The Weekly Astorian.

Is a mammoth sheet, exactly double the size of the Daily. It is just the paper for the bedside, containing in addition to all the current news, choice miscellany, agricultural matter, market reports, etc.

THE CITY.

THE DAILY ASTORIAN will be sent by mail at 15 cents a month, free of postage.

- All fools day. -Collection day. -Salmon season opens to-day. -Garden for rent. Apply at this office. -The bark Viola went to sea yesterday. -The Rival started up river yesterday in tow of the Oklahama. -Hon. D. K. Warren is improving his residence property by raising the lot. -Mr. Chas. Still is re-covering and overhauling the Occident billiard tables. -The British bark Glengaber is loading at Liverpool for Ballfour, Guthrie & Co., Portland. -Secure your reserved seats at Adler's for the grand concert by the Espinosa concert company at Liberty hall to-morrow evening. -The epidemic still prevails among horses throughout the city, but in such mild form that we hear of no case having resulted fatal. -The pilot schooner J. C. Cousins was taken down to the bar yesterday by the tug Mary Taylor, preparatory to entering upon her duties outside. -Mr. C. H. Hale will leave Astoria for Portland in a few days where he has accepted a position in the dry goods house of White, Goldsmith & Co. -We understand that Capt. L. H. Hubbard, of the Jane A. Falkenburg, is ill at his residence in Oakland, California, and was unable to go to the islands on the present trip. -Ben Holliday, whose name is inseparably connected with many Oregon enterprises, will come to this state some time next month to look after his interests hereabouts. -Mr. Cohen, formerly of the firm of Cohen and Cooper, in this city, has returned to Astoria and engaged the large store building corner of Chenamus and Benton streets, where he will shortly open a fine large stock of goods. -The body of a man was picked up in the river near Eagle Cliff yesterday, but owing to the short stay of the Bonita we were unable to obtain full particulars. It is supposed he was one of the unfortunate of the Clatsop Chief disaster. -Rescue Engine company's elegant Sibley steamer, having been thoroughly overhauled and a complete set of new tubes put in, was out on trial yesterday afternoon and found to work satisfactorily in every particular. Mr. John Fox, who did the job, is a master mechanic and understands how to do such work well. -We were in error yesterday in stating that Mrs. Harriet Kimball was dead. Although at the age of seventy-four Mrs. Kimball, now Mrs. Jewett, is still alive and well. Her first husband was Mr. Kimball, whose name was among those killed in the massacre. She afterwards married Mr. Jewett, who died in Astoria a few years ago. She now resides at Skipsnon. -Special attention is called to the new advertisement of the I X L store in another column to-day. Mr. C. H. Cooper has just opened for inspection one of the finest stocks ever brought to this city, and having enlarged his store to nearly twice its former size now displays his goods to a better advantage. A visit to the I X L store would convince anyone that he certainly has a stock excelled by none.

The English Walking Fast.

Yesterday we received a pleasant call from Mr. E. O. Corson, superintendent of Messrs. Leinenweber & Co's Astoria boot and shoe factory.

-Henry Villard will probably visit Oregon in June next. -Capt. A. M. Simpson has purchased Hinsdale's mill at Gardiner. -A port Townsend dispatch states that the steamer California leaves that port for the north to-day. -Hon. J. H. Evans has assumed the editorial and proprietorship of the State Line Herald, published at Lakeview, Oregon, Watson Bros. retiring. -The expense of running the Seattle schools with twelve teachers is $750 per month. There are sufficient funds on hand to run the term until the first week in June. -A disastrous fire entirely destroyed a Chinese store and building at Albany on Wednesday morning last. The loss is estimated at $4,750; insurance $2,100. -The Pacific Coast Steamship company have contracted with the Risdon iron works for the construction of a freight steamer, of 600 tons register. Work has already been commenced on her. -Judge Wingard has finally decreed that the county seat of Spokane county shall be located at Cheney, pursuant to the desire of the majority of voters as expressed at the last general election. -The temporary injunction so unexpectedly promulgated in Judge Dooley's court has created considerable comment in Portland and East Portland. Arrangements have been made for a public indignation meeting in the latter place. -The Goldendale Gazette says: H. Wing of Oysterville, over on the coast, came here last summer and remained several weeks, and built a store just east of Mrs. Ingersoll's. He returned yesterday and in a few days his wife will be here. He has on the way a small stock of goods and will soon open out. -The Oregonian says: It was announced a short time since that the Oregon Railway and Navigation company were about to make very extensive additions and alterations to their wharf property in Astoria. We now learn that they have abandoned this intention owing to the fact that there are one or two intervening water front lots owned by other parties, and necessary to their use if the improvements had been carried out, which cannot be purchased by the company at what is deemed to be a fair value. -Marvel not that I say unto you, ye must pay the printer. Whosoever neglecteth to pay the printer, hath not eternal life abiding in him. Who hath sorrow, who hath wee, who hath the nightmare! They who forget to render unto the printer his just dues. If a man live many years and payeth not for THE ASTORIAN, behold he shall not die in peace till he hath restored to the printer that which he hath withheld. -By a recent postal decision men can actually make money by getting their bills and statements of accounts printed. Statements of accounts and bills of sale when made out on paper having printed headings, can be sent by mail for one cent, if the envelope is left unsealed; whereas, if it is made out on unprinted paper, it will cost three cents. Thus by pasting THE ASTORIAN two cents can be saved on every bill or statement that is sent out through the mail. -Circuit Court Blanks, County Court Blanks, Justice Court Blanks, Shipping Blanks, Miscellaneous Blanks, Deeds, Mortgages, etc., for Sale at THE ASTORIAN office. -Get your legal blanks at THE ASTORIAN office. A full line of over two hundred styles.

Cheyenne Leader. In a few minutes the train started and was speeding away at a lively rate, when Senator Fair suddenly came out of the telegraph office. He gazed at the departing train, now five hundred yards away, and quickly took in the situation. He would have to run or get left. The former alternative was taken, and the fifteen-millionaire started to run like any fifteen-cent plebeian.

-A disjunctive tree entirely destroyed a Chinese store and building at Albany on Wednesday morning last. The loss is estimated at $4,750; insurance $2,100. -The Pacific Coast Steamship company have contracted with the Risdon iron works for the construction of a freight steamer, of 600 tons register. Work has already been commenced on her. -Judge Wingard has finally decreed that the county seat of Spokane county shall be located at Cheney, pursuant to the desire of the majority of voters as expressed at the last general election. -The temporary injunction so unexpectedly promulgated in Judge Dooley's court has created considerable comment in Portland and East Portland. H. Cutter old Bourbon, and the best of wines, liquors, and San Francisco beer call at the Gem opposite the bell tower, and see Campbell. -Since the Chinese started to brew "cheap San Francisco beer" there is little or no demand for that article any more. Call for the Columbia brewery beer, if you want something good. -When you want a dish of nice Eastern Oysters done up a la mode, or a good steak, or a fragrant cup of coffee, call at Frank Fabres on the roadway, and he will accommodate you. Open at all hours. -Frank Faber has removed into Dr. Kinsey's building on Water street. From the road to the steamer dock from down town, before breakfast, it will now be handy to drop in and get a cup of coffee. -Carl Adler has an experienced watchmaker, jeweler and engraver in connection with his well known watch and jewelry store. He will remain permanently for the purpose of attending to all kinds of work in his line. All work warranted. -Hanchett & Carter, proprietors of the 12th St. Livery, Chicago, Ill., in a letter dated Dec. 5th 1879 speak thus of Kendall's Spavin Cure: It is several years since we bought the first of you and we do not hesitate to say it is the very best article for spavins, ringbones, scratches, splints &c., that we ever used. We would not be without it in our large livery for thousands of dollars. We pronounce it one of the greatest discoveries of the age. It stands without a peer in horse liniments. See advt. -Lawyers briefs printed in fine style, at THE ASTORIAN office.

MISCELLANEOUS. A Merciful Man is Merciful to his Best. ONLY 25 CENTS. 650,000 ALREADY SOLD!! A treatise on the HORSE And his Diseases, by B. J. KENDALL, M.D. Full of Valuable and Practical Information, and containing an INDEX OF DISEASES. Which gives the symptoms, cause and the Best Treatment of each; a table giving all the principal drugs used for the Horse, with the ordinary dose, effects, and antidote when a poison; a table with an engraving of the Horse's teeth at different ages, with rules for telling the age of the Horse; 25 engravings showing the important points in the structure of the horse, also illustrating positions assumed by sick horses in different diseases. A valuable collection of receipts, many of which would cost a horse-owner three to five dollars each. EVERY FARMER SHOULD OWN THIS BOOK. Thousands who have seen it commend it and many good horsemen have extolled it in the highest terms, even stating that they prefer it to books which cost $5.00 to $10.00. Do not throw away your money in the purchase of costly books on the Horse, which are so full of Latin phrases and technical terms as to be unintelligible to the average reader but, BUY KENDALL'S TREATISE. A book of 100 pages, in paper covers, giving you more practical information than is contained in some large volumes at far higher cost. Having examined this book thoroughly we are satisfied it is HORSE-OWNER Would hesitate a moment about investing 25 cents in its purchase, if he did not know the value of its contents. Recognizing the desirability of having such practical information as our farming friends daily need in their business, provided at reasonable cost instead of being obliged to pay the enormous profits demanded by the Publishers of most Agricultural Books, we have secured Several Hundred Copies Of this valuable little Treatise on the Horse, single copies of which we shall be pleased to mail to any reader of this paper, postage prepaid by us, on receipt of 25 CENTS. Remittances may be made in currency, silver or stamps. Send all orders to D. C. IRELAND, Astoria, Oregon
