GENERAL NEWS.

BY MAIL AND TELEGRAPH.

The Down.

PORTLAND, Jan. 12.—A severe wind prostrated the telegraph wires south of Grave creek. Douglas county yesterday. In consequence our usual telegraph report failed to come last night.

PACIFIC COAST NEWS.

Successor to Irving Ballard Appointed.
OLYMPIA, Jan. 11.—Gov. Newell today commissioned Hon. Elwood Evans prosecuting attorney to fill the vacancy made by the death of Hon. Irving Ballard.

Circular No. 1.

The following circular has been issued by the Oregon Railway and Navigation company, office of general freight and passenger agent, date of Portland, Oregon, Jan. 15, 1881:

Circular No. 1. On and after date all communications relative to the transportation of freight and passengers should be addressed to the undersigned. All existing rates of fare and freight are hereby confirmed and will remain in force until otherwise ordered. Claims for overcharge and loss or damage to freight, together with reports pertaining thereto, will in future be sent to this office.

JOHN MUIR, General Freight and Passenger Agent.

Approved: T. F. OAKES, Vice President.

Report reaches us that the Oregonian Railway company, limited, Wm. Reid manager, has purchased the railways of the Oregon and California company, from Portland to Roseburg, and Corvallis. Thus the triangular fight begins to close.

On Christmas day Miss Laura Hoxter, of Forest Grove, was presented with a $2000 interest in her father's mercantile business at that place, the gift rendered her junior member in the firm of W. D. Hoxter & Daughter. Miss Hoxter is a graduate of Pacific University of the class of 1877. After completing the classical course there, she went to Portland and took a course in commercial college, since which time she has been her father's confidential clerk and book keeper. The knowledge thus acquired in the business, amply fits her for the new partnership, and the firm is, so far as we know, the only one of like status in Oregon. Her success shows that with careful and thorough training, a young woman may succeed in financial life as well as a young man.

All ladies intending to attend the necktie party at Liberty hall Friday evening, are requested by the committee to bring neckties.

The price of subscription to THE WEEKLY ASTORIAN has been reduced to $2 per annum when paid in advance. If not paid in advance the old price of $3 will be charged.

Credit Court Blanks, County Court Blanks, Justice Court Blanks, Shipping Blanks, Miscellaneous Blanks, Deeds, Mortgages, etc., for Sale at THE ASTORIAN OFFICE.

Who ever heard a business man that advertising did not pay him?

Advertisements are the quiet soldiers who never intrude, but who never fail to make themselves known and are seen and remembered despite the will of the reader who could not forget them if he would.

Who wants to know about the great State where the exports equal the value $78 per head of the entire population, send $1.00 to D. C. Ireland for THE ASTORIAN, the only Oregon paper, published wholly in the interest of Oregon.

To discriminate between what is news and what is advertising in an item is often a difficult task for a publisher. Newspapers, to be on the safe side, must charge when the item brings money to others. Such is but justice, and in compliance with the laws of business, and without this discrimination a newspaper will fail financially.

A wealthy Pittsburg merchant is reported as having said: "I always feel happy when I am advertising, for then I know that waking or sleeping, I have a strong, though silent orator working for me; one who never tires, never sleeps, never makes mistakes and who is certain to enter the households from which, if at all, my trade must come."

We desire it to be distinctly understood that those who send us advertisements from abroad, must send the cash with the advertisements, if they would have them appear. We have numbers of advertisements sent us from strangers saying, "Please insert and send bill." This we cannot do; the cash must accompany the copy and the order

The Event of the Season.

Astoria City, Oregon.

ASTORIA, Jan. 10.—The public installation of the officers of Beaver lodge, No. 35, I.O.O.F., in this city last Thursday evening will be remembered as one of the most impressive and at the same time the most enjoyable entertainments ever given here. The services of the order were conducted by Hon. I. W. Case, M. W. grand master, assisted by E. C. Holden acting grand warden, A. J. Megler acting grand recording secretary, A. M. Toubert acting grand permanent secretary, J. H. D. Gray acting grand treasurer, and Dr. Jay Tuttle acting grand marshal. The officers installed were: St. Clair Bonner, N. G.; W. H. Barker, V. G.; T. S. Jewett, recording secretary; Louis Wilson, permanent secretary; John Hahn, treasurer. The entire ceremony was performed without the use of rituals and were more than ordinarily impressive. The hall was beautifully decorated with evergreens, flags, emblems of the order and mottoes, the graceful work of Mrs. I. W. Case, Mrs. S. C. Bonner, Miss Nettie Wilson, Miss Springer, Miss Fannie Taylor, Mrs. E. R. Hawes, and Mrs. J. E. Ferchen. Excellent vocal music was furnished by a choir consisting of Miss Esther Holden and Katie Flavel, Mrs. W. H. Barker, Mrs. W. W. Parker, and Messrs. W. H. Barker and E. S. Merrill. Miss Nettie Flavel presided at the organ. The hall was densely packed with an intelligent and attractive audience, who were deeply interested in the exercises. Installation services over, the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing, more than 150 couples participating.

AMUSEMENTS.

His work in the cemetery here should be sufficient recommendation. Before you let your contracts for work of this kind it would be well to call upon Mr. Stewart.

Horse Education.

In something written we have an indistinct recollection of having made reference to a general disposition among boys in their teens, as well as boys of maturer years, to enlighten and bless the world with their profound knowledge of the horse and his history. Our books and newspapers are full of this kind of literature, and it varies in style from the production of the child at school, commencing with: The horse has four legs and a tail; up to the eloquent tribute of the scholar when he quotes from Job: That his neck is clothed with thunder and the glory of his nostrils is terrible. He smelleth the battle afar off, the thunder of the captains and the shouting. Between these two extremes of the child at his first school composition, and the professional literature, we have every grade of pretention, and each professing to have mastered the whole subject. As we approach the close of this nineteenth century, we begin to look for something better in this department of knowledge from those who assume to instruct. And it is to be found in Kendall's Treatise on the horse, sent by mail to any person for twenty-five cents, postage paid. Apply to THE ASTORIAN OFFICE, or address D. C. Ireland, Astoria, Oregon.

And his Diseases, by B. J. KENDALL, M.D. Full of Valuable and Practical Information, and Containing an INDEX OF DISEASES.

Which gives the symptoms, cause and best treatment of each, a table giving all the principal drugs used for the horse, with the ordinary dose, effects, and antidote when a poison, a table with an engraving of the horse's teeth at different ages, with rules for telling the age of the horse; 65 engravings showing the important points in the structure of the horse, also illustrating positions assumed by sick horses in different diseases. A valuable collection of receipts, many of which would cost a horse-owner three to five dollars each.

EVERY FARMER SHOULD OWN THIS BOOK.

Thousands who have seen it commended it, and many good horse-men have extolled it in the highest terms, even stating that they prefer it to books which cost $5.00 to $20.00. Do not throw away your money in the purchase of costly books on the horse, which are so full of Latin phrases, and technical terms as to be unintelligible to the average reader but,

BUY KENDALL'S TREATISE. A book of 100 pages, in paper covers, giving you more practical information than is contained in some large volumes, at far higher cost. Having examined this book thoroughly we are satisfied to

HORSE-OWNER Would hesitate a moment about investing 25 cents in its purchase, if he did but know the value of its contents. Recognizing the desirability of having such practical information as our farming friends daily need in their business, provided at reasonable cost instead of being obliged to pay the enormous profits demanded by the Publishers of most Agricultural Books, we have secured

Several Hundred Copies Of this valuable little Treatise on the Horse, single copies of which we shall be pleased to mail to any reader of this paper, postage prepaid by us, on receipt of
