San Diego, in the Charles H. Wells line.

accepted the position of first officer of the steamer Chief.

—The barkentine Portland proceeded to Portland yesterday in tow of the Chief, Gilman pilot.

—The new ship will be in operation at the new Hustlers dock, foot of Main street, to-day.

—The State of California yesterday discharged all of her Astoria freight in good condition as usual.

—The barkentine Portland arrived from San Francisco on Sunday. She came in over the bar without a pilot.

his Nehalem exploration on Saturday, and proceeded to Portland yesterday.

—The Oregon arrived down at 9 A. M., and took on freight at Astoria, leaving at 4 P. M. for San Francisco.

—Mr. W. V. Post returned from New Mexico yesterday. He is not particularly well impressed with the cow-boy region.

—Mr. John G. Ross' Knappa logging camp now has its Organ. We've forgotten his first name, but he is said to be a good one.

—Mr. Gast began tearing away that part of Capt. Flavels warehouse yesterday, that has to be removed to make room for the extension.

—Capt. Hustlers window, at the old dock, has always been a sort of museum. A live white cat, from the Rival, has lately been added.

State of California yesterday, and will make a tour of Oregon and Washington, lecturing upon liberal topics.

is now called the Princess Louise.
She will carry an excursion party of 250 people from Victoria to Olympia on the 4th.

—Mr. E. D. McKen, of the Portland house of Rodgers, Meyer & Co., was in the city yesterday. His visits are brief, but always appear to foretell business.

—The bark W. H. Besse, fifty-three days from Hongkong, arrived yesterday, Columbia towing, Latham pilot. She has four hundred Chinese on board.

—Mr. L. A. Loomis, President of the Ilwaco Steam Navigation company, returned from a visit to San Francisco yesterday in the interest of the new propeller to be built by the company for the coast traffic of Astoria and Shealwater, Neah, Tillamook, and Yaquina bays.

—Put Smith is a passenger for San Francisco by the Oregon, going below for more thoroughbred blooded sheep.
Put is doing a good work for eastern Oregon, and ought to be rewarded with a fortune for his services. His address is Heppner. The next lot of sheep are for Umatilla county.

—E. C. Holden advertises for sale at public auction this morning at eleven o'clock, at his saleroom, all the dining room and kitchen furniture, including a large cooking stove, lately in use at Grants New York restaurant. As the goods are to be sold to satisfy a chattel mortgage, there will be a chance for some good bargains.

—The steamer Naples arrived at San Francisco on the 21st with 900 Chinese passengers. Before the new treaty goes into effect this coast will be flooded with Mongolians. It is reported that 5,000 are waiting transportation from Hongkong; 400 more arrived here yesterday by the Besse, and they are arriving by way of Mexico and British Columbia by thousands.

The Fourth.

The Fourth of July committee are hard at work getting things in shape for the celebration. The money donated to defray the expenses is, considering the size and importance of the town, but a mere pittance; hence the committee, in their arrangements, have had to be a little stingy; for this they should not be censured. They are as liberal as, under the circumstances, they possibly can be. It is proposed to make this anniversary exceed all others in so far as solid fun, enjoyment and comfort are concerned.
A barbecue is talked of, free to all, as one of the features of the day. At the meeting last evening, upon motion of Mr. Gearhart the general committee were authorized to apportion the money amongst the various sub committees, which will be done to-day at a meeting of the general committee at the editorial rooms of THE ASTORIAN at 10 o'clock this forenoon.

—The steamer State of California arrived on time yesterday, discharged her Astoria freight and passed on up the river.

—H. S. Crocker & Co., San Francisco, will please accept our thanks for valuable favor, which will keep us in remembrance of their house for this ensuing twelve months.

—Free lessons in arithmetic every evening on the public street by C.
Frusher Howard, author of the California Calculator, etc. The attention of educators is specially invited.

—At the last meeting of Rescue Engine company No. 2, Mr. Joe Surprenant, the foreman, was presented with a beautiful enamel badge by Mr. N. Clinton. Served him right.

—Peter Johnson was taken to the hospital from his home on Concomly street on Sunday, but died that day.
The funeral will take place from the hospital at two o'clock this afternoon.

—There were over one hundred nets and fishing boats outside yesterday when the steamer State of California came in. The steamer ran over about twenty nets, in spite of all efforts to avoid it.

—The Northern Pacific railroad reached Spokane falls on Saturday, amidst a burst of shining-brilliance and popular business usual. Verily, this worlds managers move with the velocity of a comet. Look at Spokane falls in 1879.

—Mr. C. F. Howard, author of the California Calculator, is in the city.
He illustrates subjects by blackboard examples, and furnishes Howards Art of Computation and Golden Rule for equation of payments, for half a dollar. Well worth the money.

—Mr. T. F. Oakes, Vice-president of the Northern Pacific Railroad company, arrived by the steamer State yesterday. Also Mr. Gamble, whom rumor says is to be Mr. Oakes successor in the Vice-presidency of the Oregon Railway and Transportation company.

—Astoria lodge, No. 6, Knights of Pythias, will publicly install its officers on the evening of July 4th.
Members will assemble at their meeting hall at 7:30 P. M. sharp, and in full uniform will march to Liberty hall, where the installation ceremony will be held, commencing at eight o'clock prompt. Members will bring their values to the lodge room with them.

—The Fourth of July is coming.
In fact, it is right here. And if you want to get a good look at it, call and examine that new lot of spectacles and eye glasses at the City Book store.
We have public glasses, round in gold, steel or rubber, also slanted glasses.
We can supply any kind desired.
Have also a fine lot of spectacle cases and eye glass holders. Give us a call, Chas. Stevens & Son, opposite the bell tower.

—Yesterday morning Bergman & Berrys double team was frightened on West-sixth street, as they were descending the grade opposite the O'Brien hotel, by a pack of worthless curs, yelping at the horses heels, and in making the turn at the corner of the street below one of the wagon wheels caught a loose plank, smashing the wagon down, after which the team dashed off in a general runaway.
The team was badly hurt. There is no redress apparently for such damages, but we have an idea that if the team belonged to us, and we owned a meat shop, and could obtain a stock of strychnine, there would be about five hundred worthless dogs less in Astoria, before the first of next month. Dogs are the curse of Astoria.
Not a day passes but somebody, on foot, on horseback, or in a wagon, is aggravated by them on the streets to an extent which is almost unbearable.
What there is about a dog to entitle them to so annoy people generally is a mystery to us. If an assessment of all the pups, sluts and hounds in the city could be obtained, on the sworn evidence of their owners or keepers, we doubt very much if the aggregated value would equal the cost of repairs to Bergman & Berrys wagon wheel, to say nothing of the many unsufferable nuisances and other damages which result from keeping them in a town where they are nothing but a curse and a disgrace. It is time to abate this nuisance.
