It is plain, says the San Francisco Alta, that Blaines friends at Albany are actuated by only one motive - to destroy Conkling.

This item will serve to show how some appointments are made: "When Secretary Lincoln went into the cabinet he found Mr. Forbes, who was an usher at the White house during his fathers administration, holding a messengers place in the treasury department.

Henry F. Knapp of New York offers a prize of $50 to any person who will furnish a scientific answer to the question: "Why do rivers, running through alluvial or sandy soil, take a crooked, curved and indirect line to the sea, instead of a straight and direct line, which should be the line of least resistance?"

A factious gentleman, traveling in the country, on arriving at his lodging place in the evening was met by the hostler, whom he thus addressed: "Boy, extricate that quadruped from the vehicle, stabulate him, devote him an adequate supply of nutritious ailment, and when the aurora of mourn shall again illumine the oriental horizon, I will reward you with a pecuniary compensation for your amiable hospitality."

George Augustus Sala wonders why the Duke of Sutherland should visit the United States to study our railway system. He thinks that, having our Westinghouse brake and palace car, England has nothing to gain from our railway system, unless it be the introduction of baggage checks, a convenience which the British public might not appreciate.

P. J. Goodman, on Chenamus street, has just received the latest and most fashionable style of gents and ladies boots, shoes, etc.

The New Testament authorized edition revised, for twenty-five cents at Charles Stevens and Sons City Book store.
