

Consular Reports.

The fifth number of the monthly publication by the department of state is just out. Like the preceding numbers, this issue is filled with interesting and valuable matter to all who watch the progress of foreign nations in industry or our own relations therewith.

The action of the banks in coming heartily to the aid of Secretary Windom in his solution of the financial question is creditable to the sense and patriotism of the directors of those institutions.

The April number of the Scientific News, Munn & Co., 37 Park Row, beside the usual variety of interesting topics, contains a profusely illustrated article on bee culture, which is of special interest where the industry is extensively followed.

One of the Morey letter conspirators, James O'Brien, was recently sentenced to eight years in the state prison. The rest of the gang have taken a header, and when the affair blows over will bob up serenely and be as good working political pirates as ever.

The Boston Herald believes that "the unwritten law of the senate," which excludes new senators from debates, is a good deal of a humbug. The dead-lock session is having some effect in breaking the force of this rule, and it is to be hoped that such good speakers and debaters as Conger, Hale, Frye, and Hawley will feel inclined to speak their sentiments right out.

A wonderful story is floating around, originating in Middletown, New York. Twelve years ago Miss Cole, a maiden lady, had the misfortune, it is said to swallow a set of false teeth, which became detached from the rubber plate while she was masticating her food.

War! War!! War!!

Not a Bloody War, but a War in Prices!

The News Squashed!

CALIFORNIA ONE PRICE STORE!

In consequence of my successful opening a jealousy has arisen, and I shall strive to give my colleagues a cause for such, and the public a benefit of Red Rock Prices. Remember this is no catch penny advertisement, but my former reputation in Astoria as the founder of a strictly one price store will back my assertions. Among my stock will always be found a full line in the latest style.
