

The Daily Astorian

ASTORIA, OREGON: SUNDAY, JULY 15, 1881

ISSUED EVERY MORNING. (Monday Excepted). D. C. Ireland, Editor and Proprietor

Terms of Subscription: served by Carrier, per week 25 Cents

Advertisements inserted by the year at the rate of $1.50 per square per month

The Weekly Astorian Is a mammoth sheet, nearly double the size of the Daily

THE CITY.

THE DAILY ASTORIAN will be sent by mail at 25 cents a month, free of postage

The Elder will not sail out until Wednesday

Mrs. Z. F. Moody of The Dalles is at the Occident

Uncle Jake Miller is in the Sisters hospital in Walla-walla

Miss Belle Welch returned from Salem by the Lurline yesterday

The steamer Elder arrived yesterday morning from San Francisco

See card of prices at Days Metropolitan shaving and hair dressing saloon

The Meron is loaded and ready for sea. Her draft is twenty-one feet, eight inches

Miss Libbie Brown, late of the Astoria public school, has returned to the city, but only for a few days

The Elder yesterday brought us nothing later from San Francisco than we received Friday by overland mail

We are pleased to record the fact that Sam Elmore has recovered entirely and is able to attend to business as usual

We received a very pleasant call yesterday from Capt. John Smith, of Warm Springs Agency, who returns from a three-weeks visit to California

Perishable goods by the Elder came up perished for certain. Not sailing on time, and then making a long voyage, caused fruit to sour and spoil almost totally

Mr. I. W. Case and Mr. C. J. Trenchard left for Salem yesterday to be in attendance at the grand lodge of A. O. U. W., which will commence next Tuesday in that city

Rev. J. T. Marsh will preach in the Congregational church this morning and evening. Communion immediately after the morning service. All are cordially invited

The County-court held a special session last evening to consider the scheme of doing away with that abomination, the old county jail, and substituting something decent for it

Butlers' Bus will be down to-morrow. Thus we see this experimental line of travel in our city developing into a fine business

Van Dusen & Browns pioneer warehouse, on the margin of Mud flat, which was once a beautiful clear sheet of water known as Scow Bay, in this city, is about to tumble, yielding to the ravages of Old Time

The steamer Lurline arrived at 3 P. M., yesterday, with about fifty passengers, most of whom stopped over at Astoria. The rest proceeded to Skipanon, from which place they will take the stage to the Sea-side

Bro. J. P. Blanchard of Canemah, walks away with our strawberry story. A few days since he exhibited twenty-four strawberries which averaged an ounce and a half each in weight. One of these measured eight inches in circumference

Mr. H. B. Litt will conclude his business in Astoria and depart on Tuesday. He expects to return to Astoria in about two months. He met with very good success here, and wishes us to express his thanks to the ladies for their patronage

Bowen, of the Oil City Derrick, has written a touching little poem on the cucumber. The Boomerang and other exchanges, seem to be vine with each other as to who shall write the best thing on the cucumber. The best thing on the cucumber is vinegar we think

The new purchasers of the Olympia Tenino railway are: Messrs. J. W. Sprague, of new Tacoma; F. R. Brown, of Tenino, and R. Wingate, of Carbonado. The new owners express a desire to enlarge the business of the road and will seek a Pacific coast terminus, possibly at or near Ilwaco. The route is wholly practical

Widow Bedott.

These comical papers, the reading of which has caused such excitement among the general public ever since they were issued from the press, were dramatized some years ago by Mr. D. R. Locke, Petroleum V. Nasby, but they were laid away on account of none of the young actresses of the day wishing to take the role of the mature Widow. At last, in the person of Mr. Chas. B. Bishop, the great comedian, one was found willing to assume the character, and his remarkable success in this part has shown an adaptation rarely equalled and not surpassed even by John F. Raymond as Col. Sellers, or Joe Jefferson as Rip Van Winkle

Oregon Trans-Continental Company

The objects of this company are fully set out in the articles of incorporation. It will perform the work of development not intended for the Northern Pacific or the Oregon Railway and Navigation company. Neither of these companies will lose its identity, nor be merged into the Oregon Trans-Continental, which is merely intended to harmonize and unify their interests. The two companies will remain separate and distinct, each performing the objects of its creation

Capt. J. H. D. Gray is now prepared to supply the best quality of fir, hemlock, vine maple, spruce limbs, etc. Leave orders at the wood yard, foot of Benton street.

S. Glaser & Co., successors to F. Sherman & Co., having opened the meat and vegetable market of F. Sherman & Co., would respectfully ask a continuance of the patronage bestowed on the former proprietors.

Peter Wilhelm has established a first class saloon in C. H. Hill's building, on Squemoche street, near the bell tower, and has appointed Messrs. Wm. Beck & Co. his agents. The best of everything in the line of wines, liquors, beer, cigars, etc., will be kept on hand.

Having made arrangements in New York and San Francisco for the purchase of all my goods, my facilities for buying are such as to enable me to undersell all others. I defy competition. S. Danziger, San Francisco clothing store, Astoria.

Mr. Davidson is displaying samples of some of the cabinet photographs which his branch gallery has already made in Astoria. It is even better than the samples shown when he first opened here. Each original has received a dozen just like them and so will every person who favors him with an order. Mr. D. advertised in the first place that he would deal only in good work at reasonable prices, and dozens of Astoria people can testify that he has kept his word, and hundreds more will be able to say the same thing if present appearances signify anything.

Bear Creek Celebration.

An occasional correspondent writing from Bear creek, near Knappa, furnishes us with an account of the celebration there on the 4th, which passed off in pleasant style. About sixty persons met at the house of Capt. H. F. Fisher, and enjoyed a picnic and dinner, interspersed with music, singing, reading of the Declaration, and in the evening they met at the house of Mr. Church and enjoyed themselves at a dance and supper. Our correspondent speaks in very flattering terms of the hospitality of the people of that new settlement, and says: "We still have room for many more settlers here, of the same sort, and would be pleased to see them come. Families preferred."

To City Patrons.

Mr. L. E. Selig, who now has full charge of THE DAILY ASTORIAN routes in this city and upper Astoria, will collect to-morrow for the next week. The free list is suspended. Each subscriber is expected will pay for the paper. Very respectfully, D. C. IRELAND, Publisher.

Roseos New Place.

Roseos, the popular enterer, invites all his old patrons, and as many new ones as may be pleased to make him a visit, to call at his new Ice Cream Saloon, Chenamus street, Occident hotel block, which he has just fitted up in first class style.

No. 1 Ice Cream.

It makes all the difference in the world where you get ice cream as to quality. All who have tried it, every body, pronounce Frank Fabers the best in quality, No. 1 Ice Cream, and equally as much to the fish in quantity.

The Central Hotel.

One of the finest, cleanest and best kept hotels in Astoria, situated near the steamer landing, with first class, airy rooms, good board and very reasonable rates. Bar and billiard rooms. The best of wines and liquors, and an excellent stock of San Francisco beer. ASTORIS HOTEL, Proprietor.

Williamsport Property.

Great bargains are now offered in the city of Williamsport for any persons wishing to locate from one lot to five acres. It is well adapted for gardens, dairy ranches or pleasant homes; well elevated, situated one mile south of Williamsport, with a good, well graded road to the place. For further information call at my residence near the cemetery. JOHN WILLIAMSON.

To Live Men.

THE ASTORIAN has now reached a circulation which places it at the head of the list of Oregon dailies, and insures to advertisers thereof no benefit for the amount paid than may be secured elsewhere. To those who wish to reach the largest number of readers at the smallest expense, we offer the columns of an attractive daily, the success of which from the very start has been far beyond the expectations of the most sanguine.

A Fair Proposition.

From this date the Astoria photograph gallery will conduct business on the following plan. We will take negatives of any lady and everybody that will favor us with a call, we will print a proof of the same free of charge, no one being under any obligation to order from such negatives unless they desire to do so.

We will take the Astoria engine companies, all lodges and societies, any time they will assemble for the purpose, and present each lodge or society with one picture of such group, either taken all together or in separate pictures and grouped afterwards.

We do this in order that our work shall stand on its merits, as we are prepared to do good work. No one need wait until they go to San Francisco.
