

The Daily Astorian.
ASTORIA, OREGON:
TUESDAY, JULY 19, 1881
D. C. IRELAND, Editor.

An Important Publication.

Ira G. Hoitt, Business Manager of "The Commerce and Industries of the Pacific Coast," and W. B. Bancroft, are in this city collecting information for this forthcoming book, projected, and in a few months to be published, by A. L. Bancroft & Co., of San Francisco. The work is being compiled and written by John S. Hittell, who was for nearly twenty-five years, one of the editors of the Alta California, wrote the Resources of California, History of San Francisco, etc., and is better qualified for the work in hand than any other man on this coast.

The book will be a quarto of 600 to 800 pages, will give a very complete account of the rise, progress, products, present condition, and prospects of the useful arts on this side of the Rocky mountains, with an elaborate treatment of our fisheries, manufactures, transportation, agriculture, mining, and our various departments of business. A more useful or a more valuable book to this coast and to people of our own state, could not be contemplated. It will treat the advantages of every part of the Pacific side of the continent impartially. Mr. Hoitt was a member of the last assembly in California, has resided in San Francisco for seventeen years, and brings with him credentials from W. F. Babcock, President of the Chamber of Commerce; Jacob S. Taber, President of the Board of Trade; William T. Coleman, R. D. Hume, Goodall, Perkins & Co., Lloyd Tevis, President of Wells, Fargo & Co.; William Alvord, President Bank of California; Louis McLane, President of Nevada, of San Francisco; Geo. C. Perkins, Governor of California, and others, all of whom endorse the work as one of great value, and say that when it is circulated in the east and Europe, it must greatly benefit this coast. They also endorse Mr. Hoitt as a reliable business man. W. B. Bancroft has been for many years at the head of the printing department at the house of Bancroft & Co., and is well known to many of our business men. These gentlemen will make the tour of Oregon together, and our merchants, canneries, and business men should give them all the information and aid in their power, to make their work as complete as possible concerning Oregon, and thus attract immigration.

THE NEWS.

Ninety-seven degrees in the shade at Omaha.

The President is steadily improving and is out of danger.

Republicans chose a successor to Senator Platt, in New York assembly, in the person of Hon. Warren Miller, on the 16th.

Thirteen highwaymen robbed a train on the Rock island road near Winston, Mo., on the night of the 16th. The conductor and one passenger were killed. It was a bold scheme and has caused great excitement.

Fourteen surveying parties are in the field on the Rocky mountain division of the Northern Pacific railroad. By the end of the year the track-layers will reach Pompeys pillar, on the Yellowstone.

New Ulm, Minnesota, a town of 3500 population, was wrecked by a cyclone on the 16th. The scene was appalling. The track of the cyclone was a scene of awful grandeur during the storm and of appalling wreck after it.

An Ann Arbor man claims to have discovered another comet. This is the fourth comet discovered since May 1st. Dr. Swift thinks, from the present position of the comet, that it is the expected comet of 1812. It is moving very slowly towards the north-west.
