

The Daily Astorian

ASTORIA OREGON: SATURDAY, JUNE 18, 1881

D. C. IRELAND Editor.

The Isthmus Canal.

A Panama dispatch of Thursday says canal matters do not progress favorably.

Frankly, we would like to see a little more accomplished on the isthmus, and less blowing in Paris, about this business.

De Lesseps canal company has purchased the Panama railroad.

The United States steamer Alliance sailed from Norfolk on the 16th for a four months cruise between Norway and Spitzbergen.

Gen. Longstreet will be appointed United States marshal of Georgia after July 1st.

A South Carolina paper states that a beautiful and touching sight occurred on a recent Sunday at the Statesburg Episcopal church.

A Tombstone paper says that recently a countryman walked into one of the gambling houses there and wanted to know if a man could bet anything.

The New York legislature has taken the risk of an adverse Supreme-court decision by passing a law which imposes a head-tax of one dollar on every steerage passenger from abroad.

San Francisco Breweries! The New York legislature has taken the risk of an adverse Supreme-court decision by passing a law which imposes a head-tax of one dollar on every steerage passenger from abroad.

The Prineville Route.

Doubtless much of this star route business merits all the indignation heaped upon it, but the attempt at smartness by the New York Times in its remarks upon the route between The Dalles and Prineville, the Mountaineer says, is unworthy of that paper and would hardly have been written had they been acquainted with the facts.

NEW TO-DAY.

FOUND—June 15th, at the Great Republic of Point 12, two 250 fathom 20 mesh web with lead line.
