

The Daily Astorian.

ASTORIA, OREGON: SUNDAY, FEB. 27, 1881. ISSUED EVERY MORNING. D. C. Ireland, Editor and Proprietor.

Terms of Subscription: per week, per month, per quarter, per year.

The Weekly Astorian. Is a mammoth sheet, exactly double the size of the Daily.

THE CITY.

THE DAILY ASTORIAN will be sent by mail at 75 cents a month, free of postage.

Next Wednesday is Ash Wednesday.

Mrs. C. Timmons is a passenger by the incoming steamer.

Steamer day-to-day. Oregon to arrive; State of California to sail.

Services of the Methodist Episcopal church in the Baptist church today at the usual hours.

The Archer and North Bend were taken to bar anchorage yesterday but were unable to proceed to sea.

Persons desiring to join the Olympic gymnasium should present their applications at once to Mr. S. T. McKean, the secretary.

About the first of March the remainder of the young salmon at the hatchery on the Clackamas, numbering about 115,000, will be put into the river.

The steamer Ordway arrived from Portland yesterday with 20,000 feet of lumber for Megler & Wright.

The British bank Archer, Mariner master, has cleared with 12,071 cents of Walla-walla wheat, valued at $15,500, and 1,432,360 pounds of Salem bakers' flour, valued at $31,060 for Liverpool.

At a meeting of the Astoria Dramatic association, on Friday evening, a vote of thanks was unanimously tendered the Young Men's Western band for the kind assistance rendered by them in playing for the entertainment given Monday evening last.

Some of the wharves along the city front are in a very bad condition and the attention of the owners should be called to the imminent danger to which people are subject when near these places.

Two men, whose names we were unable to learn, while engaged in the construction of the foundation for the new cannery of Messrs. C. Timmons & Co., at upper Astoria, met with a severe and almost fatal accident on Friday by falling from the scaffold into the water.

Mr. Joseph N. Prescott, the father of Mrs. Harriet Prescott Spofford and Mary N. Prescott, died January 22d, at the residence of his son-in-law Hon. Richard S. Spofford, in Newport, Massachusetts, in his seventy-fourth year.

See notices of sealed proposals in another column to-day. Mr. J. W. Welch will construct a large store building corner of West-eight and Water streets which will be occupied about April 1st as a drug store by Mr. J. W. Conn.

The steamer John Nation, recently fitted up at Portland, arrived down yesterday afternoon. She is owned by Messrs. Jas. Fairfowl, jr., and Robt. Trenchard and will be used as a dairy boat.

News from Tillamook.

An occasional correspondent of THE ASTORIAN, writing from Kitchis post-office, Tillamook county, Oregon, sends us the following items:

We have a literary society at Kitchis, where both old and young meet every Saturday night. Reading, recitations and vocal and instrumental music are the principal features of the society.

It is hoped that the contemplated survey of the narrow gauge railroad from Grand Ronde through Tillamook to Astoria will be found practicable, and the work of building the road soon commenced.

Mr. Henry Weatherly, who was drowned February 12th, while fording Kitchis river on horseback, was on his way to California. He was found a short distance below in about ten feet of water.

The Harvest Queen, which was so successfully brought over the falls, goes temporarily on the route from the Dalles to the Cascades.

A meeting of the board of pilot commissioners of Washington territory, for the Columbia river and bar, was held at Kalama on Wednesday last.

The Oregon Improvement company has made a contract with the Central Pacific Railroad company of California, to furnish the latter with all the coal used on the road for the coming year.

Correspondents should bear in mind that all matters should be accompanied by the authors full name. Correspondence concerning personal wrongs or such matters as are of no interest to any one, but are likely to offend some one, are generally consigned to the waste basket.

The people of this city and vicinity should have few complaints to make, if any. During the recent storms and cold spells at Walla-walla and other points on the upper Columbia wood was sold as high as $16 per cord, and in some places was almost entirely exhausted.

The second inquest held on the body of the unknown man washed ashore at Port Orford, revealed the fact that it was that of a man named William Black, about thirty-five years of age, and that his death was caused by violence.

Mr. Joseph N. Prescott, the father of Mrs. Harriet Prescott Spofford and Mary N. Prescott, died January 22d, at the residence of his son-in-law Hon. Richard S. Spofford, in Newport, Massachusetts, in his seventy-fourth year.

Mr. Frank Keeler closed out his extensive stock of silverware and dry goods at auction last evening.

The new improved Franconia range, kept by Magnus C. Crosby, stands at the top of the market.

PUZZLEDOM.

Word Enigma. I am composed of fifteen letters. My 3, 6, 5, 4, 7, 8, are used in icy winter.

Square Word Puzzle. Place four words in a solid square so that they will read the same from right to left and from top to bottom.

Puzzle of Countries. Fill in a letter on every dash and make each line read a country.

Following are the answers to the puzzles in last week's ASTORIAN: 1. Salmon. 2. SHIP. 3. Philadelphia, Omaha, New Orleans, Detroit, Galveston.

The Portland Daily Chronicle lived just about a week. From this unsuccessful enterprise is formed the Sunday Chronicle, which promises its useful career as long as sufficient patronage is extended its publisher to continue its existence.

A striking example of the effects of civilization upon the Chinese is found in the case of Lee Sam, the merchant who left Portland defaulting by about $100,000.

Go ahead, is the word with Carl Adler. He is now the agent for the American Clock company and has just received a fine assortment of clocks and watches, prices very moderate on the same, with a full guarantee.

There is music in the Air. About Carl Adler's music and variety store on Chenamus street. Pianos and organs are his speciality now, he is agent for all the finest makes and has a grand assortment on hand.

To Let. Several furnished or unfurnished rooms at Mrs. Munson's lodging house. Also, a few persons can have board if required, either ladies or gentlemen.

Is getting impatient waiting for some of these promises to pay balances due on account of steamer Magnet. He don't want to make costs, but is liable to do so.

Have you already tasted the delicious smoked sardines, excellently adapted for luncheon or supper? If not, try them at once. Ask your grocer for them; they are put up expressly for family use.

Camerymen's work will be done in good style by Henry Gallou, Astoria, Oregon. If you will give him your orders now he can be doing the work in dull times, making it advantageous to all parties.

Oh say! young man if you want to take your girl for a ride, and can't on account of the lameness of your horse you should procure a bottle of Kendall's Spavin Cure at once, for nothing is better for man or beast. See ad.

For a first-class oyster stew, fry, pan-roast or fancy roast, go to Roscoe's on Main street, opposite N. Loeb's. Families supplied by the hundred or the sack, opened or in the shell.

When you want a dish of nice Eastern Oysters done up a la mode, or a good steak, or a fragrant cup of coffee, call at Frank Faber on the roadway, and he will accommodate you. Open at all hours.

Magnus C. Crosby has a first-class workman, and is prepared to do all kinds of jobbing in tin, sheet iron and copper, plumbing and steam fitting. Full satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

The new improved Franconia range, kept by Magnus C. Crosby, stands at the top of the market.

For a cough or cold there is no remedy equal to Ammen's Cough Syrup.

Syphon Study Lamp.

Hon. I. W. Case, of Astoria, in placing the new Syphon study lamp on the market, would call the attention of the trade to some of its merits. Its illuminating qualities are not equalled by any study lamp in use.

Washingtonville, Ohio, June 17th, 1880. Reading the advertisement of Kendall's Spavin Cure and having a valuable and speedy horse which had been lame from spavin eighteen months, I sent to you for a bottle by express, which in six weeks removed all lameness and enlargement and a large splint from another horse, and both horses are to-day as sound as colts.

The Central hotel, near the steamship dock is now open for the reception of guests, where the well known caterer, Mr. Anton Beloh will always be found ready to wait on his patrons.

Geo. W. Hume keeps constantly on hand, and to arrive a full line of fisherettes and cannery supplies, at prices which defy competition. Parties wishing groceries and those intending to run mess houses should inspect goods and obtain large discount from regular price.

Geo. Hill, proprietor and manager, Fred Greer, stage manager, A. Ostrander, leader of orchestra, Geo. Lambert, leader of brass band—To-night new first part, new acts, and new olio, Mr. Nickerson in his funisims, Mr. Stacey in his elegant elegance, Mr. Morice in new songs, Miss Morrison with her beautiful vocalists, Mr. Bruce will execute his latest wonderful magic tricks, and Mr. Gere in drolleries. The entertainment will commence with a new first part, ending with "Our Circus." Mr. Hill has proven himself a very popular caterer to the public tastes and will continue to exert himself to do so in the future.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with the excruciating pain of cutting teeth? If so, go at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, it will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately—depend upon it; there is no mistake about it. There is not a mother on earth who has ever used it, who will not tell you at once that it will regulate the bowels, and give rest to the mother, and relief and health to the child, operating like magic. It is perfectly safe to use in all cases, and pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Sold everywhere, 25 cents a bottle.

For the best Beer in Astoria, call for the Columbia Brewery Beer, acknowledged to be superior to all others. The handsomest show of jewelry of all descriptions is now to be seen in Adler's jewelry department. John Rogers has just received at the Central market a large invoice of coal oil, assorted brands, and for sale at reduced rates. He also keeps a general assortment of groceries, liquors, tobacco, cigars, fruits and vegetables of best quality, which he offers at small profit for cash.

HORSE And his Diseases, by B. J. KENDALL, M.D. Full of Valuable and Practical Information, and Containing an INDEX OF DISEASES.

Which gives the symptoms, cause and the Best Treatment of each; a table giving all the principal signs used for the Horse, with the ordinary uses, effects, and antidotes when a poison; a table with an engraving of the Horse's teeth of different ages, with rules for telling the age of the Horse; 60 engravings showing the important points in the structure of the horse, also illustrating positions assumed by sick horses in different diseases. A valuable collection of receipts, many of which would cost a horse-owner three to five dollars each. EVERY FARMER SHOULD OWN THIS BOOK.

Thousands who have seen it commend it, and many good horsemen have extolled it in the highest terms, even stating that they prefer it to books which cost $5.00 to $10.00. Do not throw away your money in the purchase of costly books on the Horse, which are so full of Latin phrases and technical terms as to be unintelligible to the average reader but, BUY KENDALL'S TREATISE, A book of 100 pages, in paper covers, giving you more practical information than is contained in some large volumes at far higher cost. Having examined this book thoroughly we are satisfied no HORSE-OWNER

Would hesitate a moment about investing 25 cents in its purchase, if he did not know the value of its contents. Recognizing the desirability of having such practical information as our farming friends daily need in their business, provided at reasonable cost instead of being obliged to pay the enormous profits demanded by the Publishers of most Agricultural Books, we have secured Several Hundred Copies Of this valuable little Treatise on the Horse, single copies of which we shall be pleased to mail to any reader of this paper, postage prepaid by us, on receipt of 25 CENTS. Remittances may be made in currency, silver or stamps. Send all orders to D. C. IRELAND, Astoria, Oregon.
