The Ilwaco Steam Navigation company's steamer Gen. Canby connects Saturday evening with the regular, and excursion steamers from Portland. This should have appeared in the advertisement yesterday, but was inadvertently omitted.

A corps of United States engineers under the direction of Mr. Habersham, will visit Grays harbor this week, for the purpose of making surveys. They will take the steamer Fearless from Astoria to-day, leaving at 8 o'clock a. m. Capt. A. M. Simpson will go with them to Grays harbor, returning on Tuesday or Wednesday by way of Shoalwater bay.

Thanks to Mr. F. E. Habersham for a copy of the chart of the mouth of the Columbia river, just completed under direction of Col. Gillespie, by Lieut. Price, assisted by Messrs. Habersham, J. A. Gillespie and Dodge. This survey was completed June 20th, and here it is ready for inspection. That is quite different from the old style of doing this business, when it was impossible to get a chart of the bar before it was time to make another survey, years afterwards.

Wholesale Cutting Affray.

About eight o'clock Friday evening a cutting affray occurred at the oil works, just below this city. It seems that the Chinamen employed at the works were preparing to go to bed, when a man rushed into the room where they were and commenced cutting right and left. Before he was stopped he succeeded in severely cutting one Chinaman in the head, and two others about the head and face, but not seriously. Walter Russell was charged with the crime and arrested, but Mr. John Bergman and Mr. Anderson inform our reporter that he is not the man. That the man who did the cutting escaped across the river in one of Bergman's boats. Russell was to be tried before Justice Fox last evening, but the examination was deferred.

—A gentleman who has just returned from Salem, says that Caddie R. is the favorite among turpins.

Peruvian Bitters.

Cinchoona Bitter.

The Count Cinciona was the Spanish Viceroy in Peru in 1825. His wife, who was prostrated by an intermittent fever, from which she was freed by the use of the native remedy, the Peruvian bark, or, as it was called in the language of the country, "Quinaquina," grateful for her recovery, on her return to Europe in 1825, she introduced the remedy in Spain, where it was known under various names, until Linnæus called it Cinchona, in honor of the lady who had brought them that which was more precious than the gold of the Indies. To this day, after a lapse of two hundred and fifty years, science has given us nothing to take the place of this effective cure of a morbid appetite for stimulants, by restoring the natural tone of the stomach. It attacks excessive food, and it does a fever, and it cures both alike. The powerful tonic virtue of the Cinchona is preserved in the Peruvian Bitters, which are an effective against malarial fever today as they were in the days of the old Spanish Viceroy. We guarantee the ingredients of these bitters to be absolutely pure, and of the best known quality. A trial will satisfy you that this is the best bitter in the world. "The proof of the pudding is in the eating." We will willingly abide this test. For sale by all druggists, grocers and liquor dealers. Order it.

A Fair Proposition.

From this date the Astoria photographic gallery will conduct business on the following plan. We will take negatives of any lady and everybody that will favor us with a call, we will print a proof of the same free of charge, no one being under any obligation to order from such negatives unless they desire to do so.

Harmless and sure in its operation, it is incomparable as a dressing, and is especially valuable for the soft lustre and richness of tone it imparts. It contains neither oil nor dye, and will not soil or color white cambric; yet it lasts long on the hair, and keeps it fresh and vigorous.
