The Weekly Astorian

Is a mammoth sheet, exactly double the size of the Daily. It is just the paper for the fireside, containing in addition to all the current news, choice miscellany, agricultural matter, market reports, etc.

THE CITY.

THE DAILY ASTORIAN will be sent by mail at 75 cents a month, free of postage. Readers who contemplate absence from the city can have THE ASTORIAN follow them, DAILY or WEEKLY editions to any post-office without additional expense.

The Oregon did not get to sea until yesterday.

The wind was high but the sun was fair yesterday.

A locket lost on the street yesterday belongs to a Miss. Leave at this office.

The barkentine Webfoot arrived yesterday from a stormy voyage, with loss of some sails.

Mr. M. J. Kinney is in the city, having arrived by Columbia. He will soon return to San Francisco.

The Rothesa Bay came down in tow of the E. N. Cooke yesterday. The same steamer took the Aberlemno up river.

Another body supposed to be from the Lupata, came ashore on Wests Clatsop beach, and was given christian burial.

The Olympics B.B.S., on the 28th, will be the leading affair. Four of the best musicians in Portland are to be engaged.

Capt. Gore passed through the locks with the Chief last Friday, and rendered much valuable assistance to sufferers from the flood, saving lives and property.

Col. John Adair of Adair & Co., canoe pass Frazer river, British Columbia, called yesterday. He arrived by the Columbia, and will return to Frazer river soon.

The steamer Dakota was disabled after leaving San Francisco on the 10th by breaking her shaft. The steamer Victoria picked her up and towed her back to San Francisco on the 15th.

We do hope and pray that our readers may have no such noisy thumping, bumping, hammering and jam of a place to read this paper, as we have to prepare it for the press.

Collisions between vessels in the narrow river at Portland are of frequent occurrence. The Rothesa Bay is the latest, clearing the Otter of some of her rigging on Tuesday morning.

Senator Slater writes hopefully of the chances of securing a liberal appropriation from the present congress for Columbia bar improvement. The sum of $450,000 will be asked for.

The Gem will be opened to-day by Alex. Campbell, one of the most popular carterers in the state, whom all old-time Oregonians will remember favorably, and all new comers soon learn to appreciate. We are glad to welcome Mr. Campbell to Astoria, and hope he may never have cause to regret that he has cast his lot amongst us.

We are gratified to learn that Leinenweber & Co., of the upper town hemlock tannery are extending their business farther east. An order calling for their leather reached them on the 17th from the live city of Chicago. They also have an order from Sitka for boots and shoes. Their leather is now acknowledged to be superior to all other. Perseverance and good judgment in business matters such as actuate this house, always wins.

The Oregonian yesterday says: Since our last report the river has fallen two feet here, and is receding rapidly. Work on repairing railroads is being pushed, and it is likely that communication to Roseburg will be established by Friday. Steamboat navigation from here to the upper Willamet is still suspended, and must remain so till the river has fallen enough to allow safe passage through the Oregon city locks. Boats will likely resume trips Friday morning.

Tucson clamors for a Mint. It would go well with ice, sugar and brandy during the awfully hot weather in August.

In a Texas paper we find an advertisement of a shady gentlemen's residence. Most of the gentlemen who keep shady out this way have no residence.

D. M. Ferry & Co's seed catalogue, and sample packet of seeds just received, entitles them to first class recommendations. See their advertisement in WEEKLY ASTORIAN.

The father of Charley Ross claims to have spent $60,000 in searching for the stolen youth. Charlie must be a much better boy than the ordinary run of 'em, or he isn't worth half the money.

A new man on a southern paper alluded to Dr. Talmage as "the sky-raking, acrobatic Tabernacle yelper and gay prevaricator." He expected to have his salary raised, but they fired him instead.

Heretofore no orders for music lessons for either Mr. Barnes or Mr. Cullen need be left at Capt Adlers book store, but if they desire lessons please leave your orders with Sterens and Son.

Except France, every European government has been expending more than its income. They will find out, like Micawber, that the policy is a bad one. They had better come out west, and grow up with this country.

For the genuine J. H. Otter old Bourbon, and the best of wines, liquors, and San Francisco beer call at the Gem opposite the bell tower, and see Campbell.

We have received a specimen number of Happy Songs in 40 page manilla form, music book for day schools, which certainly fills a real want. The words are full of life and are not trashy. We think all teachers will find this little volume is just what they have long wanted. Send ten cents for specimen copy to Thomas Kane & Co., 248 Wabash avenue, Chicago.

A wave of transitory mania seems to have swept over the southern regions of the coast, from Bodie to Tucson. Homicides have followed quickly on each others heels. In Los Angeles county there was a resultant outbreak of transitory sanity, during which the populace seized and hanged a murderer. It soon died out, however, and another murderer underwent the pleasant process of what the papers called being "safely lodged in jail."

It is very pleasing to us to be informed that the Chief of the Signal Service in Washington is in hearty accord with THE ASTORIAN the Chamber of Commerce, and the life men of this community concerning the establishment of a signal station at Tillamook rock light. He says: "I am anxious to do what I can to promote the plan proposed by the Astoria Chamber of Commerce." If the Pacific coast delegation can now secure the appropriation, which we believe they can and will do, the work will be immediately begun.

Fresh leaf lard at Warren and Eaton's.

Lawyers briefs printed in fine style, at THE ASTORIAN office.

Bath tubs, water closets, sinks and hot water apparatus, furnished hotels and private residences, at lowest rates and shortest notice, by Magnus C. Crosby, at the little tin shop "round the corner."

Buy THE WEEKLY ASTORIAN in post-paid wrapper for ten cents, and send it to some friend in the east. It is better than a letter.

During the absence of Mr. Carl Adler from the city, Mr. Chas. Moffett will have the entire management of his business, and he will commence at once by reducing prices of everything suitable to dull times. Everybody can be assured of being treated well, and furthermore will find out by careful examination of goods and prices that Adlers store is the place to do your buying. You can always find what you ask for in large variety.

J. W. Gearhart has some A No. 1 apples, and a general assortment of dried fruits.

Frank Faber has removed into Dr. Kinsey's building on Water street. On the road to the steamer dock from down town, before breakfast, it will now be handy to drop in and get a cup of coffee.

Magnus C. Crosby has a first-class workman, and is prepared to do all kinds of jobbing in tin, sheet iron and copper, plumbing and steam fitting. Full satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

Cannerymen would gain much by leaving us their orders for incidental printing now, to be done leisurely during the winter months—saving time and money, and avoiding the risks of a spring rush of work.

The Peruvian syrup has cured thousands who were suffering from dyspepsia, debility, liver complaint, boils, humors, female complaints, etc. Pamphlets free to any address. Seth W. Fowle & Sons, Boston.

J. W. Hanson is getting impatient waiting for some of those promises to pay balances due on account of steamer Magnet. He don't want to make posts, but is liable to do so.

Mallets, Gaff and Copper Handles. Cannerymen work will be done in good style by Henry Gallon, Astoria, Oregon. If you will give him your orders now he can be doing the work in dull times, making it advantageous to all parties.

Central Hotel. The Central hotel, near the steamship dock is now open for the reception of guests, where the well known caterer, Mr. Anton Eloh will always be found ready to wait on his patrons. He has had the above named house thoroughly refitted by Messrs. Pike and Stockton, our well known artists. Call and see him, as he has the finest brands of liquors and cigars to be had in the city.

Wool, Hides and Furs. Farmers and others will find it greatly to their advantage to call on the undersigned before selling their wool, hides and furs, as he is now prepared to either buy or sell on commission anything in the above line that may be offered, paying the highest cash price. Freights and charges advance. J. H. D. GRAY.

Dolls. China, wax, and indestructible ware, at the City Book Store, at the lowest possible prices. Call and secure one for they must be sold.

Always Ahead. Foster has just received an electric cigar lighter. Call in and see it.

AMUSEMENTS. HILL'S VARIETIES. Geo. Hill, proprietor, Fred Gere, manager. A complete change of bill, re-engagement of Mr. Harry Staley song and dance artist, jig and clog dancer. The entertainment to begin with our new and popular minstrel first part, with Mr. Nickerson and his tambourine, Mr. Staley with the bones, Mr. Gere as inter-entor, to be followed by new acts, and a new olio, second week of Miss Mattie Morrison, sixth week of Mr. Chas. Nickerson, continued and unabated success of the entire establishment, and the only place of amusement that never closes its doors. Open every night all the year around, and please all. Mr. Hill thanks the public for past patronage and will spare neither money or pains to make his entertainments complete success in the future. New selections, etc. New orchestral selections and new music on the grand stand under the leadership of Mr. George Lambert at 6:30 P. M. The entertainment will begin at 7:30 P. M. Entrance on Benton street. Private boxes on Chenamus.

How can I tell whether my advertisement will attract or not? Try it.

Any person who takes a paper regularly from a postoffice—whether directed to his name or another's, or whether he has subscribed or not—is responsible for the paper.

An advertisement in a newspaper is worth forty "directory" cards and other foolish imitations. The paper is seen every day by hundreds, while the book is noticed by only a very few.

The courts have decided that refusing to take newspaper advertisements from a postoffice, or removing or leaving them uncollected for, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.

If you are suddenly asked, "who among merchants have made the largest fortunes in the shortest time in legitimate business," will not your reply naturally be, "judicious advertisers?"

If a person orders his paper discontinued, he must first pay all arrears, or the publisher may continue to send it until it is paid, and collect the whole amount, whether the paper is taken from the office or not.

A good point about advertising, in general, is that such announcements never offend. We never dislike that which appeals to us for our good opinion, for the very act seems to say to us that our good opinion is valued.

It is a fact long since established, says the Helena Herald, that the merchant who liberally patronizes the advertising columns of the press, sells his wares cheaper than the one whose name is seldom or ever seen. The reason is patent, for by thus advertising, his sales are tripled, and the better chance for profit makes him the greatest gainer.

A newspaper is a window through which men look out upon the world. Without a newspaper a man is shut up in a small room, and knows little or nothing of what is happening outside of himself. In our day the newspaper will keep a sensible man in sympathy with the world's current history. It is an unfolding encyclopaedia and history book, forever issuing and never finished.

There is a quiet courtesy and modest unobtrusiveness about a wise advertisement that create a certain responsive feeling of sympathy in the reader. We all like to be solicited, and it is natural to suppose that he who most politely, clearly and persistently solicits, stands the better chance for our trade. The familiar advertisements of local papers often cover these points with great tact and ingenuity.

Skilled mechanical and professional labor is in abundance in this state. We can spare a whole army of clerks, salesmen and Micawbers who are starving because they are not fitted, or will not labor in the field that offers them a living. Note is the time to invest in lands and to settle on them. Railroads are opening all over the state, and there is a fair showing of an increase in the value of land, no matter where located. Farmers are what we want, and not more tradesmen; agriculturists, not additional professors; tillers of the soil, and not an increased army of clerks. The country is healthy, both morally and physically, and there is value in land that is not affected by the rise and fall of stocks.

AROUND THE CITY.

A full assortment of counter and grocers scales can be found at M. C. Crosby's, at bottom prices.

P. J. Goodman, on Main street, has just received the latest and most fashionable style of gent and ladies boots, shoes, etc.

For a first-class oyster stew, fry, pan-roast or fancy roast, go to Roscoe's, on Main street, opposite N. Loeb's. Families supplied by the hundred or the sack, opened or in the shell.

Mr. J. Stewart, stone and marble cutter of Astoria will guarantee satisfaction to all ordering work of him, and will do a better job for less money than any outside workman. His work in the cemetery here should be sufficient recommendation. Before you let your contracts for work of this kind it would be well to call upon Mr. Stewart.

A Cargo. Of choice timothy hay just arrived at J. H. D. Gray's.

Tin Plate, Pig Tin, Etc. Geo. W. Hume keeps constantly on hand, and to arrive a full line of fishermen and cannery supplies, at prices which defy competition. Parties wishing groceries and those intending to run mess houses should inspect goods and obtain large discount from regular price.

Boat Materials. Cannerymen, fishermen and boat builders generally, will find a splendid article of oak timber for boats, also boat nails, etc., at the lowest prices by calling upon Bain & Co., sash, blind and door factory, on Astor street.

Syphon Study Lamp. Hon. I. W. Case, of Astoria, in placing the new Syphon study lamp on the market, would call the attention of the trade to some of its merits. Its illuminating qualities are not equalled by any study lamp in use. It gives a steady, brilliant light; is free from unpleasant odor does not drip either when burning or not burning; easily lighted and trimmed, and is without exception, the most convenient lamp to fill ever made. Directions accompanying each lamp. Call upon Mr. Case and buy one. He sells them at remarkable low rates.

Fresh smelt, first of the season at Warren & Eaton's.

P. Wilhelm, Boss saloon, opposite the Clarendon hotel, Portland, Oregon.

650,000 ALREADY SOLD!! A Treatise on the

HORSE

And his Diseases, by B.J. KENDALL, M.D.

Full of Valuable and Practical Information, and Containing an INDEX OF DISEASES.

Which gives the symptoms, cause and the best treatment of each; a table giving all the principal drugs used for the horse, with the ordinary dose, effects, and antidote when a poison; a table with an engraving of the horse's teeth at different ages, with rules for telling the age of the horse; 62 engravings showing the important points in the structure of the horse, also illustrating positions assumed by sick horses in different diseases. A valuable collection of receipts, many of which would cost a horse-owner three to five dollars each.

EVERY FARMER SHOULD OWN THIS BOOK.

Thousands who have seen it commend it, and many good horsemen have copied it in the highest terms, even stating that they prefer it to books which cost $5.00 to $10.00. Do not throw away your money in the purchase of costly books on the horse, which are so full of Latin phrases and technical terms as to be unintelligible to the average reader but,

BUY KENDALL'S TREATISE. A book of 100 pages, in paper covers, giving you more practical information than is contained in some large volumes at far higher cost. Having examined this book thoroughly we are satisfied to

HORSE-OWNER

Would hesitate a moment about investing 25 cents in its purchase, if he did not know the value of its contents. Recognizing the desirability of having such practical information as our farming friends daily need in their business, provided at reasonable cost instead of being obliged to pay the enormous profits demanded by the Publishers of most Agricultural Books, we have secured

Several Hundred Copies Of this valuable little Treatise on the Horse, single copies of which we shall be pleased to mail to any reader of this paper, postage prepaid by us, on receipt of
