Mr. A. J. Markey, the celebrated Irish delineator; Mr. Fred Gere, in dithelisms; Mr. Dean and Mr. Morice balladists; Mr. Ostrander, violin soloist, and baritone; Mr. Charles Barnes, pianist and E. flat soprano; Mr. Geo. Lambert, leader of brass band; Mr. Richard Bruce, snare drummer and vocalist. This evening the ever popular first part with Mr. Nickerson and his tambourine, Mr. Hallet and his bones, Mr. Gere inter-tenor. The first part to conclude with "All the World a Stage, and Men and Women merely Actors." Entire change of programme this evening. A new olio of specialties, consisting of songs and dances, Irish, dutch and negro eccentricities, and the Christmas play entitled, "Work for All," by Nickerson, Markey and Gere. Also a negro sketch, "The Demon of the Woods," by Hallet, Nickerson and Gere. Also Mr. Charles Barnes in an appropriate guitar solo. Mr. Richard Bruce in a snare drum solo. A Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year to all. The performance to open with our ever popular minstrel first part. New orchestral selections and new music on the grand stand under the leadership of Mr. George Lambert at 6:30 P. M. The entertainment will begin at 7:30 P. M. Entrance on Benton street. Private boxes on Chenamus.

—John Rogers has just received at the Central market a large invoice of coal oil, assorted brands, and for sale at reduced rates. He also keeps a general assortment of groceries, liquors, tobacco, cigars, fruits and vegetables of best quality, which he offers at small profit for cash.

—Gray's wood yard is now fitted up on the wharf foot of Benton street, and prepared to deliver wood to any part of the city sawed to any length, and full measure.
