A limited number of small advertisements inserted at established rates.

The Isle of Erin cleared for Queenstown yesterday.
Ladies ice cream festival this evening. See advertisement.
Mr. Winton was discharged yesterday on examination before Justice Fox.

Pikes water works, at Ilwaco, are first class. People ought to appreciate Harvey.

The last consignment of Oregon onions to San Francisco was sold by auction on the 12th, at $2.85 per cental.

The $1,000 4th of July appropriation was vetoed by Mayor Thompson, of Portland. It was a violation of the charter.

Nearly a fire at Knappton yesterday, by a flue in the house of Mr. A. Knapp, jr. Luckily discovered in time. Look to your flues—everybody.

Capt. Eugene Brock goes to Portland to-day to take command of the new government steamer Robert T. Lincoln. The Lincoln will be used on the bar survey by Lieut. Price, in charge.

An Illinois physician prescribed rest and quiet for an ill merchant, whereupon the afflicted man ordered the papers to discontinue his advertisement. This brought him the needed repose.

Mr. and Mrs. John Douglass feel very grateful to all who aided them so much during the sickness and death of their little one, and extended to them so much heartfelt sympathy in the time of their bereavement.

Master Charley Bain is laid up from the effects of a kick from a horse. Mr. C. H. Bain is himself just able to get about from an attack of nervous neuralgia, and Johnny is sick with sore throat. Altogether it is quite an affliction.

The Oregonian calls for an investigation in the matter of the Clan Grant grounding. It says: "No ship ever got aground in that part of the river before; the channel is not less than half a mile wide and from twenty-five to sixty feet deep, and it is difficult to see how a vessel in such a place can be run aground without the most reprehensible carelessness."

The Chicago Inter-Ocean of May 5th says: "A train of fifty cars loaded with oysters in barrels passed through the city yesterday en route to San Francisco. They are to be planted in the bay near that city. They are being shipped thither by A. Booth, the great Chicago oyster man, who has extensive oyster beds near San Francisco, which he has cultivated very successfully for several years."

Among the first matters received by mail here by Mr. A. Booth was a letter announcing that he had received at his Chicago house since his departure for Oregon, two silver medals and two diplomas from Berlin, the results of his exhibition there last year. The Chicago diploma says "silver medal for salmon." The Baltimore diploma says "honorable mention for salmon." This is very gratifying to Mr. Booth.

Chief Engineer Berry has notified all persons in the city using tile flues, of the action of the council in this matter. The committee of the council do not wish to oppress any person, but relying upon the side of safety and justice, hope and expect all will comply with the ordinances of the council as made and provided. The list of persons whom the Chief Engineer has notified was placed in the hands of City Attorney Fulton yesterday.

The Missing Steamer.
No word of the steamer State of California was received here up to the time of going to press with the paper. Two steamers were sent out from San Francisco in search of her on the 18th. The Oregon left here twelve hours earlier than she otherwise would have left, to see if she could render any aid, and the revenue steamer Rush leaving the delay are felt by any one. It is generally believed that the machinery is disabled, and that she is pushing slowly ahead under canvas.

Mrs. Gales system of dress cutting is recommended by her class in Pomeroy, and the ladies of the class all signed their names to the testimonial.

You cannot be buried in obscurity; you are exposed upon a grand theatre to the view of the world. If your actions are upright and benevolent, be assured they will augment your power and happiness.

Golden Days has more than fulfilled the promise with which it started. No parent can do his child a greater kindness than to place this beautiful paper in its hands each week.

With such contributors, and with its puzzles, sketches and humorous matter, Golden Days cannot fail to maintain its position as the leading juvenile journal of the country.

While at a picnic near Ashland, a few days since, Laura Modiette, aged about nine years, fell from a foot-log into the creek. No one was near at the time but Ola Lewis, a little girl about the same age, who at once began screaming for help, but as she saw her companion would drown in the swift current unless assistance reached her quickly, boldly plunged into the stream up to her knees, and rescued her little friend.

On Sunday, May 8th, the City of Tokio, while being taken into San Francisco by pilot Thomas H. Barber, came so near going on to the rocks at point Diablo that the captain of the steamer felt the grating of the keel on them, and instantly taking charge of the vessel, backed her off in time to prevent her getting aground. The damage to the vessel was only nominal. The pilot refuses to make any statement regarding the matter, but it will be investigated.

The Illustrated Scientific News for May is looking handsomer, if possible, than any of the preceding issues. Since its change of publishers this magazine has improved with each succeeding number. The present issue is overflowing with handsome engravings and interesting and instructive matter. Every number contains thirty-two pages full of engravings of novelties in science and the useful arts. Munn & Co., 37 Park row, New York, publishers.

We have been asked to define the new word just coined by the California assembly "slicens." The Chronicle says: "The slicens succeeded in defeating the express claimants of the constitution." The same slicens also succeeded in permanently fastening a tax yoke in the shape of the drainage act on the necks of the people. The republicans were supposed to have a majority in the legislature, but a corrupt half dozen sold out the party for the purpose of continuing an infamous ring of tax-eaters in power."

Colonel Waring's second paper on the sanitary condition of New York, will appear in the June number of Scribner. It is said that the author goes into every detail of the subject, and grapples fearlessly with the most difficult parts of the problem. His recommendations, if carried out in their integrity, would, he believes, constitute "a complete remedy for all the remediable sanitary evils of the city of New York, so far as they relate to its soil, its streets, its houses, or its water supply. They involve nothing that is impracticable, of improbable value, of uncertain effect, or of undue cost."

A fine lot of French candles just received at Adler's.

Big 4 Minstrels.
Saturday evening will be the event of the season at Liberty hall it being the appearance of the celebrated Hootley, Quinlin & Mortons Big 4 Minstrel company. The Post, of San Francisco says: "The minstrels have taken like hot cakes, and the critic who imagines that he can mold public opinion adversely to an entertainment when the aforesaid public wants to see a show, will find it harder work than domesticating an alligator, or making a ten-year old mule affectionate. One of the features of the show is the specialty of John Whorton. Indeed, if there is anything to complain of about the Hootley, Quinlin & Morton minstrels it is that they know well what an inexhaustible fund of humor is inherent in the company, and knowing it, they try to amuse their audiences. Hence they may justly boast of being one of the best companies that ever visited this coast. Mr. Slavin, it is fair to say, is one of the great features of the company and a most painstaking comedian of the most advanced school, drawing his fun from sources where it is least expected. The Rankins do a clever act this week; the first part is excellent and the burnt cork season of 1881 promises to be one of the most successful ever seen here." Reserve seats can be secured at Adler's without extra charge. Apply early or Adler can only insure you a seat on your natural pedestal.

Attention, Ladies.
Mrs. E. J. Gale, having with her, her improved IXL dress chart and complete system for cutting perfectly fitting dresses at one trial, will be in Astoria for a few days, at the Occident Hotel, and will exhibit the chart to the ladies of this place, and explain its merits. I will also show you the charts they now have will not cut a perfectly fitting dress. All ladies, especially dress-makers and those who make their own dresses, are cordially invited to be present and learn something greatly to their advantage. I think I can show to every intelligent woman that my system is superior to any other in use, and being perfect, is all that could be desired in this line. Now is the time for the ladies to get their spring dresses cut by a first class dressmaker. All dresses cut in the latest spring styles. Song of the Albany Beer!
Respectfully Dedicated to and Sent by CHAS. GRATTKE, - - - ASTORIA.

Good evening kind friends, just listen to me, And when you have heard me, I'm sure you'll agree, I will give you a story, and sing it out clear, And the name of my song is the ALBANY BEER.

You can find it all round in this city of gold, And the way that they make it has never been told. That's a secret they keep and hold very dear, For the whole country is drinking that ALBANY BEER.

The brewery is large and the machinery is fine, And every order is sent to you right up to time. They get all kinds of orders from far and from near, And every one's healthy that drinks ALBANY BEER.

For every thing there looks so clean and so neat, And their beer is so sparkling, it cannot be beat. If you are feeling lard or the blues do appear, You can drive them away by drinking ALBANY BEER.
