—Widow Bedott on the 11th. Secure seats at Adlers.
 —Mr. B. Van Dusen is able to attend to business.
 —A. H. Mallory is a passenger by the incoming steamer.
 —This weather does not admit of much bar surveying.
 —The steamer Shubrick arrived from the north yesterday.
 —Master Lloyd Van Dusen has returned from school in Portland.
 —The Lurline will leave Portland on Saturday for Astoria, returning on Monday.
 —Princess Sarah Winnemucca was a passenger by the outgoing steamer yesterday.
 —Mr. S. G. Skidmore came down yesterday on a flying visit from Portland. He returns to-day.
 —The Elder is coming in place of the Oregon, and will be due here to-day, having sailed on the 6th.
 —Sign for a public toilet-room: "Who enters leaves soap behind." That is to say don't steal the soap.
 —Line has advanced in Portland to $1.55. By buying a hundred barrels at a time the price is $1.50 per barrel.
 —Mr. Chapman, son-in-law of Senator Mitchell, lately arrived from Washington, and located in Port Townsend.
 —Mr. Max Pracht, of Neville & Co., is at the Occident. He will interview camerymen to-day on the subject of wine for 1882.
 —Mrs. J. M. Robb of Astoria spent the Fourth at Albany. She is at present visiting with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Curry, near Shedd's, Lion county.
 —The New Orleans Picayune advises its readers to drink plenty of water. But this is merely a joke to try whether or not they are afflicted with hydrophobia.
 —The barkentine Portland arrived down at Knappa yesterday, Oklahoma towing, Gilman pilot. She will take on a load of lumber and proceed to San Francisco.
 —Maj. Morris and Lieut. Jones and family went below on the steamer yesterday with their company. Maj. Throckmorton will go on the steamer Elder next Tuesday.
 —Jack Powers was not dead when Capt. Gilman called to see him at St. Vincent Hospital Wednesday evening. When told that Cornelius was dead he expressed a desire to die also. He is fearfully mangled.
 —The Oregon Railway and Navigation company's Dalles steamer does not leave Portland until 7 A. M. The hour has been 5 A. M. for twenty years past. Railway connection above The Dalles admit this change of schedule.
 —Our regular carrier for the upper town has been absent from his post for several days, and his place has been filled by a younger brother. We hope hereafter to hear no further complaints, as the regular carrier again takes his place this morning.
 —The Post informs us that the Shubrick is in command of Capt. Reiter. Such errors will occur in the best regulated offices. The Shubrick is in command of Capt. Everson. Capt. Reiter, Superintendent of the light-house district, accompanied by Capt. Lampson, accompanied Capt. Everson.
 —There was joy on the farm when Ben, the oldest boy, came back from college in his sophomore year, and the village was proud of him. "Cheese it, cully," he said, when he met the son of a neighbor who joined farms with his father; "cheese it, cully; shove us your flipper, clench daddles, pardy. How's his nibs, and what's the new racket?" And his proud old father said: "It is just Ben rattle off the money to hear Ben rattle off Greek just like a livin' language."

H. B. Litt
 Proprietor of the Ladies Suit House of Portland is staying at the Occident hotel for a few days. He has an exhibition of elegant assortment of Ladies all wool dresses, silks and satins. The gentlemen who are well known to need complete fitting suits are acquainted with Mr. Litt, and are respectfully invited to call at the parlor at the Occident.

Olympia-Tenino Railroad.
 Referring to the late purchase of the Olympia-Tenino railroad, the Courier says: The gentlemen who have bought the road are practical business men, who have capital sufficient to carry out any plan of extension or improvement they wish to undertake, and we expect that in due time they will decide upon and commence the fulfillment of such plans. Gen. Sprague has been the successful manager of the North Pacific railroad in the territory, and his valuable experience will have its effect for good in the management of the local road. We might indulge in many speculations as to what improvements will follow, but the purchasers are business men, not given to disclosing their plans until they are ready for execution, and therefore the public will have to wait for such information until work begins. It is reported, apparently on good authority, that another engine will be put on the track as soon as it can be brought down from Wallawalla.

American Journalism.
 The Boston Journal has been lecturing on journalism, and reaches this conclusion as to its modern drift: There is a demand for smartness; the writer who can say bright and stinging things is applauded, and the paper which is audacious to the verge of libel, and is reckless of the truth if it can only find a lead somewhere to hit, is reckoned as brilliant. It would be difficult to draw a more stupid and malignant libel. The Journal's views must be jaundiced by popular dissatisfaction with the antiquated method of Hub journalism. The whole tendency among newspapers is to a higher grade of work, but also to extreme care in the preparation and sifting of news, and the cultivation of just standards of criticism. It is folly to assume that any newspaper of established reputation can afford to be audacious to the verge of libel or reckless of the truth. The revelations of current politics and the investigation developments splendidly illustrate the real service which is done by a conscientious but fearless press, as well as clearly show the hampering limitations which partisan organs put upon themselves. The Journal utterly fails to interpret its subject and to apply the lessons of the time.

Buy the Weekly.
 THE WEEKLY ASTORIAN for this week is full of just such information and news of the country as your friends in the east want to see. It has very few advertisements, and is close to the muzzle of information that no family can successfully squeeze along without. Two dollars will buy the whole year for a year, $1.50 for six months, or ten cents per copy.

Good Advice.
 The Port Townsend Argus of the 1st, gives wholesome advice in this. It says: "Our republican friends in Oregon, who are so loudly proclaiming the political sins of party leaders in New York, should give us a rest, and practice a little of the sinking out of self, and subordination of personal to party interests that they so cheerfully recommend to others. With an important senatorial contest drawing nigh, and a fair working majority in the state, they find themselves in the predicament of a party split wide open, each faction the deadly enemy of the other. It looks as though the "fair or ruin" virus needed purging out of the party in other places than in New York."

Offices to Rent.
 Single or in suites of two, in THE ASTORIAN building. Prices reasonable.

Course Liverpool Salt.

To Live Men.
 THE ASTORIAN has now reached a circulation which places it at the head of the list of Oregon dailies, and invites to advertisers thereof more benefit for the amount paid than any be secured elsewhere. To those who wish to reach the largest number of readers at the smallest expense, we offer the columns of an attractive daily, the success of which from the very start has been far beyond the expectations of the most sanguine.

A Fair Proposition.
 From this date the Astoria photograph gallery, we conduct business on the following plan. We will take negatives of any lady and everybody that will favor us with a call, we will print a next door to the best, either taken under any obligation to order from such negatives unless they desire to do so.
 We will take the Astoria engine, companies and all lodges and societies, any time they will assemble for the purpose, and present each lodge or society with one picture of such group, either taken all together or in separate pictures and grouped afterwards.
 We will take views of residences and buildings, hotels, canneries, mills, etc. on the same terms, viz: We will take the negatives free of charge.
 We do this in order that our work shall stand on its merits, as we are prepared to do good work. No one need wait until they go to San Francisco.
