The Weekly Astorian Is a mammoth sheet, exactly double the size of the Daily. It is just the paper for the fireside, containing in addition to all the current news, choice miscellany, agricultural matter, market reports, etc.

THE CITY.

THE DAILY ASTORIAN will be sent by mail at 75 cents a month, free of postage. Readers who contemplate a change from the city can have THE ASTORIAN follow them, DAILY or WEEKLY editions to any post-office without additional expense.

Dr. Tuttle returned to the city yesterday.

The Columbia went to sea yesterday morning.

The barkentine Webfoot is outside with pilot on board.

The schooner Emily Stephens sailed for Neah bay yesterday.

Read the new advertisement of M. C. Crosby in another column.

Hail stones, as large as marbles, fell in this city Thursday night.

Mr. M. Nowlen is extending his shop building, foot of Washington street.

Auction sale at eleven o'clock this morning at Holden's auction rooms, see ad.

The frame of Mr. Jos. Hume's new cannery, foot of Concomly street, has been raised, and will no doubt be rapidly pushed to completion.

Rice grows well in eastern Washington. From the crop that is to be planted in Pomeroy this year, a good yield is expected next season.

It will take considerable work to put the roads through eastern Oregon and Washington in order. It will take more to put the roads leading out of Astoria in order.

Messrs. Jewett & Kimball have added another splendid pair of horses to their trucking and draying business in this city. They are thoroughbreds from Clackamas county.

Persistent Pluvius, after allowing Old Sol one day's pleasure, opened his flood-gates again yesterday, and the result was the beginning of our genuine March weather. Now spring begins.

Last Tuesday as a gang of Chinamen were thawing giant powder near the Grange city railroad cut, the powder exploded, blowing two Chinamen to atoms and dangerously injuring two more.

Some of our exchanges have discarded their patent outside and attempt to give their readers a paper printed entirely at home, but it is only necessary to read one side to get all the matter contained in both sides.

Gen. F. Weston, present commander of the department of the Columbia, and party consisting of Gen. Sawtelle, Major Kress and Lieutenant Landis, returned from their inspection tour to the forts yesterday. The firing of guns at fort Stevens yesterday was in honor of the arrival of the party at that post from Fort Canby.

A case of habeas corpus came before county judge, Hon. J. Q. A. Bowly, on Tuesday last. Harry Mace, under bonds to answer to a charge of assault and battery on A. J. Markey, who is still in the hospital suffering from the effect of his injuries, surrendered himself to Justice Fox demanding a return of the fifty dollars deposited as bail, and that he be committed to jail. The justice returned him his fifty dollars, committed him to the custody of the sheriff and increased his bail to $100. Mace's attorney then produced a writ of habeas corpus on the grounds that a justice of the peace had no right in law to adjourn a criminal action pending before him for a longer time than six days. The writ was taken before Judge Bowly who decided to remand the prisoner back to jail to await his trial on next Monday, the time to which the case was continued by Justice Fox.

Tin Wedding.

A very pleasant party assembled on the evening of the 5th inst., at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Weatherbee of Eureka, Washington territory, to celebrate their tin wedding. In addition to the residents of Eureka, many of their friends residing in the vicinity along the banks of the Columbia river graced the occasion with their presence, as also did Mrs. J. E. Forchben, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Weatherbee, and other acquaintances of this city and upper Astoria. The fair hostess and surprised host proved themselves equal to the emergency by pleasantly entertaining their visitors, not only to choice refreshments, but with charades, parlor games, and other amusements which made it an evening of delight that will long be remembered with pleasure by the participants. The tin presents left by their friends as commemorative of the tenth anniversary of the wedding, were numerous and unique.

The sad intelligence of the death of D. M. Gault is noted. He died at Pendleton Thursday morning.

Hugh Conley fell from a wagon and was dragged by a runaway team and killed near Brooklyn mills, East Portland, on Thursday last.

The Brooklyn flouring mill, located in East Portland, caught, or was set on fire at an early hour Thursday morning, and together with the contents was totally destroyed.

The sociable given by the young Misses at the Young Men's Christian association rooms last evening was a decided success, and deserves more lengthy notice, which we must defer on account of time and space.

Capt. A. Pingstone arrived at Walla-walla on Thursday night from Celville, coming by canoe down the Columbia to Ainsworth in nine and a half days. He found the river available for steamboats for four hundred miles above Ainsworth provided four portages are made.

We are reliably informed that a peremptory order, signed by President Hayes and Gen. Sherman, has been received at forts Canby and Stevens strictly prohibiting from this date the sale of spirituous liquors at these and all other military posts. The order says that for the present the sale of malt liquors is not prohibited.

James Smith was tried yesterday before Justice Fox for larceny. Smith unceremoniously appropriated to his own use a coat belonging to Mr. Thos. McFarland, and for doing so was fined twenty-five dollars and costs. Not being in funds to liquidate, Smith was committed to jail. This same member of the numerous Smith family is the identical sneak thief who was convicted some time ago for stealing a canary bird and cage from Mr. F. C. Norris.

Tin Plate, Pig Tin, Etc.

Geo. W. Hume keeps constantly on hand, and to arrive a full line of fishermens and cannery supplies, at prices which defy competition. Parties wishing groceries and those intending to run mess hodes should inspect goods and obtain large discount from regular price.

Several furnished or unfurnished rooms at Mrs. Munson's lodging house. Also, a few persons can have board if required, either ladies or gentlemen.

J. W. Hanson

Is getting impatient waiting for some of these promises to pay balances due on account of steamer Magnet. He don't want to make costs, but is liable to do so.

John Rogers has just received at the Central market a large invoice of coal oil, assorted brands, and for sale at reduced rates. He also keeps a general assortment of groceries, liquors, tobacco, cigars, fruits and vegetables of best quality, which he offers at small profit for cash.

Frank Faber has removed into Dr. Kinsey's building on Water street. On the road to the steamer dock from down town, before breakfast, it will now be handy to drop in and get a cup of coffee.

Since the Chinese started to brew "cheap San Francisco beer" there is little or no demand for that article any more. Call for the Columbia brewery beer, if you want something good.

Gray's wood yard is now fitted up on the wharf foot of Benton street, and prepared to deliver wood to any part of the city sawed to any length, and full measure.

Mr. John Rogers, of the Central Market, has made arrangements to keep all the finest fresh fish, etc., in their season.

If you want a good big oyster stew in style, call around to Tom Smiths, next door to P. H. Fox, Main street Astoria, Oregon. Open at all hours.

For the best Beer in Astoria, call for the Columbia Brewery Beer, acknowledged to be superior to all others.

Syphon Study Lamp.

Hon. I. W. Case, of Astoria, in placing the new Syphon study lamp on the market, would call the attention of the trade to some of its merits. Its illuminating qualities are not equalled by any study lamp in use. It gives a steady, brilliant light; is free from unpleasant odor; does not drip either when burning or not burning; easily lighted and trimmed, and is without exception, the most convenient lamp to fill ever made. Directions accompanying each lamp. Call upon Mr. Case and buy one. He sells them at remarkable low rates.

Central Hotel.

The Central hotel, near the steamship dock is now open for the reception of guests, where the well known caterer, Mr. Anton Beloh will always be found ready to wait on his patrons. He has had the above named house thoroughly refitted by Messrs. Pike and Stockton, our well known artists. Call and see him, as he has the finest brands of liquors and cigars to be had in the city.

AMUSEMENTS.

HILL'S VARIETIES. Geo. Hill, proprietor and manager, Fred Gere, stage manager, A. Ostrander, leader of orchestra, Geo. Lambert, leader of brass band. Entire change of programme this evening. Complete success of Miss Lou Baldwin and the entire company. Nickerson in new fun, Morice in balads, and the ladies in vocal pieces. Price of admission remains the same. Nine people on the first part, and an exhibition equal to any on the coast. Mr. Hill invites criticism. Come and see for yourself. New orchestral selections and new music on the grand stand under the leadership of Mr. George Lambert at 6:30 P. M. The entertainment will begin at 7:30 P. M. Entrance on Benton street. Private boxes on Chenamus.

Burnett's Cocaine. The best hair dressing in the world. Burnett's cocaine always irritation, removes all tendency to dandruff, invigorates the action of the capillaries in the highest degree, and has earned a deserved reputation for promoting the growth and preserving the beauty of the human hair. Ladies dressing their hair perfectly for the evening will find that it imparts a healthy natural gloss to the hair, and will cause it to retain its shape for hours. Burnett's flavoring extracts are used and endorsed by the best hotels, confectioners and grocers throughout the country. They are perfectly pure.

A cough, cold or sore throat should be stopped. Neglect frequently results in an incurable lung disease or consumption. Brown's Bronchial troches do not disorder the stomach like cough syrups and balsams, but act directly on the inflamed parts, allaying irritation, give relief in asthma, bronchitis, coughs, catarrh, and the throat troubles which singers and public speakers are subject to. For thirty years Brown's bronchial troches have been recommended by physicians, and always give perfect satisfaction. Having been tested by wide and constant use for nearly an entire generation, they have attained well-merited rank among the few staple remedies of the age. Sold at 25 cents a box everywhere.

Have Wistar's balsam of wild cherry always at hand. It cures coughs, colds, bronchitis, whooping cough, croup, influenza, consumption, and all throat and lung complaints. 50 cents and $1 a bottle.

650,000 ALREADY SOLD!! A Treatise on the HORSE

And its Diseases, by B. J. KENDALL, M.D. Full of Valuable and Practical Information, and containing an INDEX OF DISEASES.

Which gives the symptoms, cause and the best treatment of each; a table giving all the principal drugs used for the horse, with the ordinary dose, effects, and antidote when a poison; a table with an engraving of the horse's teeth at different ages, with rules for telling the age of the horse; engravings showing the important points in the structure of the horse, also illustrating positions assumed by sick horses in different diseases. A valuable collection of receipts, many of which would cost a horse-owner three to five dollars each.

EVERY FARMER SHOULD OWN THIS BOOK. Thousands who have seen it commend it, and many good horsemen have extolled it in the highest terms, even stating that they prefer it to books which cost $3 to $10 and do not throw away your money in the purchase of costly books on the horse, which are so full of Latin phrases and technical terms as to be unintelligible to the average reader but.

BUY KENDALL'S TREATISE, A book of 100 pages, in paper covers, giving you more practical information than is contained in some large volumes at far higher cost. Having examined this book thoroughly we are satisfied no HORSE-OWNER

Would hesitate a moment about investing 25 cents in its purchase, if he did not know the value of its contents. Recognizing the desirability of having such practical information as our farming friends daily need in their business, provided at reasonable cost instead of being obliged to pay the enormous profits demanded by the Publishers of most Agricultural Books, we have secured Several Hundred Copies

Of this valuable little Treatise on the Horse, single copies of which we shall be pleased to mail to any reader of this paper, postage prepaid by us, on receipt of 25 CENTS. Remittances may be made in currency, silver or stamps. Send all orders to D. C. IRELAND, Astoria, Oregon
