Personal Political Slanders.

The following is an Oregonian slander of which we should have taken no notice whatever; but, since it has been copied into a Weston Weekly Leader, we feel called upon to say that the telegraph, as bad as it is in the hands of a reckless political mob; has said no such thing. The Leader, copying the lie from the Oregonian. SHYS

A Washington dispatch states, "the most earnest advocate of in- see that they are insured. crease and expedition (in mail routes) was ex-Senator Hipple-Mitchell of Oregon."

The words: "Ex-Senator Hipple-Mitchell of Oregon," never passed over the wires of any telegraph except they were sent and paid for by some maliciously disposed person, with the political whip in his hand, practicing all the arts of a
