The Weekly Astorian.
 Is a mammoth sheet, exactly double the size of the Daily. It is just the paper for the fireside, containing in addition to all the current news, choice miscellany, agricultural matter, market reports, etc. It is furnished to single subscribers at $2.00 per year in advance.
 A limited number of small advertisements inserted at established rates.

THE CITY.

THE DAILY ASTORIAN will be sent by mail at 75 cents a month, free of postage. Readers who contemplate absence from the city may have THE ASTORIAN follow them, DAILY or WEEKLY additions to any post-office without additional expense. Addresses may be changed as often as desired. Leave orders of the counting room.

- Steamer day to-morrow.
- Common council this evening.
- The high boat at Hume's yesterday was forty-four.
- Mrs. Derby will go below for new goods by the steamer to-morrow.
- Prof. W. Lynn White died of heart disease in Portland on Sunday last.
- Dr. Miller has opened his office in the building lately occupied by A. W. Cote.
- The Tillamook schooner Kate L. Herron is ready for sea, and will sail to-day.
- The bark Ably Furness is en route to this port from Yokohama, also a ship not yet reported.
- The Fishermen's Packing company sent out six boats Sunday night. The high boat was fifty.
- The ship Canada proceeded to sea last evening in ballast for Tacoma, and in tow of the tug Tacoma.
- Mr. S. Booth is quite ill of intermittent fever, at the residence of Mr. C. T. Thomas, upper Astoria.
- Col. A. T. Hawley is a resident of Yaquina bay, and has just been commissioned notary by Gov. Thayer.
- The Canada arrived down yesterday en route to Puget-Sound in tow of the tug Tacoma, Capt. Al. Betts piloting.
- The Occident dogs Sam and Brick make their grub by carrying in wood. This is a trick which George has taught them.
- The ladies of the Methodist Episcopal church are preparing for a novel and interesting entertainment on the 23d.
- Capt. Yarnberg is accompanied by his wife and mother-in-law, on the present voyage of the schooner Kate L. Herron to Tillamook.
- The catch of salmon is increasing. We heard of several boats yesterday morning with an average of twenty, and one or two as high as sixty to the boat.
- Prisoners in the county jail took a notion to change their apartments Saturday night, and quietly walked away. One of them, Sweeney was recaptured, Smith is still at large.
- We refer our lady readers to the card of Mrs. S. T. McKean, in another column to-day. She is prepared to fill all orders in her line at satisfactory prices. Stamping done to order.
- One of the answers as to why it is that upper town grows past Astoria proper, is shown in the fact that out of forty fishermen attached to Badollet & Co's cannery, twenty-five have families and homes in upper Astoria; are identified with the place.
- A hard case jumped overboard from a vessel in Bakers bay, intending to escape. He was smoking a stub of a cigar at the time, and when arrested his first words were "gimme a match." He lighted his stub and went on board. He is the same character who invaded Mr. McCabe's room at the residence of Mr. E. C. Holden last summer one night.
- Old Mr. Burnside living a few miles above Knappa, left his home last Thursday morning for Astoria in a skiff with a load of net floats. He was seen that afternoon abreast of Tongue point, by Capt. Fisher of the steam tender Sam, since which time nothing has been heard from, or seen of him. Fears are entertained that he has been drowned.

Death of Capt. Pennell.
 A dispatch from Newport via Corvallis April 9th, informs us that Capt. Pennell, of the government tug General H. G. Wright, and three men were capsized on the Yaquina bar in a small boat while attempting to enter the bay. One man was saved, and the captain's body was soon after recovered. Wright arrived off Yaquina bay at 7 a. m. on the seventh. About 11 a. m. Captain Pennell, with three men in a small boat, left the tug apparently to find a channel. There was a strong ebb tide and the bar was rough. The boat was capsized on the bar, and Captain Pennell and seamen Maginnis and Wannemark were drowned. The third man was saved by two Indians. Captain Pennell's body was recovered in the afternoon. The Gen. Wright crossed the bar safely at 6 p. m. The tug Gen. Wright was purchased by Col. Gillespie for the government on the 20th of March, in San Francisco. Capt. Pennell was given command and proceeded by special orders to Astoria direct. She loaded with provisions and materials and sailed for Yaquina bay on Monday, April 4th. Nothing more was heard of the tug until the above news was received. The light-house tender Shubrick crossed the bar bound out at the same time the tug passed over.

—Pilot Malcolm took the Canada to sea yesterday, steam tug Astoria attending.

—Mr. Ackerman, of Tacoma, one of the purchasers of the Canada, was at the Occident last evening.

—Mr. Skinner is advised that the six papers returned to this office yesterday marked "missent" were not missent, and he overstepped his duty when he took the wrapper off the package.

—Mr. Strausberg referred to in the dispatches last week from New York, upon whom an infamous scheme was about to be practiced for the purpose of a black mail, is a partner in business with an uncle of Mr. Carl Adler of this city. The police got away with the scheme and killed one of the schemers.

—Father Powers came very near meeting with a disaster on the roadway day before yesterday, similar to the one which caused the death of his horse last year. Both were occasioned by Chinese carrying dead hogs on a bamboo. It is time now for the council to adopt an ordinance providing that the dead carcasses of animals must be hauled, and not carried through the streets. Let it be done to-night, gentlemen of the council.

—Printed circulars from the special land agent of the Northern Pacific Railroad company, reciting that they have resumed the sale of agricultural lands to actual settlers, upon the old terms, at $2.00 per acre cash, or $4.00 per acre on time, are public. Upon these terms about 5,000,000 acres, embraced in the Pend d'Oreille division, in eastern Washington, are offered for sale. No settler can purchase over 160 acres, and no deed will be executed until the settler makes proof of having twenty acres under cultivation.

—Mr. S. Hauxhurst of Tillamook, has placed upon our table a bound copy of the first volume of The Western Journal, published in St. Louis in 1848 by Tarver and Risk. As a relic of other days it is good, and for purposes of comparison with the present condition of this coast, to which it frequently alludes, is valuable. The commerce and navigation of the Mississippi river and its tributaries forms the topic for an interesting article in the March number. In the July number a railroad from the Atlantic to the Pacific is discussed. In November the editor was trying to solve the question: Where shall we find a market for our surplus grain.

—Considerable discussion has taken place recently in Portland on the subject of liquor in the engine houses. An ordinance was introduced at the last meeting of the council providing that if any person shall take into, cause to be taken into, or in any manner use or drink in any engine house or hook and ladder house in the city of Portland, any spirituous or malt liquors; save at public entertainments which shall not be held oftener than once in each three months in any one house; he or she shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof before the police judge shall be fined not less than ten dollars nor more than twenty-five dollars.

—A good cook wanted at Sand island. Sixty dollars per month. Apply at Badollet & Co's cannery, upper Astoria.

—A man who understands milking and general farm work, will hear of a good situation at $30.00 per month and board, upon application to this office.

Tempest in a Tea Pot.
 VANCOUVER, March 8, 1881.
 EDITOR ASTORIAN:
 The conundrums propounded in THE ASTORIAN, touching one L. A. Banks, were copied by the Independent and excited a great deal of attention. The folks guessed and guessed, but could not solve the riddle. It was worse than the fifteen puzzle, and we had to give it up. But last Sunday evening, the congregation at the Methodist church took the matter up, but it was too much for them, and they too gave it up. But they thought they had to do something, and so they declared that the whole thing was "basely false." Even the dear little girls took hold of it, and stamped their feet, and said, "it ain't so, so there now," and Sarah Winnemucca, and John P. Eaton, and Suzie and Pat Murphy, and a lot of others resolved to stand by dear Louis.

What a beautiful picture it would make, if nicely taken. There would be Banks in the foreground, supported by the Princess Sarah Winnemucca. In the rear, and on either side would be a delightful group. There would be John R. Eaton, dear Mabel and Theodore, sweet Mattie and Wilbur, cunning little Mary and Pat Murphy, the sweet little Flora and Orville, and Nettie and Elva and others. The picture would look so sweet if put in a gilt frame with nice green tassels on each side, and hung in the parlor. But while the picture would look real nice, the logic is very poor. You see THE ASTORIAN didn't make any charges as at all, just propounded the conundrums, and Mr. L. A. Banks says nothing, and denies nothing, but the dear little girls and boys got mad, and say its a sin and a shame, because they had to give it up. But what do they know! What does dear Mabel know about Philomath college! I am quite sure that the charming Princess Winnemucca could not even guess "the price of furniture" at Corvallis. But little Mary says she is sure that Louis never committed suicide, because Pat Murphy told me so, there now.

Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter. If Mr. L. A. —, Well, I give it up. JUDAS I.

From the Vancouver Independent.
 On last Sabbath evening the congregation at the Methodist church took the following action in regard to the newspaper articles which have appeared assailing the character of their pastor:

VANCOUVER, April 2d, 1881.
 Whereas an article has appeared in THE ASTORIAN, and copied by several journals assailing the moral character of Rev. L. A. Banks, pastor of the M. E. church at Vancouver, Washington territory. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That we, the members of his church and congregation do hereby denounce those charges as basely false and do hereby pledge ourselves to stand by him in the temperance reformation he has undertaken.

If you lived here, and knew who signed the above paper you would laugh. Most of them are girls and boys, and the whole thing amounts to nothing, but you know that in print "a name is a name." In behalf of several reliable citizens I send the matter to you for publication. When he, a minister, set about abusing this man and that man, and visits a place and then writes an abusive article about it, we do not believe it fair to let "the dead and the beautiful rest," and he should not complain if he is hit.

JUDAS.

—Go to M. C. Crosby's and get your lunch buckets, water kegs, ballers' buoys and boat stores.

—Lawyers briefs printed in fine style, at THE ASTORIAN office.

—P. Wilhelm, Boss saloon, opposite the Clarendon hotel, Portland, Oregon.

—P. J. Goodman, on Chenamus street, has just received the latest and most fashionable style of gents and ladies boots, shoes, etc.

—For the best Beer in Astoria, call for the Columbia Brewery Beer, acknowledged to be superior to all others.

—Mr. John Rogers, of the Central Market, has made arrangements to keep all the finest fresh fish, etc., in their season.

To Our City Patrons.
 On and after Tuesday, the 12th inst., Mr. L. E. Selig will have full control of the city delivery in Astoria and upper Astoria of THE DAILY ASTORIAN. Subscriptions must be paid to him. Any neglect on the part of his carriers, if reported to Mr. Selig or the office of THE ASTORIAN, will be promptly attended to. Mr. Selig will also act as local reporter for the paper, and any favors extended to him will be duly appreciated and reciprocated.
 D. C. IRLAND, Publisher.
 Astoria, April 7, 1881.

To Let.
 Several furnished or unfurnished rooms at Mrs. Mumson's lodging house. Also, a few persons can have board if required, either ladies or gentlemen.

Tin Plate, Pig Tin, Etc.
 Geo. W. Hume kept constantly on hand, and to arrive a full line of tin-ware and canning supplies, at prices which defy competition. Parties wishing groceries and those intending to run mess houses should inspect goods and obtain large discount from regular price.

Central Hotel.
 The Central hotel, near the steamship dock is now open for the reception of guests, where the well known caterer, Mr. Anton Beloh will always be found ready to wait on his patrons. He has had the above named house thoroughly refitted by Messrs. Pike and Stockton, our well known artists. Call and see him, as he has the finest brands of liquors and cigars to be had in the city.

AMUSEMENTS.
HILL'S VARIETIES.
 Geo. Hill, proprietor and manager, Fred Gere, stage manager, A. Ostrander, leader of orchestra, Geo. Lambert, leader of brass band. New first part with Nickerson is tango, Staley as homes, and Gere intercooler. Our new act, arranged and composed by Mr. Staley, called "Musical Pastimes," by Staley and Gere. First appearance of Mr. John Cook, the celebrated clown, singer and dance artist; engagement of Miss Lou Cook, female song and dance artist and jig dancer. Miss Mattie Morrison in selected songs. Nickerson will make you laugh with his funny fun. Staley in his specialties and Gere in his. Nickerson, Mr. Hill is making active preparations for more amusements with which to please those of the public who are fond of popular amusements. New orchestral selections by our efficient orchestra, and new music by our excellent brass band on the grand stand at precisely 7 p. m. Certain rises at exactly 8 p. m. Entrance on Benton street; entrance to private boxes, on Chenamus street.

Premature Loss of Hair.
 Nowadays may be entirely prevented by the use of Burnett's Hair Oil. It has been used in thousands of cases where the hair was coming out in handfuls, and has never failed to arrest its decay; it promotes a healthy and vigorous growth, and it is at the same time unparalled as a soft and glossy dressing for the hair.

Burnett's flavoring extracts are the best, strongest and most healthful. Sold everywhere.

The Peruvian syrup has cured thousands who were suffering from dyspepsia, debility, liver complaint, boils, humors, female complaints, etc. Pamphlets free to any address. Seth W. Fowle & Sons, Boston.

—Dr. John Welch, dentist, will be at the Occident hotel in this city about the 20th inst., and remain a short time for the practice of his profession.

—Gray's wood yard is now fitted up on the wharf foot of Benton street, and prepared to deliver wood to any part of the city sawed to any length, and full measure.

—John Rogers has just received at the Central market a large invoice of coal oil, assorted brand, and for sale at reduced rates. He also keeps a general assortment of groceries, liquors, tobacco, cigars, fruits and vegetables of best quality, which he offers at small profit for cash.

—Frank Faber has removed into Dr. Kinsey's building on Water street. On the road to the steamer dock from down town, before breakfast, it will now be handy to drop in and get a cup of coffee.

—Since the Chinese started to brew "cheap San Francisco beer" there is little or no demand for that article any more. Call for the Columbia brewery beer, if you want something good.

—When you want a dish of nice Eastern Oysters done up a la mode, or a good steak, or a fragrant cup of coffee, call at Frank Fabres on the roadway, and he will accommodate you. Open at all hours.

—Max. Wagner's San Francisco National brewery beer can't be beat.

—For the Genuine J. H. Cutter old Bourbon, and the best of wines, liquors, and San Francisco beer call at the Gem opposite the bell tower, and see Campbell.

—For a first-class oyster stew, fry, pan-roast or fancy roast, go to Roscoe's on Main street, opposite N. Loeb's. Families supplied by the hundred or the sack, opened or in the shell.

—Miss Nora Will has returned from Portland and is ready to begin giving music lessons.

—Says a prominent horseman in giving his opinion of Vanderbilts mare, Maud S., whose great feat at Chicago let her at the head; and 'dubbed' her queen of the turf; in my opinion the time is not far distant when a two minute gait will be recorded, it will certainly be the case if horsemen continue to use Kendall's Spavin Cure as it limbers up the joints, removes all blemishes and in fact has made a complete revolution in the horse business.
